ST. PHILOMENA ADORATION CHAPEL

An alternative to a Mass intention is to purchase 6 candles for the Chapel. These candles are perpetually lit for one week.

The candles burn close to our Lord on the altar.

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator Blest!

“COME JOURNEY WITH ME... DOWN THE ROAD TO EMMAUS”

Dear friends, let us join our prayers to the young people who will make their confirmation this Friday, April 20. The presider will be the Archbishop's Vicar General, Fr. John Daniel. Let us welcome him as our youth celebrate the Holy Spirit coming upon them and gifting them with His gifts. May these confirmandi be inspired to witness to Christ in the world.

A retreat for Women will be held at Our Lady of Guadalupe Abby, Pecos Benedictine Monastery on April 27-29, 2018.

For early registrations and specific retreat details, please contact Retreat Facilitator Mary Lou Gonzales at (505-831-3774 or (505) 480-5814. guestmaster@pecosmonastery.org for room reservation and payment arrangements.

Pastor's Corner

Dear family,

What is a "witness?" Usually when we hear the word, we think of someone who can substantiate a claim. This is not what is implied by our readings though. A "witness" is someone who is changed by what they see. More than a reporter of things seen, those who are witnesses to the resurrection are empowered to spread the good news, to follow the commandments of God (especially the commandment to love God and neighbor), and to make the glory of God known. Do we do this? When we come to Mass, are we engaged in mind, heart and body, or is it no different than sitting down at the theatres where our minds tend to go numb. Christianity, dearest family, is not an armchair sport nor is it a passive consideration by spectators, it is a force to be reckoned with because His followers have been changed by what they see. Do we change people by the way we live out our faith? Do we communicate the grace, mercy, and love that God has given to us.

In His joy, Fr. Daniel
