OLOG Advent Mission 2016

Let us welcome to our community Fr. Graham Golden, O. Praem. Fr. Graham is a Norbertine priest of Santa Maria de la Vid Abbey in Albuquerque. He is the vocation director for the Abbey, the parochial vicar at Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary in Albuquerque, and the coordinator of program development, evaluation and research for the Catholic Foundation.

He has been ordained almost three years and most recently has received the Cardinal Bernardine New Leadership Award. It is awarded by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development to a young adult who takes leadership in helping people on the margins of society. Join us as he presents his mission, “Living Now for the Kingdom That is to Come: How to Live in Hope in the Midst of Suffering and Uncertainty”

Dear family, As we continue to prepare for the coming(s) of Our Blessed Lord, we must take a step back and ask ourselves, do we even know what it is we are looking for? In today's Gospel, St. John the Baptist appears on the scene calling the people to return to God in the hearts and to repent of sin. However, this ambassador of God and prophet of preparation is not what we would expect in the face of such a new revolution. We are given a description of John and by this description alone, how many of us can really say we would listen to him. Could it really be that a crazed, disheveled, and wild looking man can be chosen by God with such an important message? Stated briefly: yes! God will always surprise us dear family and it's not unlike His method to use something (or someone) we least expect to be His mouthpiece. Furthermore, we should consider that it is our laziness and lack of faith that sometimes makes God's messages seem unfamiliar and strange. This is a call for us to grow and to lay down our expectations that only hinder our ability to really listen to God. This week also we have our celebration of our Holy Feast Day of Our Lady of Guadalupe. See the schedule above and be sure to participate in this beautiful time with your fellow parishioners. We have a lot to be thankful for and proud of, make sure to give Him thanks! The celebration kicks off with the Solemnity of The Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day of Obligation. Please come and share in this week of amazing grace! In His Expectant Joy, Reverend Father Daniel J. Gutierrez
