TOGETHERNESS

Today's readings seem to say that the call to union with God is also a call to togetherness with others. The initiative is God's. God values each and every one of us. Once I recognize that I am of divine worth, I must also recognize that all people truly are my sisters and brothers. To accept God's call, then, means more than accepting a personal or private commission. Rather, it means accepting a communal life, a life of solidarity with others. I can test whether or not I am really responding to that call by the way I act in relation to others. I ask myself: "When God calls me, does God find a people, that is, a person committed to solidarity?" If I answer "no", if I see my call as some sort of parochial selection, then I have not really responded.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Name-Tag Sunday

Thanks to all who participated enthusiastically (or even reluctantly) in our first Name-Tag Sunday of 2018. It was a great success! I've already heard from some who attend Mass alone that they were moved and heartened by the experience of getting to know some of their fellow parishioners. I was especially pleased to see some of our young people make a point of going to the back section of the church where those with mobility issues are seated. A pleasant buzz could be heard in the main narthex and PLC foyer both before and after Mass, and a few laughs were had. Many remarked that the reminder to pray for our 'Prayer Partners' during the General Intercessions was a good way of tying the practice to our worship. We'll keep this going throughout 2018 on every Coffee Sunday weekend, usually the first weekend of the month.

DIOCESAN PRAYER CALENDAR

This week we especially pray for:

Monday	Reverend Miro Grubisic, O.F.M.
Tuesday	Reverend David Perrin
Wednesday	Felician Franciscan Sisters (C.S.S.,F.)
Thursday	Reverend Sam Restivo, C.R.
Friday	Reverend Tim Uniac, C.R.
Saturday	Reverend Stephen Murrin

Eternal Father, we lift up to you these and all the priests, religious and lay ministers of the world. Sanctify them. Heal them; guide them. Mold them into the likeness and holiness of your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

A good vocation prayer to say every day - from the time we are young until we are in our golden years - is found in today's first Scripture reading: "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening". Just try it with sincerity, starting today and, if you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, contact Father Michael King, Director of Vocations and Priestly Formation, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988 or email mking@hamiltondiocese.com

RCIA - open to those who are not baptized or baptized within another faith tradition, those baptized Catholic but have not received other Sacraments and those interested in learning about the Catholic Faith. Can begin at any time. Meet each Wednesday 7 – 9 p.m. in the Marian room. Call or email office and a team member will contact you with information.

PLEASE NOTE: RCIA will not meet in January, but will resume again in February of the new year.

We pray in thanksgiving for the richness they bring to the Diocese. It is also a time to pray for the 250 million migrants worldwide, including 22.5 million who are refugees. The Mass is followed by a time of celebration in McNally Hall below the Cathedral, with spring-rolls available for all!
