Breaking the Silence of Abuse

As a Diocese, we are committed to breaking the silence of abuse. When someone is reporting abuse, we must acknowledge their pain and how difficult it is to talk about it. False allegations are very rare. Our initial response to someone who is disclosing abuse for the first time must be compassionate. For those who need to report abuse, encourage them to contact our Victims Assistance Coordinator, Jacqueline Baldwin, (573-694-3199) and to make use of the appropriate State of Missouri hotline or the Attorney General's clergy abuse online form. All of this information is also on the diocesan website, under the 'report abuse' tab. For those who want information, or want you to convey a message to Bishop McKnight, please encourage them to use the 'reach us' form on the website, diojeffcity.org. Every submission is read.

Bishop W. Shawn McKnight has issued a decree lifting the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass in person, effective June 1.

As more people become vaccinated and the number of COVID-19 cases decline in our area, all Catholics are invited to join us to worship together, in person, and to receive the Body of Christ in Holy Communion, which nourishes our souls and heals us of our sins. That's why we are obliged to participate in the Sunday liturgy each week.

If you are ill, are traveling, or otherwise dispensed from our obligation to participate in the Mass, please continue to join us online. Otherwise, we look forward to seeing you in person at Mass!

We need your support and stewardship.

For safety and convenience, you may donate using the parish website or use your phone camera and scan this QR Code. If you have questions or need assistance call Deacon John at 660 265-4110.

El obispo W. Shawn McKnight ha emitido un decreto que levanta la dispensa de la obligación de asistir a misa en persona, a partir del 1 de junio.

A medida que más personas se vacunan y el número de casos de COVID-19 disminuye en nuestra área, todos los católicos están invitados a unirse a nosotros para adorar juntos, en persona, y recibir el Cuerpo de Cristo en la Sagrada Comunión, que nutre nuestras almas y nos sana de nuestros pecados. Por eso estamos obligados a participar en la liturgia dominical cada semana.

Si está enfermo, está viajando o de alguna otra manera está exento de nuestra obligación de participar en la Misa, continúe uniéndose a nosotros en línea. De lo contrario, ¡esperamos verte en persona en la misa!

Necesitamos su apoyo .

Background on the Gospel Reading

This week's Gospel and the one for next week describe how Jesus sent the disciples to minister in his name and the disciples' return to Jesus afterward. These two passages, however, are not presented together in Mark's Gospel. Inserted between the two is the report of Herod's fears that Jesus is John the Baptist back from the dead. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is presented in connection with the teaching of John the Baptist. Jesus' public ministry begins after John is arrested. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus, who preached the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God.

While we do not read these details about John the Baptist in our Gospel this week or next week, our Lectionary sequence stays consistent with Mark's theme. Recall that last week we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. The insertion of the reminder about John the Baptist's ministry and his death at the hands of Herod in Mark's Gospel makes a similar point. Mark reminds his readers about this dangerous context for Jesus' ministry and that of his disciples. Preaching repentance and the Kingdom of God is dangerous business for Jesus and for his disciples. Mark wants his readers to remember that we, too, may find resistance as we choose to be disciples of Jesus.

Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus sent out the Twelve. These twelve were selected from among Jesus' disciples and named by Mark in chapter 3. Mark notes that these twelve are also called "apostles." The word apostle means "one who is sent." The number twelve is also a symbolic number, representing the twelve tribes of Israel. By naming twelve apostles, Jesus shows his mission to be in continuity with the mission of God's people, Israel.

Bishop McKnight's July prayer intention for our Local Church

We pray for our country at this moment in history, that the dreams of life, liberty and happiness remain in our hearts as well as the desire that we will always be one nation under God.

Intención del mes de julio del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Oramos por nuestro país en este momento de la historia, que los sueños de vida, libertad y felicidad se arraiguen en nuestros corazones, así como el deseo de que siempre seamos una nación ante Dios.

Jesus' instructions to the apostles are very specific. He repeats the mission that they are sent to preach and to share his authority to heal and to drive out demons. Jesus sends them in pairs, establishing his mission as a communal endeavor. Jesus also instructs them to travel lightly, without the customary food, money, and extra set of clothes. These instructions mean that the Twelve will be dependent on the hospitality of others, just as Jesus depended on others to provide for his needs.

Jesus continues to send us into the world as his disciples. But like the first disciples, we are not sent alone. Jesus has given us the community of the Church, which strengthens our life of discipleship. The Christian message can only authentically be proclaimed in and through the community of faith that is the Church. In our work with others, we build this community of faith and can invite others to share in it.

Question of the Week

Sunday Week Fifteen - Mark 6:1-6

Key Passage: Jesus began to send them out two by two and he gave them authority over unclean spirits... The twelve drove out many demons and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Question for adults:

What is our mission as Jesus' disciples in the current community, in the workplace and in the home?

Question for children:

What do you think a disciple is?

Pregunta de la Semana

Decimoquinto Domingo — Marcos 6, 1-6

Pasaje Crucial: Llamó Jesús a los Doce, los envió de dos en dos y les dio poder sobre los espíritus inmundos...Expulsaban a los demonios, ungián con aceite a los enfermos y los curaban.

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cuál es nuestra misión como discípulos de Jesús en la comunidad actual, en el lugar de trabajo y en el hogar?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Qué crees que es un discípulo?

Because of public health regulations, and from an abundance of caution, Saint Mary Parish will, at present, continue the request for unvaccinated individuals to wear masks, as is still recommended by the CDC and requested by our Bishop.

We lift up to the Lord all those who have died, may they enjoy the fullness of Christ. We pray for those suffering from illness, disease or stress, especially those touched by this massive public health crisis. We pray too, for all those who serve the public good in any way. May we be strong in our faith and persistent in our efforts as the hands and feet of our Lord. The gospel challenges us to be Christ's presence. May our works grow and mature us in the image of our Lord.
