Please pray for the more than two dozen youth preparing for Confirmation this summer.

Please join Father Patrick, Deacon Jerónimo, and I, in prayer for the youth who are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation when Bishop Shawn visits Saint Mary on June 13. They are hard at work preparing for that day. Please include in your prayer the catechists and parents who share their faith and their time and talent to make this day possible. May God always bless and guard our youth.

Por favor únase Padre Patricio, el Diácono Jerónimo y yo en oración por los jóvenes que se están preparando para recibir el Sacramento de la Confirmación cuando el Obispo Shawn visite nosotros el 13 de junio. También incluya en su oración a los catequistas y padres que comparten su fe y su tiempo y talento para hacer posible este día. Que Dios siempre bendiga y proteja a nuestra juventud.

All parishioners are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend mass by Bishop Shawn provided they either view the Sunday mass streamed from Saint Mary, the Cathedral or the Vatican; or read and meditate upon the Sunday Readings plus recite the rosary or the Chaplet of Mercy. Those at risk during this crisis, especially those age 65 or older, should strongly consider using the dispensation. Streaming each week's liturgy continues at stmary.church/masses or facebook.com/stmary.life.

We need your ongoing support and stewardship. For safety and convenience, you may donate using the parish website or use your phone camera and scan this QR Code. If you have questions or need assistance call Deacon John at 660 265-4110.

We lift up to the Lord all who have died and we give thanks for those who serve others, especially those who labor selflessly for our health, safety, growth and well being.

Todos son dispensados de su obligación dominical de asistir a misa por parte del obispo Shawn, siempre que vean la misa dominical transmitida desde Santa María, la Catedral o el Vaticano; o leer y meditar en las lecturas dominicales y rezar el rosario o la Coronilla de la Misericordia. Las personas en riesgo durante esta crisis, especialmente las de 65 años o más, deben considerar seriamente el uso de la dispensación. La transmisión de la liturgia de cada semana continúa en stmary.church/masses, facebook.com/stmary.life.

Necesitamos su apoyo continuos. Por conveniencia, puede donar usando el sitio web de la parroquia o usar la cámara de su teléfono y escanear este Código QR. Si necesita ayuda, llame al un Diácono al 660 265-4110.

Elevamos al Señor a todos los que han muerto. Damos gracias por aquellos que sirven a los demás, especialmente aquellos que trabajan por nuestra salud, seguridad, y bienestar.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's On the third Sunday of Easter, we continue to hear Gospel accounts of Jesus' appearances to his disciples following his Resurrection. Today's reading, taken from the Gospel of Luke, follows immediately after the report of Jesus' appearance to his disciples on the road to Emmaus. This is the event being recounted by the disciples in the opening verse of today's Gospel. Consistently in the reports of Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances, Jesus greets his disciples with the words, "Peace be with you." This is a most appropriate greeting. The disciples have witnessed the death of someone they loved, and they now fear for their own lives as well. Peace is what they need more than anything else. Jesus often connects this greeting of peace with another gift—forgiveness. In today's Gospel, this connection is made in the final verses.

Even as they hear Jesus' greeting of peace, the disciples are startled and terrified. They are uncertain about what to make of the figure before them and, quite understandably, they mistake Jesus for a ghost. Yet the figure before them is not a ghost;

Jesus invites them to experience his resurrected body with their senses, to look and to touch. The figure before them is flesh and bone, still bearing the marks of crucifixion. Although the disciples cannot forget his suffering and death, peace begins to take root in their hearts, as their fears turn to joy and amazement. As further proof of his identity and of his resurrected body, Jesus eats with his disciples. The disciples have known Jesus best through the meals that he has shared with them. Descriptions of these meals are a defining element of Luke's Gospel. By eating with his disciples after his Resurrection,

Bishop McKnight's April prayer intention for our Local Church

Let us pray for a renewed understanding of our baptismal dignity as sons and daughters of God the Father, and a commitment to living in peace with our sisters and brothers in Christ.

Intención del mes de abril del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Oremos por una renovación de nuestro entendimiento de nuestra dignidad bautismal como hijos e hija de Dios Padre y por nuestro compromiso de vivir en paz con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo.

urrection, Jesus recalls all these meals, and most importantly, he recalls the Last Supper.

Luke's report of the Last Supper and the meals that Jesus shared after his Resurrection unveil for us the significance of the Eucharist. Having shared a meal with his disciples,

Jesus now uncovers for them the significance of what was written about him in the Scriptures. So, too, our celebration of the Mass is an encounter with Jesus, through the Word and the Sacrament of the Eucharist. As Jesus commissions his disciples to be witnesses to what Scriptures foretold, our celebration of the Eucharist commissions us. Like the disciples, we are sent to announce the good news of Jesus' forgiveness of sins.

Summer Schedule Begins Soon!

Question of the Week

Third Sunday of Easter - Luke 24:35-48

Key Passage: Jesus said, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance for the forgiveness of sin would be preached in His name to the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Question for adults: In what ways might you share Jesus with your friends?

Question for children: What How do you talk to your friends about Jesus?

Pregunta de la Semana

Tercer Domingo de Pascua--Lucas 24, 35.48

Pasaje Crucial: Jesús dijo: "Está escrito que el Mesías tenía que padecer y había de resucitar de entre los muertos al tercer día, y que en su nombre se había de predicar a todas las naciones, comenzando por Jerusalén, la necesidad de volverse a Dios para el perdón de los pecados. Ustedes son testigos de esto".

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿De qué manera podrías compartir a Jesús con tus amigos?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cómo hablas con tus amigos sobre Jesús?

We lift up to the Lord all those who have died, may they enjoy the fullness of Christ. As this pandemic continues in our communities, we pray too, for those suffering from illness, disease or stress, especially those touched by this massive public health crisis. May we be strong and persistent in our desire to live our faith. As the gospel reminds us, the kingdom of heaven is an unimaginable reward to be pursued.
