He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, exclaiming, "A great prophet has arisen in our midst," and "God has visited his people." Lk 7:14c-16

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear family,

According to Canon Law, every priest is required to take a five day retreat each year, to re-focus his sights on Our Lord. This year I will be attending to diocesan retreat in Santa Fe and thus will be away June 6th through the 10th. Please pray it will be a fruitful encounter with Our Lord.

Speaking of encounters with Jesus, our gospel passage is amazing. If I asked people what it was about, most might say "raising the dead." However, this Gospel is really about honoring a mother. What tenderness and care does Our Blessed Lord show this widow now suffering the loss of her only son. Throughout the whole passage, Jesus gives deference to the mother, showing His deep respect for motherhood and women. We could say that this passage shows well His compassionate human nature as well as His powerful divine nature. Regardless, we are left to ponder that Jesus would risk making a huge scene to see a mother not have to grieve another of her beloved. If the Son of God chose to do these things for a mother, how much should we honor all women and those that are mothers?

In His joy,

Rev. Daniel J. Gutierrez

Year of Mercy Corner:

As we are seeing now played out in a horrendous fashion, presidential candidates have been particularly vicious toward one another. One tactic used by politicians since ancient times is called ad hominem. Literally it means "toward the man" or an attack on the man. This is where those arguing abandon logic and attack the person directly with a personal fault. While excitement may ensue, the Christian has no business reveling in or using this tactic. Mercy ask that we see all people as God's children and thus only argue about principles. Never demeaning anyone.
