THERE IS HOPE.

Your local Victim Assistance Coordinator is available to help you or anyone who has been abused or victimized by someone representing the Catholic Church. We will listen to your needs and support you. We will help you make a formal complaint and arrange a personal meeting with the bishop, or his delegate, if desired. We encourage you to come forward and speak out. The Victim Assistance Coordinator in our diocese is: Ron Vallance at (702) 235-7723

July is here, and so are the transitions for us as a parish. You will notice on the front cover that Deacon Tim's new title is in place and he is now officially Parish Life Coordinator. That means he has the day to day responsibilities to make sure the parish runs.

Father Toan has arrived in town. You won't meet him at weekend liturgy until the weekend of July 16th, but he will be present for this Wednesday's Mass for Anointing of the Sick.

July 1st I also began my new responsibilities at Guardian Angel Cathedral with Masses on Saturday afternoon. As we move forward with our transitions, let's keep each other in prayer.

This past we also learned of the death of two more of our parishioners. Harriet Auwerda passed away (no information on any services yet) and Nadine Boettcher died. There will be a Memorial Mass for Nadine this fall. And note Marian Drost's funeral on Monday on the front cover. Please keep the repose of their souls in your prayers and pray for those who grieve their loss.

Blessings, Fr. Bob

Special Collection

My Dear Parishioners,

One of the primary responsibilities of the Catholic Church is to provide parents the opportunity to form and educate their children in a Catholic school environment. Catholic elementary schools are established to meet this need and offer a solid foundation of academics and Catholic values. In the Diocese of Las Vegas this is the goal of each of our six Catholic elementary schools. These schools serve not only the parishes to which they are attached, but all Catholic families in the diocese.

Those of us who have had the opportunity to attend Catholic elementary schools are probably aware of the changes that have taken place. In the past most Catholic schools were the beneficiaries of dedicated Sisters, Brothers, and Priests who regularly staffed the teaching and administrative positions within the schools with limited compensation. Today we depend upon the many professional people who devote their vocations as teachers and administrators to the families that seek a Catholic education.

Along with this transition, and the increase in facility operational costs, tuition has seen a corresponding increase. Realizing the financial burden that this increase can cause families who still hope to have their children attend a Catholic school, the Diocese of Las Vegas designates a second collection each year for elementary school scholarships. This year's collection will be taken on the weekend of July 8th and 9th. An impartial assessment process is used to determine eligibility for scholarship assistance.

I ask you to please be as generous as possible. Through your support of this collection young minds and hearts will be given the opportunity to receive the Catholic faith and academic formation they deserve.

With gratitude for your continued generosity, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Joseph A. Pepe, D.D., J.C.D.
Bishop of Las Vegas
