Padre's Corner

Dear family,

The story of the widow's mites is a stark recall back to Jesus' words in The Beatitudes, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God." The contrast between the widow and the scribes/rich people is striking as we see the courageous faith of a woman who gives from her poverty. While this passage definitely has import on our tithing and overall stewardship of the Church, there's a deeper point to be gleaned still. Perhaps we could ask ourselves the question: From where do we share with God/others? For so many people, they share from the superficial? Think about many initial conversations we have, we almost always resort to talking about sports, the news, or the weather. Hardly ever is our tendency to discuss matters of the heart or be open to the inner workings of the other. Our relationship with God can be similar as at times when we only speak to Him when a need arises and often don't take time to share the longings present in our hearts. But this places of poverty and humility is precisely where God wants us to live our baptism. He wants us to be men and women of communion, not casual encounters. Let us pray that weight remain authentic so as to strengthen our relationships as a Church and as Children of GOD.

In His Joy, Fr. Daniel
