SAFE ENVIRONMENT "Promise to Protect"
BELIEVE IN THE POSSIBILITY OF HELP AND HEALING.
THERE IS HOPE.

Your local Victim Assistance Coordinator is available to help you or anyone who has been abused or victimized by someone representing the Catholic Church. We will listen to your needs and support you. We will help you make a formal complaint and arrange a personal meeting with the bishop, or his delegate, if desired. We encourage you to come forward and speak out. The Victim Assistance Coordinator in our diocese is: Ron Vallance at (702) 235-7723

This week we celebrate the last of the feasts that follow Pentecost. Our daily Mass celebrations have been in Ordinary Time since Pentecost, but our Sundays have lingered with the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity and today's feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

Each of these feasts was added as history moved on to give the church a chance to highlight one or another aspect of God's presence in our lives. Today's feast is, in one sense, the feast of every time we gather at the Eucharistic table. We step back in awe to linger on the gift of the Eucharist and the way in which God's presence is manifested to us in it.

This is always a Sunday when I recall St. Augustine who urged his people "Receive what you believe, become what you receive." It was his reminder that God's presence which receive and consume transforms us into God's presence which we bring to the world.

So this Sunday I invite you to think not only about the real presence of Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, but also about your call to embody that presence in the world around you--your family, neighborhood, workplace, city and beyond. How are you called to embody this mission in your life?

Meantime, enjoy the heat of summer and change of pace. Blessings, Fr. Bob

Special Collection

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ, On the weekend of June 25, our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection. Our participation supports the charitable work of Pope Francis as he reaches out to those who are marginalized and suffering around the globe. By supporting this collection, you join the Holy Father in bringing a little more mercy into the world.

Pope Francis called to us in his 2016 Urbi et Orbi address: "May efforts be made everywhere to promote the culture of encounter, justice and reciprocal respect, which alone can guarantee the spiritual and material welfare of all people."

We are taking up this collection to be part of the Church's effort to promote a culture of encounter and justice. Your support makes it possible for the Holy Father to carry out his charitable works around the world, to help victims of war, natural disasters, and other difficult situations.

Let us join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis reach the marginalized in our world. Please prayerfully consider how you can best support the collection this year. For more information about the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly, I remain - Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Joseph A. Pepe, D.D., J.C.D.
Bishop of Las Vegas
