Breaking the Silence of Abuse

As a Diocese, we are committed to breaking the silence of abuse. When someone is reporting abuse, we must acknowledge their pain and how difficult it is to talk about it. False allegations are very rare. Our initial response to someone who is disclosing abuse for the first time must be compassionate. For those who need to report abuse, encourage them to contact our Victims Assistance Coordinator, Jacqueline Baldwin, (573-694-3199) and to make use of the appropriate State of Missouri hotline or the Attorney General's clergy abuse online form. All of this information is also on the diocesan website, under the 'report abuse' tab. For those who want information, or want you to convey a message to Bishop McKnight, please encourage them to use the 'reach us' form on the website, diojeffcity.org. Every submission is read.

Bishop W. Shawn McKnight has issued a decree lifting the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass in person, effective June 1.

As more people become vaccinated and the number of COVID-19 cases decline in our area, all Catholics are invited to join us to worship together, in person, and to receive the Body of Christ in Holy Communion, which nourishes our souls and heals us of our sins. That's why we are obliged to participate in the Sunday liturgy each week.

If you are ill, are traveling, or otherwise dispensed from our obligation to participate in the Mass, please continue to join us online. Otherwise, we look forward to seeing you in person at Mass!

We need your support and stewardship.

For safety and convenience, you may donate using the parish website or use your phone camera and scan this QR Code. If you have questions or need assistance call Deacon John at 660 265-4110.

El obispo W. Shawn McKnight ha emitido un decreto que levanta la dispensa de la obligación de asistir a misa en persona, a partir del 1 de junio.

A medida que más personas se vacunan y el número de casos de COVID-19 disminuye en nuestra área, todos los católicos están invitados a unirse a nosotros para adorar juntos, en persona, y recibir el Cuerpo de Cristo en la Sagrada Comunión, que nutre nuestras almas y nos sana de nuestros pecados. Por eso estamos obligados a participar en la liturgia dominical cada semana.

Si está enfermo, está viajando o de alguna otra manera está exento de nuestra obligación de participar en la Misa, continúe uniéndose a nosotros en línea. De lo contrario, ¡esperamos verte en persona en la misa!

Necesitamos su apoyo .

Por conveniencia, puede donar usando el sitio web de la parroquia o usar la cámara de su teléfono y escanear este Código QR. Si necesita ayuda, llame al un Diácono al 660 265-4110.

Background on the Gospel Reading

For today's Gospel, we continue to read from the Gospel of Mark. Last Sunday we heard about Jesus calming the storm. This week we hear about the third and fourth miracles, skipping the second miracle, the healing of a man from Gerasene who was possessed by a demon.

Today's full Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person.

Jairus is described as a synagogue official, a man of considerable standing in the Jewish community. Distraught over his daughter's poor health, he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her. Although Mark doesn't provide many details, we can imagine that his daughter has been ill for some time and that her condition is deteriorating.

As Jesus leaves with Jairus, Mark describes a second person who seeks healing from Jesus, a woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. Jesus' disciples, always a little clueless in Mark's Gospel, help us envision the scene.

The crowds are pushing in on Jesus, and yet he, knowing that power has gone out of him, asks who touched him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges what she has done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace.

At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. As if to build a sense of urgency, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. When they arrive at Jairus's home, they

Bishop McKnight's July prayer intention for our Local Church

We pray for our country at this moment in history, that the dreams of life, liberty and happiness remain in our hearts as well as the desire that we will always be one nation under God.

Intención del mes de julio del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local find family and friends mourning the girl's death. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.

Oramos por nuestro país en este momento de la historia, que los sueños de vida, libertad y felicidad se arraiguen en nuestros corazones, así como el deseo de que siempre seamos una nación ante Dios.

The contrasts between Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage are stark and revealing. One is a man, the other is a woman. One is a public official, an important person in the community. The other is a woman who has lost everything to find a cure to a condition that separated her from the community. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. Yet in each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need.

The Gospel concludes with Jesus' instructions to remain silent about this miracle. This is typical of Mark's Gospel and is referred to as the messianic secret. Repeatedly, those who witness Jesus' power and authority are instructed to not speak of what they have witnessed. These instructions appear impossible to obey, and it is difficult to understand their purpose. But in each case, they seem to emphasize the fact that each individual, including the reader of Mark's Gospel, must, in the end, make his or her own judgment about Jesus' identity and their own act of faith in affirming Jesus as God's Son.

Question of the Week

Sunday Week Thirteen - Mark 5:21-43

Key Passage:

"Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction... Do not be afraid; just have faith."

Question for adults:

In your life, is faith your "last resort"? If so, why have you chosen that order of precedence?

Question for children:

What is faith and what does it mean to have faith?

Pregunta de la Semana

Decimotercer Domingo — Marcos 5, 21-43

Pasaje Crucial:

"Hija, tu fe te ha curado. Vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad"... "No temas, basta que tengas fe".

Pregunta para los adultos:

En su vida, ¿es la fe su "último recurso"? Si es así, ¿por qué ha elegido ese orden de precedencia?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Qué es la fe y qué significa tener fe?

Because of public health regulations, and from an abundance of caution, Saint Mary Parish will, at present, continue the request for unvaccinated individuals to wear masks, as is still recommended by the CDC and requested by our Bishop.

We lift up to the Lord all those who have died, may they enjoy the fullness of Christ. We pray for those suffering from illness, disease or stress, especially those touched by this massive public health crisis. We pray too, for all those who serve the public good in any way. May we be strong and persistent in our efforts to be the hands and feet of our Lord. As the gospel reminds us, the Lord Jesus is with us in every trial. May we grow in trust and belief of that presence.
