Padre's Corner

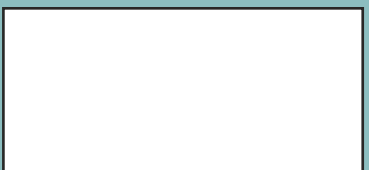

*"I am the vine, you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."*

Dear family,

When do you turn to God? Sometimes I feel as if we have this assumption that our relationship with God is more of that of a student to a teacher or a patient to a doctor. In other words, we turn to Him when we need Him. And this is true! He is the ultimate physician who can heal our deepest wounds, He is the wisest teacher who can reveal what He is: truth. But the separation we place between He and us in these images is problematic. In today's Gospel, Jesus uses strong language which reminds us that we are utterly bound to Him, connected at such a deep level that in some sense we are unified. Do we recognize God as the one our whole being rests upon? St. Paul says it well someplace, "In Him we live and move and have our being." Recognize friends that God is everything to us already, our foundation and life. Do we act like this?

In His Risen Joy, Fr. Daniel
