We lift up to the Lord those who have died. We pray for those who struggle with disease, illness, grief or addiction, especially Adelio Martinez, Lorena Vasquez and Joe Koenen. We are especially grateful for those who feed, house and clothe the world, and those who labor selflessly for our safety, growth and well being, including our catechists, first responders and military. May we always value the well-being of all our brothers and sisters in faith of greater import than material possessions.

From Deacon John...

A major theme in the Gospel of Luke is the importance of the care of the poor. In today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the life of a rich man and a poor man, Lazarus, who lives in the shadow of the rich man and his wealth. One man experiences good fortune in life and the other's reward comes after his death. This parable, delivered in the presence of a crowd of listeners, is part of Jesus' response to some Pharisees. Jesus observed that the actions of these men betrayed misplaced priorities: they spoke one way, but acted in another. The story of the rich man and Lazarus demonstrates the importance of the care of the poor and is a reminder to those who would follow Jesus of the unimportance of material wealth in the eyes of God.

Un tema principal en el Evangelio de Lucas es la importancia del cuidado de los pobres. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús contrasta la vida de un hombre rico y un hombre pobre, Lázaro, que vive a la sombra del hombre rico y su riqueza. Un hombre experimenta buena fortuna en la vida y la recompensa del otro llega después de su muerte. Esta parábola, presentada en presencia de una multitud de oyentes, es parte de la respuesta de Jesús a algunos fariseos. Jesús observó que las acciones de estos hombres traicionaron prioridades equivocadas: hablaron de una manera, pero actuaron de otra. La historia del hombre rico y de Lázaro demuestra la importancia del cuidado de los pobres y es un recordatorio para aquellos que seguirían a Jesús de la falta de importancia de la riqueza material a los ojos de Dios.

Question of the Week

Week Twenty Six – Luke 16:19-31

Key Passage: But Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." He said, "Oh, no, Father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent." Then Abraham said, "If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead"

Question for adults: What is the ideal relationship between the rich, the middle class and the poor?

Question for children: How can you share with someone who does not have as much as you?

Pregunta de la Semana

26ª Semana--Lucas 16:19-31

Pasaje Crucial: Abraham le dijo, "Tienen a Moisés y a los profetas; que los escuchen." Pero el rico replicó: "No, padre Abraham. Si un muerto va a decírselo, entonces sí se arrepentirán." Abraham repuso: "Si no escuchan a Moisés y a los profetas, no harán caso, ni aunque resucite un muerto."

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cuál es la relación ideal entre los ricos, la clase media y los pobres?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cómo puedes compartir con alguien que no tiene tanto como tú?

Pope at Mass: lukewarm faith turns our lives into graveyards

By Linda Bordon, September 26, 2019

Pope Francis celebrates Mass at the Casa Santa Marta on Thursday inviting the faithful not to content themselves with a fake inner peace that bears no fruit.

VATICAN CITY (VNS) Reflecting on the reading from the Book of Haggai, Pope Francis spoke of how the Lord urges His people to reflect on their behavior and to change it by working to rebuild the House of God.

to start again. They would not let the Lord help them to do so”, and their excuse was that the time had not yet come.

This, he continued, is the same drama of so many lukewarm Chris-

Pope Francis celebrates Mass at Casa Santa Marta

Procrastinating conversion

The prophet Haggai, the Pope explained, was trying to move the heart of the lazy people who had resigned themselves to a life of defeat. The Temple had been destroyed by enemies, all was in ruin, but those people let the years go by without taking any action.

Then, he said, the Lord sent the prophet to “rebuild the Temple,” but the hearts of the people were bitter and they had no wish to take risks and to work.

Those people, the Pope continued, “did not want to pick themselves up, tians who say “Yes, yes, Lord, it's fine ... but slowly, slowly, Lord, let's leave it like this ... I'll do it tomorrow!”

Lukewarm spirituality leads to “a graveyard-like peace”

Lukewarm faith, the Pope said, leads so many to find excuses in uncertainty and fuels the tendency to procrastinate.

It causes so many people to waste their lives and end up “in tatters because they have done nothing except nurture sentiments of peace and calm within themselves”. But that, he said, (Faith) “is the peace of graveyards”.

Pope Francis warned the faithful that when we become “spiritually lukewarm”, we become half-Christians, without substance. Instead, he said, the Lord wants conversion, today.

He described that tepid spirituality as something that transforms our lives into a graveyard: a place where there is no life.

Let us ask the Lord for the grace not to fall into that “half-Christian” spirit which makes us without substance, “Rose water Christians” as some would say, the Pope said, Christians who perhaps “sowed a lot but reaped very little, lives that promised so much, and in the end did nothing”.

May the Lord help us, he concluded, to “wake-up from a tepid spirit” and fight “this gentle anesthesia of spiritual life”.
