Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, Year C, Jesucristo, Rey del Universo, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas November-Noviembre 24, 2019

From Deacon John...

Today, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us with eyes of faith, to recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Hoy, concluimos nuestro año litúrgico con la fiesta de Cristo Rey. El Evangelio muestra el gran misterio de nuestra fe: en el momento de su crucifixión, Jesús se muestra como Rey y Salvador de todos. Nos enfrentamos al Jesús crucificado, a quien la fe nos dice que es Rey y Salvador. La ironía es que la inscripción colocada en la cruz en burla, contiene la verdad más profunda. Jesús es el Rey, pero no el tipo de rey que podríamos haber imaginado o esperado. Su reinado estaba oculto para muchos, pero aquellos que tenían los ojos de la fe podían ver. Como discípulos de Jesús, nosotros también luchamos a veces para reconocer a Jesús como Rey. El Evangelio de hoy nos invita con ojos de fe a reconocer que Jesús, el crucificado, es de hecho Rey y Salvador de todos.

Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year's theme "As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards," speaks to one of the many ways we are united in giving thanks to God for His many blessings.

I am extremely grateful for your past generosity. Now I am coming to you to ask you to continue to "serve one another as good stewards" to help our community grow stronger in faith.

I ask that you prayerfully consider supporting the 2020 Catholic Stewardship Appeal through a sacrificial gift.

May God bless you for your generosity, and may Christ's peace be with you. I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Rev. W. Shawn McKnight
 Bishop of Jefferson City

Bishop McKnight's November prayer intention for our Local Church

For all our deceased family and friends, and for all the souls in purgatory: that the Lord may have mercy on them, and may they see the face of God and live.

Intención del mes de noviembre del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por todos los difuntos de nuestra familia y amigos, y por todas las almas del purgatorio. Que el Señor tenga misericordia de ellos y que puedan vivir y ver el rostro de Dios.

Question of the Week

Week Thirty Four – Luke 23:35-43

Key Passage:

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year, the Church celebrates the feast of Christ the King. Instituted in 1925 to combat the growing secularism and atheism of that time, this is one of the "idea feasts" that celebrates an aspect of Jesus' identity rather than an event in His life. In it we recognize and honor Christ as ruler of all. The original feast of Christ the King is the Ascension, in which the Church celebrates the exalted Christ, crowned with glory at the right hand of God the Father.

Question for adults:

What has been the most significant in this liturgical year that ends today?

Question for children:

What good things have happened to you this year that you can be thankful for?

Pregunta de la Semana

34ª Semana--Lucas 23, 35-43

Pasaje Crucial:

En este último domingo del año litúrgico, la Iglesia celebra la fiesta de Cristo Rey. Instituido en 1925 para combatir el secularismo y el ateísmo de la época, esta es una de las "fiestas de ideas" que celebra un aspecto de la identidad de Jesús en lugar de que un evento en su vida. En él se reconocen y honran a Cristo como gobernante de todos. La fiesta original de Cristo Rey es la Ascensión, en la que la Iglesia celebra el Cristo exaltado, coronado de gloria a la diestra de Dios Padre.

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cuál ha sido el más significativo de este año litúrgico que termina hoy?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Qué cosas buenas te han pasado a ti este año por las cuales tu estas agradecido?

*Blessed is he who comes in the Pope to youth in Thailand: rooted in faith through friendship with Jesus

By Robin Gomes, November 22, 2019

Pope Francis celebrates Mass for young people Friday evening in Bangkok's Cathedral. A strong faith based on a deep friendship with Jesus, he says, will see them through life's difficulties, as their elders testify.

VATICAN CITY (VNS) Pope Francis is asking the young people of Thailand to be deeply rooted and anchored in their faith by cultivating a friendship with Jesus, saying it will provide them with the oil needed to light up the path of their life and those of others around them.

“The Lord knows that through you, young people, the future is coming into this land and the world, and he is counting on you to carry out your mission today,” the Pope told the youth at a Mass in the Cathedral of the Assumption in Bangkok.

He reflected on the day's Gospel of the Parable of the Ten Virgins, saying it can happen to any Christian. “Full of excitement and interest,” he explained, “we hear the Lord's call to be a part of His kingdom and share His joy with others.”

But often, he noted, in the face of problems and obstacles like the suffering of our loved ones, or our own helplessness before apparently hopeless situations, unbelief and bitterness can take over and silently seep into our dreams, making our hearts grow cold, causing us to lose our joy and to arrive late, like the five foolish virgins in the parable.

The Pope thus offered his advice to young people how to keep alive the fire that keeps them burning brightly amid darkness and difficulties, how to answer to the Lord's call and how to obtain the oil that can keep them moving forward, seeking the Lord in every situation.

Wisdom of the elders

For this, they need to be deeply rooted in the faith of their ancestors: their parents, grandparents and teachers.

Amidst life's many trials and much suffering, the Pope said, our elders discovered that the secret to a happy heart is the security we find when we are anchored, rooted in Jesus: in his life, in his words, in his death and resurrection.

Rooted in faith

The Pope said it is impossible for us to grow unless we have strong roots to support us and to keep us firmly grounded.

(Youth continued)

Without this firm sense of rootedness, young people can be swayed by the “voices” of this world, leaving them only empty, weary, alone and disenchanted, slowly extinguishing that spark of life that the Lord once lit in the heart of each of us.

Friendship with Jesus

The Pope regards Thailand's young Catholics as a new generation, with new hopes, dreams and questions, and surely some doubts as well, yet firmly rooted in Christ.

“Friendship cultivated with Jesus,” the Pope said, “is the oil needed to light up your path in life and the path of all those around you: your friends and neighbours, your companions at school and work, including those who think completely unlike yourselves.”

Pope's word of thanks

Friday's evening Mass was the last major event of Pope Francis in Thailand before he flies to Japan Saturday morning, on the second leg of his 32nd foreign Apostolic Journey.

Hence, at the end of the Mass, the Pope thanked all who made his visit to Thailand possible, and “those who worked together to bring it to fruition”.

In particular, he expressed his gratitude to His Majesty King Rama X, the government and the other authorities of the country, for their warm reception.

He also thanked the country's bishops, especially Cardinal Francis Xavier Kriengsak Kovithavanij, as well as the priests, men and women religious, and lay faithful, and in especially the young people.

The Holy Father also had words of gratitude for the volunteers and also all those who accompanied him with their prayers and sacrifices, especially the sick and those in prison. The Pope asked not to forget to pray for him.
