ST. PHILOMENA ADORATION CHAPEL

An alternative to a Mass intention is to purchase 6 candles for the Chapel. These candles are perpetually lit for one week. The candles burn close to our Lord on the altar. Intentions can be in memory of a loved one, a special request, or in thanksgiving to our Lord.

Donation: $20.00 Intentions for the Week of 01/07/2018 – 01/13/2018

Go & Proclaim the Word of God

Dear family,

A few housekeeping issues: First, from now until the beginning of Lent, I am taking this time with my staff to look over policy and the internal affairs of the parish. I will not be taking appointments during this time so as to give me time to get to those “back burner” issues that get ignored largely during the remainder of the year.

Also, please keep in mind that if there should arise an emergency requiring a priest, then one should call the office during working hours. After these hours or at other times, please call the emergency line on the front of the bulletin. Of course, the best way to prepare, if possible, is to request an anointing be scheduled when your loved one is seriously ill. We do not have to wait until those we love are facing possible death to get them anointed. Sometimes, it cannot be helped or tragic events happen, but let's be responsible about our faith, especially since the sacrament never fades and be vigilant about living the sacraments. Know that I am more than happy to serve you and appreciate your faith. –Fr. Daniel

On January 23rd at 6:30pm we are calling all readers to meet in the Church. In this new year we will make some changes to enhance our proclamation of the word. Let us gather for prayer and instruction for the glory of God and the faith of the people we serve.

MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAPPY NEW YEAR MY FAMILY

I sincerely hope your own celebrations and time was enjoyable and enriching. Here at the parish, we had beautiful celebrations for Christmas and I enjoyed celebrating them with your families. Also, thank you to all who showed me such wonderful support by your words, thoughts, gifts, cards and good gestures. There are too many of you to thank individually, so I tell you from my own heart, I appreciate your kindness toward me. In His joy, Fr. Daniel

Dear Family,

This Feast of Epiphany is all about being humble people. We are called to step outside our comfort zones in order to encounter God, who many times upsets our expectations. There are several instances in Scripture where individuals considered aliens to the Jewish context are seen showing great faith, sometimes greater than the people surrounding the acts of God. The Magi are the perfect example. They are humble about everything and incredibly faith filled men. They see the birth of the Christ child as a chance to enrich their lives and last, but not least, they travel so very far to “do Him homage.” May we be humble always so that we can find Him and praise Him.

In His joy, Fr. Daniel
