

*Christ our paschal Lamb, has been sacrificed;
let us then feast with joy in the Lord.*

*Cristo, nuestro cordero pascual, ha sido inmolado;
Celebramos, pues, la Pascua.*

During this public health crisis all parishioners are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend mass by Bishop Shawn. Those who are ill should stay home. Those who have a high risk of contagion, (i.e., the elderly, the infirmed, the immune compromised, infants and young children) should avoid gatherings of any kind.

Please remember, even in this time of isolation, that we still pray and worship together as a community of faith. Prayer is never constrained by human limits or locations. In our prayer, we join together with the entire communion of saints.

We lift up to the Lord all those who have died, may they enjoy the fullness of Christ. We pray too, for those suffering from illness or stress, especially those touched in any way by this public health crisis, and for all others who are sick or suffering. May we be strong and persistent in our desire to live our faith. And may we live the Easter psalm message, "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad."

Durante esta crisis de salud pública, el obispo Shawn exime a todos los feligreses de su obligación dominical de asistir a misa. Los que están enfermos deben quedarse en casa. Aquellos que tienen un alto riesgo de contagio (es decir, los ancianos, los enfermos, los inmunocomprometidos, los bebés y los niños pequeños) deben evitar las reuniones de cualquier tipo.

Recuerde, incluso en este tiempo de aislamiento, que todavía rezamos y adoramos juntos como una comunidad de fe. La oración nunca está limitada por límites humanos o ubicaciones. En nuestra oración, nos unimos a toda la comunión de los santos.

Elevamos al Señor a todos los que han muerto, para que disfruten de la plenitud de Cristo. Oramos también por aquellos que padecen enfermedades o estrés, especialmente aquellos afectados de alguna manera por esta crisis de salud pública, y por todos los demás que están enfermos o sufriendo. Que seamos fuertes y persistentes en nuestro deseo de vivir nuestra fe. Y que vivamos el mensaje del salmo de Pascua: "Este es el día que hizo el Señor, regocijémonos y alegrémonos".

Easter Sunday, Year A Domingo de Pascua, el año A Gospel of St. Matthew / El evangelio de San Mateo April / Abril 12, 2020

From Deacon John...

On this most sacred day, we look to the hope and promise we share in the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Even in this time of severe disruption we know that eye has not seen nor ear heard the things God has prepared for those who love him. Although our churches remain closed to public liturgies, each of our liturgies will continue to be live streamed from the parish website stmary.church at the times listed in the "Calendar of Events". We now also live-stream to Facebook and post videos on Vimeo. Hopefully, we will have the "You Tube Live" challenges resolved soon. Working together as a community of faith dedicated to our bishop's mission of charity and mercy, we will do all within our capability to meet the needs that may develop within our communities. As Bishop Shawn says, "Now is the time to live Better Together, just 6 feet apart." Please convey needs to Father Pat or one of the deacons.

En este día tan sagrado, esperamos la esperanza y la promesa que compartimos en la Resurrección de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Incluso en este momento de interrupción severa sabemos que el ojo no ha visto ni el oído ha escuchado las cosas que Dios ha preparado para aquellos que lo aman. Aunque nuestras iglesias permanecen cerradas a las liturgias públicas, cada una de nuestras liturgias continuará transmitiéndose en vivo desde el sitio web de la parroquia stmary.church en los horarios indicados en el "Calendario de Eventos". Ahora también transmitimos en vivo a Facebook y publicamos videos en Vimeo. Con suerte, tendremos los desafíos de "You Tube Live" resueltos pronto. Trabajando juntos como una comunidad de fe dedicada a la misión de caridad y misericordia de nuestro obispo, haremos todo lo que esté a nuestro alcance para satisfacer las necesidades que puedan desarrollarse dentro de nuestras comunidades. Como dijo el obispo Shawn a principios de esta semana, "ahora es el momento de vivir mejor juntos, a solo 6' de distancia". Por favor comuniqué las necesidades al Padre Pat o uno de los diáconos. Peace, Deacon John.

Background on the Gospel Passion of Matthew

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.

Question of the Week

Easter Sunday — John 20:1-9

Key Passage:

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in and he saw and believed.

Question for adults:

In this era of public health needs, what will you do this week that shows you truly believe in the resurrection of Jesus?

Question for children:

How does your celebration of Easter remind you of Jesus' gift of new life?

Pregunta de la Semana

Domingo de Pascua--Juan 20, 1-9

Pasaje Crucial:

Entonces entró también el otro discípulo, el que había llegado primero al sepulcro, y vio y creó.

Pregunta para los adultos:

En esta era de necesidades de salud pública, ¿qué harás esta semana que muestre que realmente crees en la resurrección de Jesús?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Cómo demostraras esta semana que tú realmente crees en la resurrección de Jesús?
