HUNGER: What do hunger for?

We're all hungry for something. Figuring out what we are truly hungry for is one of the great spiritual quests of life. Some are hungry for comfort; others are hungry to belong; still others for success, safety, adventure, security, travel, and so on. To be hungry is human.

The wonderful thing about our bodies is that when they're hungry, they let us know. They growl, grumble or groan. Some might be embarrassed when this happens in public, but I try not to be. I try to be grateful. The body is simply letting me know that it's hungry.

From time to time, I wish my soul would communicate as clearly as my stomach. It takes incredible spiritual awareness to work out over time what we are really hungry for. And it is the ultimate spiritual awareness to realize that every yearning we have is in some way a yearning for God. While we search for him far and wide in this world, he is waiting for us in the very depths of our souls.

We designed BEST LENT EVER to help you step back to reflect upon your life, develop a deeper understanding of what you truly hunger for, and journey a little bit further into the depths of your souls. (If you have not yet signed up for the daily video reflections, we invite you to do so at BestLentEver.com/2021.)

As we prepare for another amazing Lent, I'll ask you one more time. What do you hunger for?

Taken from "Best Lent Ever" Journal - this is available in the back of church! Pick yours up today!

MASS TIME FOR TRAVELERS: For nationwide Mass times and locations: call Mass Times (1-858-207-6277) or on the internet at www.Masstimes.org. You will need the zip code of where you are going.

DIOCESE VOCATION PRAYER: O Lord, My God, please raise up an army of priests from the sons of the Diocese of Salina. Priests that will carry Your merciful words of absolution upon their lips. Priests that will anoint our loved ones with Your Holy Oil in sickness and at the hour of their death. Priests who will fearlessly proclaim the Gospel in season and out. Priests who will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for our salvation. Dearest Mother Mary, whisper consoling words of comfort into the hearts of mothers and fathers of our diocese as their sons discern a call into the Holy Orders of Christ's Eternal Priesthood. We ask this with humble hearts through the Holy Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
