From the Pastor's Desk

Dearest family,

What a powerful encounter we see in today's Gospel passage. Our Lord has been invited to the house of a Pharisee and it is interrupted by a woman who kneels before Jesus and anoints His feet with oil. We can assume that this woman was possibly a prostitute and certainly not a welcomed guest to this household. I suppose the first sign of Jesus' mercy was that he could have found so many reasons to ask this woman to leave or at least leave Him be. However, quote the opposite happens, at the risk of hurting His reputation and possibly being ridiculed, He defends the woman and her actions when the host objects to her presence. Then Jesus gives a teaching parable and in it, he compares us with those who are in debt and states that those who are forgiven the bigger debt will love more. In other words, it is precisely those who find themselves in the worst situations of their own making to whom God's mercy can be so effective. Think, for example, of St. Paul who had actively persecuted Christians. Due to God's mercy, he became an amazing preacher, evangelist, and apostle. Finally, Jesus reveals God's will by forgiving the repentant woman: God is always ready to forgive any debt in order to bring His children back to Himself. We who always find ourselves in spiritual debt should be so thankful to such a loving God.

In His joy,

Rev. Daniel J. Gutierrez

Attention Catechists: Thank you for answering the call to serve our Parish through the ministry of Religious Education. Archbishop John Wester is asking each of us to engage in our faith so that we will be better able to fully participate in the Religious Education formation. The formation for Christian Service Program of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe was developed to help us grow in our faith.

You are invited to participate in training that will help you get certified to teach the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

St. Francis of Assisi will be hosting the next session "Bread and Board: Daily life in the Time of Jesus" on Thursday June 23, 2016 @ 6:30 - 8:30pm at St Francis Hall in Ranchos de Taos.

We encourage you attend. Please contact Socorro at (575) 776-4764 to register. We look forward to seeing you there!

Remember in your prayers: Sierra Rose Cordova, Michael Allbritton, Margaret Montano Montoya, Dan Cordova, Margaret Lane, Barbara Swiderski, Adam Quintana, Marco Luis Trujillo, Dale Romero, Evangeline Quintana, Viola Quintana, Sara Trujillo, Julian Jaramillo Jr, Pete Trujillo, Elmira Martinez, Emilia Martinez, Mary Ortiz, Patsy Gonzales, Louella Garcia, Lee Quintana, Maria Medina, Kristine Wilkinson, Annabelle Lucero, & Esequiel (Gus) Garcia. If you would like to add anyone to this list please call (575) 758-9208, email olgtaos@yahoo.com, fax (575) 758-2745 or stop at the office by Thursday at 12pm for the next weeks bulletin.

Year of Mercy Corner:

It should go without saying...again, but one great idea for this Year of Mercy is to learn to quit judging by appearances. Consider the woman in today's gospel reading. Jesus did not stop her from coming near him and seeking forgiveness. If he would have listened to his disapproving host, this woman would have been further demeaned and missed an important moment of grace. We don't know what happens to her after this passage, but we can be assured she will never forget her encounter with Our Blessed Lord and His mercy toward her. Have you ever let someone's appearance cut short a possibility to understand them or show them mercy. Let us take a page from Our Lord's book, who does not look to surface, but sees matters of the heart (where we all need His healing).
