Father's Housekeeping

One of the greatest honors we receive as Catholics is being chosen to sponsor a child for their baptism and/or confirmation. These are sacraments of initiation and therefore pivotal to the formation of a person who is beginning his faith journey. So it is important that his sponsors or padrinos be able to accompany them. The Church makes it clear that sponsors are taking on a huge responsibility long after the reception cake is eaten. They must see to it, that the child is raised with the faith and must be an example who encourages the child to live their faith fully and faithfully. According to the norms for our Archdiocese, a sponsor must:

- be sixteen years of age
 - Be fully initiated into the Church (i.e. baptized & confirmed)
 - Have received first holy communion
 - Regularly going to Mass and receiving the Sacrament of Penance once a year
 - Not be cohabitating or be married outside the Church
- Let us be aware of what our Church is asking of us.

Dear family,

Have you ever asked God for a sign? What kind of sign would you want to experience? In today's Gospel reading, Jesus begins by proclaiming, "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the gospel."

Pope Emeritus pointed out something beautiful, that whenever Jesus spoke of the kingdom of God, He was also talking about Himself. Jesus is God and He is close to us. Here is a sign for all of us to see, that we all get to behold and it is right in front of our face!

This sign of God does not come to us in some sensational way. And as we see in the Gospel reading today, it also often comes in the midst of our everyday life. The apostles were busy fishing for a living, not casually going for trout. They were at their jobs and certainly very involved. It was in this very busy, inner-worldly, and banal context, God appears to man. This is a reminder that God always meets people where they are, but we the people need to be paying attention. Jesus is close to us in so many ways and He seeks us wherever we are (emotionally, spiritually). Are we open to see a sign from God?

In His Joy, Father Daniel

Go & Proclaim the Word of God

On January 23rd at 6:30pm we are calling all readers to meet in the Church. In this new year we will make some changes to enhance our proclamation of the word. Let us gather for prayer and instruction for the glory of God and the faith of the people we serve.
