Padre's Corner

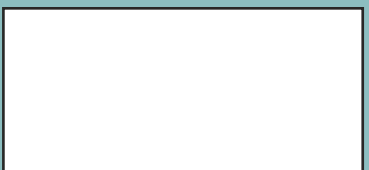

Dear family,

Happy Feast of the Ascension! In so many ways, today is a feast of hope. Most striking is that Our Lord has been rejoined to the Father in heavenly glory! He, the one to whom we are inextricably connected by baptism, has made a full circle journey. So we are hopeful of our path in Christ. The preface for today's Mass puts it well, "...he ascended, not to distance himself from our lowly state but what we, his members, might be confident of following where he, our Head and Founder, has gone before." May we always live in this confidence that to stay close to Christ is to stay close to heaven!

Also, friends, I am happy to announce that Jesus is not the only one making a return journey! This week, the seminarian Jacob Romero will be joining the parish and accompanying me for the third year in a row. What can I say other than that he clearly loves it here and enjoys the community? Who can blame him? As you see Jacob around be sure to make him feel welcomed. Bienvenido a Taos, Jacob, otra vez!

In His Joy, Fr. Daniel
