NEITHER DO I CONDEMN YOU: A piece taken from "The Word Among Us"

I forgive you. Just three simple words, but those words are packed with meaning. Saying "I forgive you" is like saying, "I don't hold this against you. I don't want the memory of this hurt to stand between us anymore." When you say, "I forgive you," you're also saying "I won't try to get back at you." It's not just a statement of fact; it's a statement of desire—the desire to heal a wounded relationship. It's such a relief to hear someone speak these words to us, especially when we are feeling bad about having hurt that person!

Imagine how it must feel to hear God say the same words to you. Imagine him promising not to hold your sins against you and to relieve you from your guilt. Imagine him saying, "I want our relationship to be restored." Hearing these words, really hearing them, just might change your life dramatically.

Opening prayer for this Sunday: O God, who have commanded us to listen to your beloved Son, be pleased, we pray, to nourish us inwardly by your word, that, with spiritual sight made pure, we may rejoice to behold your glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

"Be still and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."

Psalms 46:10

DIOCESE VOCATION PRAYER: O Lord, My God, please raise up an army of priests from the sons of the Diocese of Salina. Priests that will carry Your merciful words of absolution upon their lips. Priests that will anoint our loved ones with Your Holy Oil in sickness and at the hour of their death. Priests who will fearlessly proclaim the Gospel in season and out. Priests who will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for our salvation. Dearest Mother Mary, whisper consoling words of comfort into the hearts of mothers and fathers of our diocese as their sons discern a call into the Holy Orders of Christ's Eternal Priesthood. We ask this with humble hearts through the Holy Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
