William Shakespeare's Long Lost First Play (abridged)

Brought to you by the same guys who starred in the PBS film version of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged), this highly-imaginative, vaudeville-infused comedy tells the not-quite factual (well, not at all factual) story of an ancient manuscript purported to be the first play by William Shakespeare. Using questionable scholarship and street-performer smarts, a trio of comic actors will throw themselves into a fast, funny, and frenzied festival of pure hilarity.

Treasure Island

Adapted by Mary Zimmerman

From the Novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

This epic tale with music will thrill the entire family with tales of buried treasure, cutthroat pirates, the larger-than-life Long John Silver, and the courageous young cabin boy Jim Hawkins. The Festival is the first theatre after a joint premiere at Looking Glass Theatre in Chicago and Berkeley Rep in Berkeley, California, to produce this critically-acclaimed adaptation, filled with adventure and song.

Many THANKS to all who made last weekend so memorable:

To the Social Committee and all who prepared and brought food, decorated, served and cleaned up. It was a nice experience whose memory will go with me.

To the many who wrote messages and cards and gave gifts: I am savoring these--reading a few each day so that I can absorb them. Your kind words and the ways in which you all shared your lives with me these last years are treasures.

Until we meet again, let's pray for each other, and pray for Deacon Tim who leads the parish in this new era. Love and prayers, Fr. Bob
