We give thanks to God for Mary, the mother of the Church and patroness of our diocese. We also lift up to the Lord those who have died, especially Marge Swearngen and Father Charles Pardee, also, all our sick. May the immense mercy of almighty God provide to all their every need. We especially pray for those who struggle with grief or addictions, those who labor to feed the world, and those who work tirelessly to provide our well being and safety, most especially our first responders and military.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary, Week 13, Year C, Corazón Inmaculado de la Virgen María, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas June / Junio 29-30, 2019

From Deacon John...

We see a glimpse of Mary's heart in the gospel. Even if she did not understand what Jesus meant, she still followed God. She still loved Him and served Him. Probably, she did not receive from her young son the answer she was expecting, but she did know God's faithfulness. We did not see her complain "I do not understand what he is saying!" Instead, we see Mary as a humble and obedient servant, keeping and pondering things in her heart when she did not understand. As a loving mother, Mary continued to care for, love and follow Jesus. Mary continued to be there supporting him, in whatever he was doing, until his death on the cross. That is the fullness of Mary's perfect heart. That is how we should love Jesus as well.

Vemos un vistazo del corazón de María en el evangelio. Incluso si ella no entendía lo que Jesús quería decir, ella seguía a Dios. Ella todavía lo amaba y le servía. Probablemente, ella no recibió de su hijo la respuesta que esperaba, pero sí conocía la fidelidad de Dios. No la vimos quejarse "¿No comprendo lo que él está diciendo!" En cambio, vemos a María como una sirvienta humilde y obediente, que guarda y medita las cosas en su corazón cuando ella no entendió. Como madre amorosa, María siguió cuidando, amando y siguiendo a Jesús. María siguió apoyándolo, en lo que fuera que estuviera haciendo, hasta su muerte en la cruz. Esa es la plenitud del corazón perfecto de María. Así es como debemos amar a Jesús también.

Question of the Week

Immaculate Heart of Mary – Luke 2:41-51

Key Passage: When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them.

Question for adults: What are some difficult things in raising a child? What part does your faith play in that effort?

Question for children: Why is it important to obey your parents?

Pregunta de la Semana

Corazon Imaculado de Maria--Lucas 2:41-51

Pasaje Crucial: Al verlo, sus padres se quedaron atónitos y su madre le dijo: "Hijo mío, ¿por qué te has portado así con nosotros? Tu padre y yo te hemos estado buscando llenos de angustia". Él les respondió: "¿Por qué me andaban buscando? ¿No sabían que debo ocuparme en las cosas de mi Padre?" Ellos no entendieron la respuesta que les dio.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cuáles son algunas cosas difíciles en la crianza de un niño? ¿Qué papel juega tu fe en ese esfuerzo?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Por qué es importante obedecer a tus padres?

U.S. bishops join pope reacting to photos of drowned migrant father, child

By Catholic News Service, June 27, 2019

WASHINGTON (CNS) U.S. bishops joined Pope Francis in expressing sadness after seeing photos of the lifeless bodies of a migrant father and his daughter who drowned near the U.S. border with Mexico.

Wooden crosses lean on the border fence with the United States. The crosses represent lives lost during migration.

“This image cries to heaven for justice. This image silences politics. Who can look on this picture and not see the results of the failures of all of us to find a humane and just solution to the immigration crisis?” the bishops said in a June 26 statement.

“Sadly, this picture shows the daily plight of our brothers and sisters. Not only does their cry reach heaven. It reaches us. And it must now reach our federal government,” said the statement, issued by Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, and Bishop Joe S. Vasquez of Austin, chairman of the USCCB Committee on Migration.

The photos of Salvadoran migrant Oscar Alberto Martinez Ramirez and his 23-month-old daughter, Valeria, lying face down in the shallow waters of the Rio Grande sparked outrage against the U.S. government due to squalid conditions at migrant facilities as well as increasingly harsher policies against immigrants, many of whom are from Central America, fleeing their countries due to violence, poverty and corruption.

“We can and must remain a country that provides refuge for children and families fleeing violence, persecution and acute poverty,” the bishops said. “All people, regardless of their country of origin or legal status, are made in the image of God and should be treated with dignity and respect.”

In response to journalists’ questions June 26, Alessandro Gisotti, interim Vatican spokesman, said Pope Francis saw “with immense sadness” the photos.

“The pope is profoundly saddened by their death and is praying for them and for all migrants who have lost their lives while seeking to flee war and misery,” Gisotti said.

In an interview with Mexican newspaper La Jornada, Martinez’s wife, Tania, said she and her husband decided to cross the Rio Grande June 23 after waiting for two months for a response to their asylum request from the United States.

Hoping to cross the river into Brownsville, Texas, Martinez first crossed with his daughter and left her along the bank while returning back to help his wife cross. However, upon being left alone, Valeria was frightened and jumped into the river.

Rushing to save her, Martinez and his daughter were instead dragged by the current. Tania was rescued by a person nearby, she told La Jornada.

Twelve hours later, firefighters from Matamoros, Mexico, found the two bodies, both facedown, with Valeria’s lifeless arm clutching her father’s neck.

During his weekly general audience earlier in the day, Pope Francis called on Christians to be more welcoming and accepting of others.

While greeting Spanish-speaking pilgrims, he praised Mexico, which has seen an increased influx of Central American migrants, “because they are so welcoming, so welcoming to migrants.”

Speaking to the Mexican people, the pope said empathetically, “May God repay you.”

Addressing reports of overcrowding and conditions at migrant centers, Cardinal DiNardo and Bishop Vasquez said “such conditions cannot be used as tools of deterrence.”

“Congress has a duty to provide additional funding to address the needs of children in federal custody,” they said. “Their supplemental appropriations bill should also increase protections for immigrant children, including heightened standards and oversight for border facilities. It is possible and necessary to care for the safety of migrant children and the security of our citizens. By putting aside partisan interests, a nation as great as ours is able to do both.”
