Stewardship

There are many parish volunteers that make St. Andrew such a wonderful parish to be a part of. However, many more need to find their place in the ministry of St. Andrew. If you asked someone, "What parish do you belong to?" Invariably they will say "I go to St. So and So Church." But a parish is more than somewhere you 'go to'. A parish is a living, vibrant organism, kept alive by the activity of its people, powered by understanding of the Word of God and a desire to spread the Gospel.

There's a story about a man who called a pastor one day and said he wanted to join the parish. "But," he said, "I don't want to be expected to go to church EVERY Sunday; and I don't want to be pestered about money all the time." "And don't expect me to study the Bible," he said, "or be a lector or an usher, or visit the sick, or help out with CCD classes." The pastor commended him for his desire to be a member of their parish. But, he told the man the church he really wanted was located across town. The man took down the directions and hung up. When he arrived at the address, he came face to face with the consequence of his own attitude. There stood an abandoned church and other buildings, all boarded up and ready to be razed.

A parish can't survive without active and supportive members. It is because of the dedication and sacrifices of the people of St Andrew that we continue to survive. Thank you all so much! Although, so many are generous with time and talent we're also in need of treasure to keep our church and grounds beautiful and growing. Whatever you give will come back ten-fold. Blessings, Deacon Tim
