From Deacon John...

Jesus sums up the message of the prophets as well as the purpose of God's laws in today's Gospel. It is a challenging message as His answer reveals both the greatest and the second greatest commandments, Love God first and love neighbor as self. This is the heart of the stewardship way of life, simple enough for a child to understand yet, a real life challenge for every adult. To love Him with your whole heart, soul and mind could be a call to quiet prayer, or putting Him first in your family to experience the blessings He has given you. As for love of neighbor, perhaps it is by checking on a someone isolated or restricted by this pandemic, or by presence to a colleague overwhelmed by addition, stress or grief. Or by involvement in a ministry that serves community, children or the poor. A good steward's way of life is in every way, all about love.

Jesús resume el mensaje de los profetas así como el propósito de las leyes de Dios en el Evangelio de hoy. Es un mensaje desafiante ya que Su respuesta revela tanto el mayor como el segundo mayor mandamiento: Amar primero a Dios y amar al prójimo como a uno mismo. Este es el corazón del estilo de vida de la mayordomía, lo suficientemente simple para que un niño lo entienda, un desafío de la vida real para todos los adultos. Amarlo con todo su corazón, alma y mente podría ser un llamado a la oración silenciosa, o ponerlo a Él primero en su familia para experimentar las bendiciones que Él le ha dado. En cuanto al amor al prójimo, quizás sea controlando a alguien aislado o restringido por esta pandemia, o por la presencia de un colega abrumado por la adición, el estrés o el dolor. O participando en un ministerio que sirve a la comunidad, los niños o los pobres. El estilo de vida de un buen mayordomo se basa en el amor en todos los sentidos.

Background on the Gospel Reading

This week's Gospel follows close behind the Gospel read last Sunday. It is the last of three questions put to Jesus by Jewish religious leaders who are trying to trick him into saying something that might get him arrested. This reminds us that the context for today's reading is the mounting tension between Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem.

The Herodians and the Pharisees asked the first question, which was about taxes. The Sadducees asked the second question, which was about the Resurrection (see Matthew 22:22-33). The third question, considered in today's Gospel, is asked by a Pharisee who asks Jesus about the greatest of the commandments.

The question requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional rules, numbering over six hundred. Adherence to the Mosaic Law, for a devout Jew, is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of the Commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus answers the Pharisees' question with a two-fold summary.

Jesus says that all of the commandments can be summarized in two commandments: love God and love your neighbor. Both of these were central elements of the religious tradition Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed these continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor.

Bishop McKnight's October prayer intention for our Local Church

For all citizens in our country, that our participation in the upcoming elections may lead to a world which places a preeminence on the dignity of all human life.

Intención del mes de octubre del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local

Por todos los ciudadanos de nuestro país, que nuestra participación en las próximas elecciones pueda conducir a un mundo que ponga preeminencia en la dignidad de toda vida humana.

Family Connection

Children learn about love from real, concrete examples witnessed in family life. We can help children to love God and love their neighbors by showing everyday acts of love, generosity, and kindness—our own expressions of our love for God. These acts, small and large, are the expression of what Jesus identified as the two greatest commandments: love God and love neighbor.

Jesus taught us that our love for God is revealed in the love that we show to other people.

Question of the Week

Thirtieth Sunday — Matthew 22:34-40

Key Passage:

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself’. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”

Question for adults: Which is easier, loving God or loving neighbor? Is it possible to do one and not the other?

Question for children: When is loving God and loving other people something hard to do?

Pregunta de la Semana

XXX Domingo -- Mateo 22, 34-40

Pasaje Crucial:

“Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Este es el más grande y el primero de los mandamientos. Y se segundo es semejante a éste” ‘Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo’. En estos dos mandamientos se fundan toda la ley y los profetas”.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Qué es más fácil amar a Dios o de un vecino de amor? ¿Es posible hacer una y no la otra?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cuándo es amar a Dios y amar a otras personas algo difícil de hacer?
