Padre's Corner

“God is love.”

Dear family,

In one of the most powerful lines of any piece of literature in history, we hear in the second reading, “God is love.” It’s particularly powerful because it is not stating something about God’s attributes or only the way He does things, but is a statement about His essence. God’s love is His defining quality that shines forth because it belongs to who He is. What quality would define you? If your life was examined or if those who know you best were to give testimony, what quality would they use to identify you?

Speaking of “love” what a wonderful day to celebrate a vocation where love can be so powerful and creative?! I certainly hope that we can all take some time today to recognize the strong, life-giving, supportive, and nurturing women in our lives. Happy Mothers’ Day and God bless you all!

In His Paschal Joy, Fr. Daniel
