Hurricane Matthew: Catholic Relief Services has begun a fast response to the damage caused by Hurricane Matthew. Even before the storm hit, CRS staff were dispatched to the CRS offices in Les Cayes, Jeremie and Jacmel—cities in southwest Haiti directly in the hurricane's path. As always, CRS stands ready to respond with the local Catholic Church and other partners to the people in greatest need. CRS has set up a Hurricane Matthew webpage we can be found on their main site, or you can access it directly at: <http://www.crs.org/resource-center/church-responds-hurricane-matthew>. This site informs our communities on how we can respond with prayer, learning, action, and donations for those impacted by the storm. I am grateful for all that our people do to alleviate the suffering of some of the world's poorest. May God bless you – Bishop Edward J. Weisenburger.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY is today, Sunday, October 23rd. Every year something special happens on the next-to-last Sunday in October—World Mission Sunday joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. In a world where so much divides us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries! And it provides an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses, mostly in Africa and Asia. Your support reaches clinics caring for the sick and dying, orphanages providing a place of safety and shelter, and schools offering education from kindergarten through high school. Your help provides for seminarians preparing for priesthood, and religious Sisters and Brothers in formation programs. If you have not given, you still have time—just drop your envelope in the offering basket!

PRAYERS NEEDED: Please keep Jerry Kohman in your prayers for quick healing—he fell off of a combine on Wednesday evening and broke a few ribs! Cards can be sent to his home ~ 6415 E. Country Club Road, Salina, KS 67401

DIRECTORIES ARE DONE: The Directories are done and in the back to be picked up—just look for your name!

Alcoholics Anonymous

Meets every Sunday at 8 p.m. in parish hall & Wednesday mornings at 8 a.m. in parish hall. These are open meetings and all are welcome!

DIOCESE VOCATION PRAYER: Lord God, in your tender mercies you give your holy people every good gift. We turn to you today in our need, asking that you bless our Diocese with an abundance of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Inspire us with your Holy Spirit to help young men and women hear your call and respond with joyful hearts. We also ask that you bless our priest and all who serve us in the Church today. May they know every grace and joy as you bring to completion the many good works begun in them. We ask this in faith, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Question of the Week

Theme: God knows and sees our hearts.

Adult Question This Gospel reading suggests that we approach God and each other with humility. What does this mean, in practical terms? How do we "humble" ourselves? What does that mean?

Youth Question: God knows when we are doing things just for show, and when they come from the goodness of our heart. When have you caught yourself doing something just to be more popular or liked? How does it feel to do something that you know is good and just?

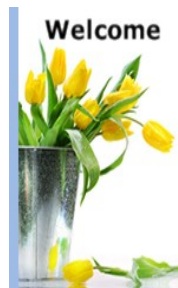

Children Question: Jesus teaches us to be humble – but what does that mean? How do you show you are humble?

KNIGHTS BREAKFAST: The breakfast that the Knights have in November—all proceeds will go to the Abilene Food Bank. Plan now to come and enjoy this breakfast!

CALLING ALL ADULTS: Adults, we need you ~ there will be a gathering for all interested Adults. We will meet while Religious Education is going on. This is a great opportunity to further your knowledge and to continue growing in your faith journey. It's never too late to learn!

SEWING/CRAFT DAY: If you missed the last sewing day ~ no worries ~ the next one is planned for Saturday, November 5th. Same time - 9 am to 4 pm here in the parish hall. This is open to anyone!

We are so glad you are with us today! If you have recently moved into town and want to make this your home parish, we ask that you please fill out a slip a paper that is in the back on the two side tables with the Holy Water—feel free to drop them in the offering baskets. If you are just visiting on your way through town—we're happy to have you join us!!!!
