From the Pastor's Desk

Dearest family,
Distinctions are a necessary and helpful tool we use to navigate our way through this world. But like anything, when we place too many eggs into one basket, we run into trouble. Often distinctions are helpful for organization and planning, but they are detrimental when it comes to the value we place on roles and persons. Left to our own devices, people in their cynicism will often use the distinctions and differences among us to take part in an ongoing competition which can ultimately lead to unhealthy and discriminatory thoughts and practices. St. Paul, in at the time would have been a shocking statement, reminds us that distinctions in the light of Christ are of little importance when it comes to God's primacy in our life and our God-given worth. In the end, Jesus makes no distinctions in His love for each of us, then why do we?

Finally, I want to thank all of you reading this. This past Tuesday was the one year anniversary of me taking over leadership of our parish. April 29th of last year Archbishop Sheehan called me on the road from Socorro to Santa Fe. He informed me I would be taking Fr. Niggel's place here at OLOG and while the thought of change made me somewhat apprehensive, I remember pulling over my car to thank God for this new blessing in my life. Well let me say I could not have anticipated what a blessing this community would be to me. This assignment has been healing, joyful, enriching, and unexpectedly sweet.
Con cariño, Rev. Fr. Daniel J. Gutierrez

Attention Catechists: Thank you for answering the call to serve our Parish through the ministry of Religious Education. Archbishop John Wester is asking each of us to engage in our faith so that we will be better able to fully participate in the Religious Education formation. The formation for Christian Service Program of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe was developed to help us grow in our faith. You are invited to participate in training that will help you get certified to teach the Catechism of the Catholic Church. St. Francis of Assisi will be hosting the next session "Bread and Board: Daily life in the Time of Jesus" on Thursday June 23, 2016 @ 6:30 –8:30pm at St Francis Hall in Ranchos de Taos. We encourage you attend. Please contact Socorro at (575) 776-4764 to register. We look forward to seeing you there!

Remember in your prayers: Sierra Rose Cordova, Michael Allbritton, Margaret Montano Montoya, Dan Cordova, Margaret Lane, Barbara Swiderski, Adam Quintana, Marco Luis Trujillo, Dale Romero, Evangeline Quintana, Viola Quintana, Sara Trujillo, Julian Jaramillo Jr, Pete Trujillo, Elmira Martinez, Emilia Martinez, Mary Ortiz, Patsy Gonzales, Louella Garcia, Lee Quintana, Maria Medina, Kristine Wilkinson, Annabelle Lucero, Esequiel (Gus) Garcia & Nobie Fernandez. If you would like to add anyone to this list please call (575) 758-9208, email olgtaos@yahoo.com, fax (575) 758-2745 or stop at the office by Thursday at 12pm for the next weeks bulletin.

Year of Mercy Corner:

This past week our nation faced another tragedy, the mass shootings in Orlando. This sort of senseless murder brings up a lot of emotions for everyone, especially those involved, and rightly so. The righteous and natural anger that surrounds these events can lead to violent thoughts, but this is precisely where mercy is needed. Perhaps this goes without saying when Our Lord is so many ways encourages us to love everyone, especially our enemies. Here it's important to remember that as Christians, we must never condone any violence or anything which hurts another's God-given dignity. Now this is all easier said than done and we should seek justice where it is needed, but never compromising our proclamation that every human life is a sacred gift of God.
