We give thanks to God for being ever present to us, especially in our need. We lift up to the Lord those who are sick and those who have died. We pray the mercy of almighty God provide to all peoples their every need, especially those who struggle with grief or addictions and those who labor to feed, house and clothe the world. May our daily prayer always remember and include those who work selflessly for our well being and safety, especially first responders and military.

Seventeenth Week in Ordinary Time, Year C, 17° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas July / Julio 27-28, 2019

From Deacon John...

Having taught his disciples a simple, daily prayer, Jesus reassures them that God does indeed answers prayers. He uses a parable about a neighbor who annoyingly asks for bread at midnight. Because the neighbor is persistent, the sleeping man gets up and gives him all that he asks. Jesus concludes with the reminder that if we seek faithfully, we will get a response. If a human father, with all his faults, knows how to give good gifts to his children, how much more will our heavenly Father give us? This teaching foreshadows the gift of the Holy Spirit. and should not lead us to think of prayer only as a series of requests presented to God. Rather, prayer consists in recognizing God's majesty, holiness, love, concern and his authority over all things.

Después de haber enseñado a sus discípulos una oración sencilla, Jesús les asegura que Dios sí responde las oraciones. Utiliza una parábola sobre un vecino que pide pan a medianoche. Debido a que el vecino es persistente, el hombre dormido se levanta y le da lo que pide. Jesús concluye con el recordatorio de que si buscamos fielmente, obtendremos una respuesta. Si un padre humano, con todas sus faltas, sabe dar buenos regalos, ¿cuánto más nos dará nuestro Padre celestial? Esta enseñanza prefigura el don del Espíritu Santo y no debe llevarnos a pensar en la oración solo como peticiones presentadas a Dios. Más bien, la oración consiste en reconocer la majestad, la santidad, el amor, la preocupación y la autoridad de Dios sobre todas las cosas.

Bishop McKnight's August prayer intention for our Local Church

For the education of our youth in the faith. May parents and teachers share their knowledge with gentleness and patience, and may students thirst for knowledge of the things of this world while always pursuing God's wisdom.

Intención del mes de agosto del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por la educación en la fe de nuestros jóvenes. Que los padres de familia y maestros puedan compartir su conocimiento con tacto y paciencia, y que los estudiantes tengan sed de conocimiento por las cosas de este mundo, siempre tendiendo a la sabiduría de Dios.

Question of the Week

Week Seventeen – Luke 11:1-13

Key Passage:

“And I tell you, ask and you will receive, seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened for you. For anyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.”

Question for adults: What are your expectations when you pray? How do you respond to a less than immediate response from God?

Question for children: How does God answer your prayers? How do you know it is God answering?

Pregunta de la Semana

17ª Semana--Lucas 11:1-13

Pasaje Crucial:

Así también les digo a ustedes: Pidán y se les dará, busquen y encontrarán, toquen y se les abrirá. Porque quien pide, recibe; quien busca, encuentra, y al que toca, se le abre.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cuáles son tus expectativas cuando rezas? ¿Cómo respondes a una respuesta no inmediata de Dios?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cómo responde Dios a tus oraciones? ¿Cómo sabes que es Dios respondiendo?

Holy See urges tolerance, mutual acceptance, coexistence in the Middle East Archbishop Bernadito Auza, the Holy See's Permanent Observer to UN in New York, on July 23 spoke at a Security Council debate on the Middle East. He addressed the Holy Land, Syria, Iraq and the Gulf region.

By Robin Gomes, July 24, 2019

VATICAN CITY (CNS) The Holy See is urging the Middle East to make more efforts in promoting a “dialogue for a culture of tolerance, acceptance of others and of living together peacefully”.

“This is a critical moment in which all countries of the region must noted that the lack of unity between Israelis and Palestinians as well internal divisions were abetting an environment of distrust and violence that put the lives of innocent people at risk and negatively impact the tension in the wider Middle East.

Action, he said, is needed on

Holy See says that the Israeli-Palestinian problem has repercussions in the wider Middle East not squander peaceful advances by falling back into hostilities sparked by the simmering conflicts of the regional powers,” said Archbishop Bernadito Auza, the Holy See’s Apostolic Nuncio and Permanent Observer to the United Nations in New York, on Tuesday.

Speaking at a Security Council Open Debate on the Middle East, he reaching the much sought after two-State solution within internationally recognized borders between Israel and the Palestine State.

The Filipino archbishop said that UN members states can help by encouraging both sides to return to the negotiating table and offer them space and resources to commit themselves to renewed dialogue for their own

Syria

Archbishop Auza also noted that in certain parts of Syria there is a high risk of a worsening humanitarian crisis. He said, “We cannot be deaf to the cries of those lacking food, medical care and schooling, or to those of orphans, widows and the wounded.

In this regard, the Vatican diplomat cited the Holy Father’s recent letter to Syrian President Bashar al-Assad in which he particularly recalled the dramatic conditions facing the civilian population in Idlib. The Pope also called for their protection and for the respect of international humanitarian law.

Yemen

The Holy See official spoke about the worsening humanitarian situation in Yemen with the lack of provisions and essential supplies. “How can we make eloquent appeals for peace in the Middle East and even commit to humanitarian action while at the same time continuing to permit the sale of arms in the region?” he asked.

Iraq, Gulf region

In Iraq, after the unspeakable crimes that the Islamic State terrorists ISIL inflicted especially on the religious and ethnic minority communities, Archbishop Auza hoped for reconciliation and reconstruction “through the peaceful and shared pursuit of the common good on the part of all elements of society.”

He also called on the international community to seek every opportunity for negotiations and peaceful solutions to current crises in the Gulf region.
