

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Legacy Community

Tuesday November 12, 6:30 PM-7:15 PM in Seton Hall

Jeff Henderson serves as the Stewardship Development Director for the Archdiocese of Dubuque, a position he has held since January 1, 2015. In this role he assists parishes, Catholic schools and parishioners to understand and embrace the life of being a good steward of God's gifts. This is accomplished by helping people to identify his/her gifts, creating avenues to share gifts which ultimately helps those most in need. Thus, a STEWARDSHIP WAY OF LIFE.

He and his wife Lisa live in Cedar Rapids and are members of St. Jude parish. His son Josh (X06) and wife Jenni live in Detroit. His daughter Lara (X10) and her husband Sam live in Des Moines. They have two grand dogs, Ozzie and Kona. He remains a vocal St. Louis Cardinal fan.

Presentation Topics

- ▶ Role of Stewardship Development Office
- ▶ Stewardship as a way of life
- ▶ Financial Stewardship

Michele Brock is the Executive Director for the Catholic Foundation in the Archdiocese of Dubuque. In Christ, The Catholic Foundation works with donors to provide for the long-term needs of Catholic organizations in the Archdiocese of Dubuque. Their mission statement is: To sustain a vibrant Catholic faith in the Archdiocese of Dubuque through professional financial planning.

Michele leads the efforts of managing the day-to-day operations and stewarding the investment of assets, grants and endowment distributions.

She is actively involved in her community and at her parish, St. Joseph in Marion, volunteering as a leader there in many different capacities. She and her husband Doug reside in Cedar Rapids and have two daughters.

Presentation Topics

- ▶ Long term planning
- ▶ Statistics on planned gifts
- ▶ Benefits and resources of CFAD including Will Planning Guide