We lift up to the Lord those who have died. We pray for those who struggle with disease, illness, grief or addiction, especially Adelio Martinez, Lorena Vasquez and Joe Koenen. We are especially grateful for those who feed, house and clothe the world, and those who labor selflessly for our safety, growth and well being, including our catechists, first responders and military. May we always value the well-being of all our brothers and sisters in faith of greater import than material possessions.

From Deacon John...

Today is a lesson in persistence. While the parable seems to image prayer as nagging God, that interpretation misses the point. God is not like the judge in the parable, worn down by never-ending requests. The judge is corrupt and unjust, but since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if an unjust judge ultimately responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers. God wants us to be persistent, even though it is easy it is for us to lose heart.

Hoy es una lección de persistencia. Si bien la parábola parece representar la oración como un Dios fastidioso, esa interpretación pierde el punto. Dios no es como el juez en la parábola, desgastado por las solicitudes interminables. El juez es corrupto e injusto, pero como Dios no puede ser ninguno de los dos, debemos entender que Jesús está diciendo que si un juez injusto finalmente responde a la persistencia de la viuda, cuánto más escuchará Dios nuestras oraciones. Dios quiere que seamos persistentes, aunque es fácil para nosotros perder el corazón.

Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year's theme "As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards," speaks to one of the many ways we are united in giving thanks to God for His many blessings.

I am extremely grateful for your past generosity. Now I am coming to you to ask you to continue to "serve one another as good stewards" to help our community grow stronger in faith.

I ask that you prayerfully consider supporting the 2020 Catholic Stewardship Appeal through a sacrificial gift.

May God bless you for your generosity, and may Christ's peace be with you. I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Rev. W. Shawn McKnight
Bishop of Jefferson City

Bishop McKnight's October prayer intention for our Local Church

For the cessation of violence; that our communities foster a culture of life and peace by recognizing the dignity of every human being, made in the image and likeness of God.

Intención del mes de octubre del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por el cese de violencia; que nuestras comunidades fomenten una cultura de vida y paz reconociendo la dignidad de cada ser humano, hecho a la imagen y semejanza de Dios.

Question of the Week

Week Twenty Nine – Luke 18:1-8

Key Passage: "Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. The Lord said, "Pay attention... Will not God secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Question for adults: What causes you to be weary in your prayer?

Question for children: Does God ever get tired of hearing your prayers?

Pregunta de la Semana

29° Semana--Lucas 18:1-8

Pasaje Crucial: Jesús les propuso esta parábola para enseñar a sus discípulos la necesidad de orar siempre y sin desfallecer. Dicho esto, Jesús comentó: "Si así pensaba el juez injusto, ¿creen acaso que Dios no hará justicia a sus elegidos, que claman a él día y noche, y que los hará esperar? Yo les digo que les hará justicia sin tardar. Pero, cuando venga el Hijo del hombre, ¿creen ustedes que encontrará fe sobre la tierra?"

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Qué te hace estar cansado en tu oración?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Se cansa Dios alguna vez de escuchar sus oraciones?

From Deacon John...

This is the first of two parables about prayer. Today is to be a lesson in persistence. While the parable seems to image prayer as nagging God for what we want, that interpretation misses the point. God is not like the judge in the parable, tired of never-ending requests and coerced to respond. Rather the key to understanding lies in the description of the judge as corrupt and unjust. Since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if an unjust judge ultimately responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers. God wants us to be like that persistent widow, staying in relationship with God, confident that God hears and answers prayers. As a conclusion, Jesus laments how easy it is for us to lose heart.

Pope's Message for World Food Day:

Wasting the bread of the poor

By Vatican News, October 10, 2019

Pope Francis sends a message to the FAO Director General, Qu Dongyu, for World Food Day, expressing his concern for the "distorted relationship between food and nutrition".

VATICAN CITY (VNS)

Pope Francis begins his message by referring to the theme for this year's World Food Day: "Our Actions Are Our Future. Healthy Diets for a #ZeroHunger World". The Pope notes that "despite efforts made in recent decades, the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is yet to be implemented in many parts of the world".

not everyone has access to it. The Pope laments the fact that "food is wasted, discarded and consumed in excess, or destined for other purposes than nutrition".

Pathologies of excess

Poor nutrition gives rise to pathologies caused by "excess", says the Pope, giving the examples of "diabetes, cardiovascular diseases and other forms of degenerative diseases",

for World Food Day

Food wasted or consumed in excess

Pope Francis calls attention to the "distorted relationship between food and nutrition". He cites the fact that while 820 million people suffer from hunger in the world, "almost 700 million are overweight". He calls it a "cruel, unjust and paradoxical reality" that there is food for everyone and yet but also by "deficiency", as documented by "an increasing number of deaths from anorexia and bulimia".

A simple and sober lifestyle

This reality calls for a conversion in our way of living and acting, adds the Pope. "Nutritional disorders can only be combatted by the cultivation of lifestyles inspired by gratitude for the gifts we have received and the adoption of a spirit of temperance, moderation, abstinence, self-control and solidarity".

By adopting a more "simple and sober lifestyle", continues Pope Francis, we "grow in a fraternal solidarity that seeks the common good and avoids the individualism and egocentrism that serve only to generate hunger and social inequality".

Role of the Family

Pope Francis goes on to stress the primary role played by the family. "Within the family, and thanks to the particular sensitivity and wisdom of women and mothers, we learn how to enjoy the fruits of the earth without abusing it", he writes.

The bread of the poor

Pope Francis concludes his message for World Food Day by stating that "the battle against hunger and malnutrition will not end as long as the logic of the market prevails and profit is sought at any cost". Our first concern should always be the human person, writes the Pope: "We must come to realize that what we are accumulating and wasting is the bread of the poor".
