We ask for humility, generosity and concern for all those we interact with, and for Christian unity of purpose among our families and neighbors. We lift up to the Lord those who have died. We pray for those who struggle with disease, illness, grief or addiction, especially Eamon Dolan, brother of Father Pat. We are grateful for those who feed, house and clothe the world, and those who labor selflessly for our well being and safety, particularly our first responders and military.

Twenty Second Week in Ordinary Time, Year C, 22° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año C
del evangelio de San Lucas
Agosto 31-September 1, 2019

From Deacon John...

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their place at table. This is more than an etiquette lesson. Luke gives advice for the end times and on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. He teaches, do not invite people who would be expected to repay, rather, invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. In these sayings, the Gospel teaches how the Church must be part of bringing about this type of society. It is yet another example of the reversal the kingdom brings about.

Jesús advierte a los invitados que esperen antes de tomar su lugar en la mesa. Esto es más que una lección de etiqueta. Lucas da consejos para los últimos tiempos y sobre cómo vivir de acuerdo con la visión de Jesús de una buena sociedad. Enseña, no invite a las personas que se espera que paguen, más bien, invite a los que no pueden pagar: los pobres, los lisiados, los cojos y los ciegos. En estos dichos, el Evangelio enseña cómo la Iglesia debe ser parte de la creación de este tipo de sociedad. Es otro ejemplo más de la inversión que provoca el reino.

Question of the Week

Week Twenty Two – Luke 14:1, 7-14

Key Passage:

Jesus said to his disciples, "Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Question for adults:

When or how do you invite the poor, the blind, and the lame into your life?

Question for children:

How do you try to be friends with people who are different than you?

Pregunta de la Semana

22ª Semana--Lucas 14:1, 7-14

Pasaje Crucial:

Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Al contrario, cuando des un banquete, invita a los pobres, a los lisiados, a los cojos y a los ciegos; y así serás dichoso, porque ellos no tienen con qué pagarte; pero ya se te pagará, cuando resuciten los justos".

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cuándo o cómo invitas a los pobres, los ciegos y los cojos a tu vida?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Cómo intentas ser amigo de personas que son diferentes a ti?

*Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found. In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. ## Missionaries of Charity

Celebrate Mother Teresa's 109th Birthday

By Robin Gomes, August 27, 2019

The Missionaries of Charity (MC) nuns on Monday celebrated the 109th birthday of their founder, Mother Teresa, recalling her fidelity to Christ of which was born her love and service for poorest of the world.

VATICAN CITY (CNS) Archbishop Thomas D'Souza of Kolkata, on 26 August, celebrated a Mass at the tomb of the Mother Teresa at the Mother House, or the headquarters, of the Missionaries of Charity nuns, in the eastern Indian city of Kolkata, formerly Calcutta, on the occasion of the saint's 109th birthday.

Mother Teresa's 109th birthday being celebrated at her tomb in Kolkata, India, 26 August, 2019.

"Jesus invites us to love one another. The Mother served the poorest of the poor with selfless service and passionate love, giving them to Jesus through her work," the archbishop said in his homily.

Later, he lit a candle on the decorated tomb and those present sang 'Happy Birthday' to their founder, known simply as Mother Teresa.

Sister Mary Prema, the Superior General of the congregation, said: "Mother always repeated that we are called to be faithful, not to be successful".

The saint's birthday is a major celebration in the house when she was alive, and the nuns continue to celebrate it even after her death in 1997 and canonization in 2016.

Senior nuns told UCANEWS that the tradition of celebrating Mother Teresa's birthday continues to be observed in the order's 700 homes in 136 countries, even after her death.

Today, the MC nuns worldwide number some 4,500 members.

For Father Dominic Gomes, the vicar general of the archdiocese, who concelebrated the Mass with his Archbishop, "It was a splendid celebration." "The 109th anniversary of the birth of our beloved Saint Mother Teresa was a moment of thanksgiving through prayer and joy," he told AsiaNews, noting that the chapel was packed with people of all social classes.

In the Catholic liturgical calendar, a saint's feast day is marked normally on the day of death, the day he or she attained heavenly life.

Mother Teresa was born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu to Albanian parents on August 26, 1910, in Skopje, in what is North Macedonia today. The 19-year old teenager arrived in eastern India's Kolkata city in 1929 with the Sisters of Loreto from Ireland. After her novitiate, she became a member of the congregation. Later in 1950, she founded her Missionaries of Charity order for poor and abandoned people.

She died 22 years ago on 5 September 1997, at the Mother House, at the age of age 87. She was declared a saint by Pope Francis on September 4, 2016. Her liturgical feast is celebrated on September 5, the day of her death.

Fidelity to Christ

"Our dearest Mother, give us a part of your faithfulness to God and to the poorest of the poor," said Sr. Prema in a prayer, sharing her thoughts in a message on the occasion of Mother Teresa's 109th birthday.

"God did not call me to be successful. He called me to be faithful," Sr. Prema said recalling Mother Teresa's conviction. "She was not concerned about success, wealth, fame and power. She knew that God had called her and that God is always faithful." Sr. Prema explained that this was because of her Albanian culture and her mother who taught her to "keep her word of honour, even at the cost of her own life."

In her faithfulness, she relied on God's providence for everything she needed, never closing her heart to anyone, especially those who wounded her. Her fidelity made her the "defender of the right to life of for the unborn, the abandoned and disabled children" and the "Mother of the unwanted". Because of her faithfulness, she was blessed with extraordinary fruitfulness and became "an icon of God's tender and caring love".

Sr. Prema recalled that Mother Teresa was faithful in dedicating herself to the most humble service, so much so that in 1985 the then UN secretary-general Perez de Cuellar called her "the most powerful woman in the world".

The United Nations General Assembly on 17 December 2012 adopted a resolution instituting the International Day of Charity on 5 September, Mother Teresa's feast day, in recognition of the efforts of charitable organizations and individuals, including those of Mother Teresa.
