DECREE
Dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been extended by Bishop George Leo Thomas through
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord
April 4, 2021

"While we recognize that many are eager to return to Mass in our churches, it remains important for those who are elderly and otherwise at risk to refrain from returning to public Liturgies until it is manifestly safe to do so. For all the faithful, especially those who are sick, at high risk of becoming sick, and their caregivers, the obligation to attend Sunday Mass is hereby dispensed."

Act of Spiritual Communion

We are a Eucharistic people, and as Catholic Christians our Eucharistic celebrations represent “the source and summit” of our life as a community. Sadly, not all of us are able to gather physically for Mass, but we want to stay connected spiritually.

Here is an Act of Spiritual Communion for you to pray as we join in “Unity” at St. Andrew's LiveStream Mass at 8 AM on our Youtube Channel:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. As though you were already there, I embrace you and unite myself wholly to you; do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen.

Adapted from St. Alphonsus Maria de' Ligouri

MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

as of February 7, 2021:

Masses on Sunday:
8 AM and 10 AM

Due to overall low attendance at Masses,
the 12 PM Mass has been discontinued.

St. Andrew has discontinued the Noon Mass. During the past several months, we have been monitoring attendance at all 3 of our Masses, and on most Sundays, the 8 AM and 10 AM Masses have been at less than fifty percent of the allowable number of attendees... which is 100 people per Mass. However, the Noon Mass has been running even less than that... at less than forty percent of capacity. Even with the elimination of the Noon Mass, we anticipate capacity at the 8 AM and 10 AM Masses, will be around sixty percent, which will allow for growth in attendance. We hope those of you who especially have been used to attending the Noon Mass will understand. Of course, our plan is that as the pandemic subsides and restrictions ease... we will one day return to the Mass times we had before the pandemic - 8 and 10:30 - with "extended liturgy" or coffee and donuts, between Masses. One day!

Prayers for life

That each of us may be the Lord's prophets by speaking up for vulnerable people - both born and unborn - who cannot speak for themselves.

Year of St. Joseph Pope Francis' Prayer

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.*

*Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.*

PRAYER FOR THE NATION

Almighty God, You have given us this good land for our heritage. We humbly ask You that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your favor and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honorable endeavor, sound learning and pure manners.
Save us from violence,
discord, and confusion,
from pride and arrogance,
and from every evil way.
Defend our liberties and fashion
into one united people the multitude brought here out of many nations and tongues.
Endow with the Spirit of wisdom those to whom in Your Name
we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Your Law
we may show forth Your praise among the nations on earth.
In time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness,
and in the day of trouble do not allow our trust in You to fail.
Amen.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Year B

POPE FRANCIS' GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today's Gospel tells how a leper approached Jesus, saying "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean." The leper's request is a simple prayer, an act of confidence — but at the same time, a true challenge. It is plea that comes from the depths of his heart, which also reveals something about Jesus and His compassion for us. Jesus, suffers with and for us, He takes the suffering of others upon Himself, comforting them and healing them in the name the love of the Father.

The phrase, “If you will...” is a prayer that gets God’s attention. It is a challenge, but also an act of confidence: I know that He can do it, and so I entrust myself to Him.

The leper was able to make this prayer, because he saw how Jesus acted. This man had seen the compassion of Jesus. Compassion, not pity, is a refrain in the Gospel — a common theme seen in the story of the widow of Nain, and in the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son.

Compassion, it comes from the heart and gets involved, and it leads you to do something. Compassion is suffering with, taking the suffering of the other person upon yourself in order to resolve it, to heal it. And this was the mission of Jesus. Jesus did not come to preach the law and then leave. Jesus came in compassion, that is, to suffer with and for us and to give us life itself. The love of Jesus is so great that compassion led Him precisely to the Cross, to give His life.

Let us repeat this little phrase often. Because Jesus has compassion, He is capable of involving Himself in our sorrows, in the problems of others. Jesus, did not come simply to give a few sermons and then return to heaven; not to wash His hands. He came to be close to us, and He remains always at our side.

This expression can be turned into a prayer that we can use every day:

“Lord, if you will, you can heal me; if you will, you can forgive me; if you will, you can help me.” Or, if you want, you can make it a little longer: “Lord, I am a sinner, have mercy on me, have compassion on me.” A simple prayer that can be said many times a day. “Lord, I, a sinner, ask you: have mercy on me.” Many times a day, inwardly, from the heart, without saying it out loud: “Lord, if you will, you can; if you will, you can. Have compassion on me”. Repeat this.:

The leper, with his simple and miraculous prayer, was able to obtain healing thanks to the compassion of Jesus, who loves us despite our sinfulness. He is not ashamed of us. “O Father, I am a sinner, how can I say this?...” This is better! For He came precisely for us sinners, and the greater a sinner you are, the closer the Lord is to you, for He has come for you, the greatest sinner; for me, the greatest sinner; for all of us. Let us make a habit of repeating this prayer, always: “Lord, if you will it, "you can do it." If you will it, "you can do it” with confidence that the Lord is close to us; and with His compassion, He will take upon Himself our problems, our sins, our inner diseases, everything.

Something to ponder this Valentine's Day...

On this Valentine's Day, Scripture overflows with references to God's great, enduring and abounding compassion and love. He set the greatest example of love, giving up his only son for us. In Romans 5:8, we read: "But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." I John Chapter 4, for example, details the depth of God's love and his commandment to love one another.

Valentine's Day gives us that opportunity to show love to family, friends, neighbors and more. Showing love needn't be that involved. A compassionate phone call made, a greeting card sent, a door held, even an ear and heart to listen—all these gestures communicate love. You will also be hearing about our 2021 Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA) which begins this Sunday on Valentine's Day. This is another opportunity of showing love and compassion, strengthening one another in the faith by being a faithful steward, sharing our blessings with others.

Masses: 8 AM, 12 PM and 4 PM
Distribution of ashes at all Masses
SIGN-UP to preregister for this Mass
beginning this Wednesday afternoon, February 10th!

Due to the current pandemic situation the protocol for the distribution of the Ashes for the Diocese of Las Vegas is as follows: (From the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, January 12, 2021):

- The priest says the prayer for blessing the ashes, then sprinkles the ashes with holy water without saying anything.
- Then he addresses all those present and only once says the formula as it appears in the Roman Missal, applying it to all in general: “Repent, and believe in the Gospel”, or “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”
- The priest then cleanses his hands, and with a face covering distributes the ashes to those (deacons and lay ministers) who will assist him with the distribution as described below.
- ALL ministers will then administer the ashes to the congregation by taking the ashes and sprinkling them on the head of each one without saying anything.
- Ministers will sanitize their hands before distribution, then (the ministers) wash the residue ashes off after the last person and then sanitize their hands again.

LENT FASTING AND ABSTINENCE from MEAT

FASTING ❖

In the dioceses in the United States, Catholics aged 18 through 59 are bound to fast on both Ash Wednesday (February 17, 2021) and Good Friday (April 2, 2021).

❖ To fast means to consume one full meal a day at most, although taking of other, smaller quantities of food at the other customary mealtimes is permitted. Food and drink between meals (excepting water and medicine) is not permitted on fast days.

ABSTINENCE from MEAT ❖

Catholics aged 14 and up are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday.

❖ To abstain means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork, or poultry at least, although eggs and milk products are acceptable. The consumption of fish and shellfish is permitted, though the penitential character of the abstinence should be kept in mind.

HOW DO WE FAST?

When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal.

Am I EXCUSED from FASTING and ABSTINENCE?

Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Stations of the Cross this year will be virtual on ZOOM every Friday at 6 PM during Lent
