Nominations For Pastoral Council Membership - As the challenge of COVID begins to ease, we may now resume many previously restricted activities. That particularly includes a much-needed resumption of everyday parish life, ritual, and activities. A major part in that rejuvenation is the role the Pastoral Council serves in discerning future parish goals, direction, and choices. This weekend begins an opportunity to submit names of those parish members you feel might serve well as Pastoral Council members leading us in a renewed parish life. The Hospitality Ministers have forms to use in submitting those names. Thanks you for your help in discerning this parish need.

A medida que el desafío de COVID comienza a disminuir, ahora podemos reanudar muchas actividades previamente restringidas. Eso incluye en particular una reanudación muy necesaria de la vida, los rituales y las actividades cotidianas de la parroquia. Una parte importante de ese rejuvenecimiento es el papel que desempeña el Consejo Pastoral para discernir las metas, la dirección y las opciones futuras de la parroquia. Este fin de semana comienza una oportunidad para enviar los nombres de los miembros de la parroquia que usted cree que podrían servir como miembros del Consejo Pastoral que nos llevan a una vida parroquial renovada. Los Ministros de Hospitalidad tienen formularios para usar al enviar esos nombres. Gracias por su ayuda para discernir esta necesidad parroquial.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, we read the report of the return of the Twelve, who were sent by Jesus to preach repentance, heal the sick, and drive out demons. When the Twelve return to Jesus, he invites them to come away from the crowds and rest. But the crowds will not give them peace. As the Twelve have shared in Jesus' ministry, they now appear to share in his popularity. The crowds continue to approach them, and Mark reports that the disciples don't even have time to eat. In an effort to get away, Jesus and his disciples board a boat in hopes of finding a deserted place. But the crowds notice this and arrive ahead of them. The crowds are so persistent that Jesus and his disciples cannot find a place to be alone. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus is moved with pity and begins to teach the crowds.

Our Gospel for today stops here, but Mark's report of the unyielding demands of the crowd continues in the verses that follow. If we were to continue reading from Mark's Gospel, we would hear Jesus instruct his disciples to feed the crowd in the familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. The work of Jesus and his disciples appears to be a round-the-clock job. In the next few weeks, we will hear the story of Jesus' feeding of the multitude, but our Lectionary will turn to the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John to report and reflect on this story.

In today's Gospel, we hear the Twelve referred to as "apostles." The word apostle is a Greek word meaning "one who is sent." Jesus chose twelve men from among his disciples whom he sent to share in his ministry of preaching and healing. The first report of this is found in

Bishop McKnight's July prayer intention for our Local Church

We pray for our country at this moment in history, that the dreams of life, liberty and happiness remain in our hearts as well as the desire that we will always be one nation under God.

Intención del mes de julio del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local the third chapter of Mark's Gospel, where the Twelve are also called apostles and the names of this select group are listed.

We who are Jesus' disciples today have also been sent to share the Gospel with others. Perhaps our commitment to following Jesus as his disciple leaves us feeling tired and overwhelmed. In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times of rest and renewal. Jesus wanted his disciples to come away and spend time alone with him. This is what we seek and find in our life of prayer and in our celebration of the Eucharist.

Question of the Week

Sunday Week Sixteen - Mark 6:30-34

Key Passage:

The apostles gathered with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile"... When they disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.

Question for adults:

How do you balance the call to discipleship with everyday life?

Question for children: When have you put the need of others before your own?

Pregunta de la Semana

Decimosexto Domingo — Marcos 6, 30-34

Pasaje Crucial:

Los apóstoles volvieron a reunirse con Jesús y le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado. Entonces él les dijo: "Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco" ...Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cómo equilibra el llamado al discipulado con la vida cotidiana?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Cuándo ha puesto la necesidad de los demás antes que la suya propia?

Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest —The Diocese of Jefferson City, as so many others throughout the United States, has many more parishes than priests. In our diocese, roughly one third of the parishes do not have a resident priest. Our parish is one of six parishes that are administered by Permanent Deacons or Religious Women. Roughly thirty other parishes are without a priest or administrator in permanent residence. Strong effort is made to celebrate mass within every parish as frequently as possible. However, during some weekends while Father Patrick is with his family in Ireland, we will not have a priest available to us. On those weekends, we will have a “Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest.” This “Sunday Celebration” is a ritual the bishops of the United States have provided for circumstances like ours, and participation fulfills your Sunday obligation. Masses will continue to be celebrated in Centerville, Kirksville, and on some Sundays in Milan.

We need your ongoing support and stewardship.

Because of public health regulations, and from an abundance of caution, Saint Mary Parish will, at present, continue the request for unvaccinated individuals to wear masks, as is still recommended by the CDC and requested by our Bishop.

We lift up to the Lord all those who have died, may they enjoy the fullness of Christ. We pray for those suffering from illness, disease or stress, especially those touched by this massive public health crisis. We pray too, for all those who serve the public good in any way. May we be strong in our faith and persistent in our efforts as the hands and feet of our Lord. The gospels challenge us to be Christ’s presence. May our works grow and mature us in the image of our Lord.
