pastor's Corner

Dear family,

In today's gospel reading we hear of the early days of Jesus' ministry. Known for curing diseases and expelling the possessed, Jesus became very popular very quick. Modeling for every minister the need for self-care, prayer and rest, Jesus sneaks away into the wilderness to recharge. The apostles find him and tell him, "Everyone is looking for you." How true is this? In some way, each of us seek peace, love, security, and fulfillment. Unfortunately, some of us seek these things among the feeble and limited created world instead of in the Creator. I think St. Pope John Paul II put it best in an address to young people: "It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your heart your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle. It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal." Have a blessed week, my family.

In His joy, Fr. Daniel
