Congratulations, Deacon Tim O'Callaghan, on his 10-Year Anniversary of Ordination to the Diaconate! Thank you, Deacon Tim, for your steadfast and faithful service to the Church, especially to our Community of St. Andrew.

DECREE

Updated

Dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has been extended by Bishop George Leo Thomas through

June 27, 2021

"While we recognize that many are eager to return to Mass in our churches, it remains important for those who are elderly and otherwise at risk to refrain from returning to public Liturgies until it is manifestly safe to do so. For all the faithful, especially those who are sick, at high risk of becoming sick, and their caregivers, the obligation to attend Sunday Mass is hereby dispensed."

Act of Spiritual Communion

We are a Eucharistic people, and as Catholic Christians our Eucharistic celebrations represent “the source and summit” of our life as a community. Sadly, not all of us are able to gather physically for Mass, but we want to stay connected spiritually.

Following is an Act of Spiritual Communion for you to pray as we join in “Unity” at St. Andrew's LiveStream Mass at 8 AM on our Youtube Channel.

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. As though you were already there, I embrace you and unite myself wholly to you; do not let me ever be separated from you. Amen.

Masks

Anyone who is fully vaccinated* is no longer required to wear masks on Diocesan properties. The verification of vaccinations will be based solely on the honor system.

The CDC has provided that: “In general, people are considered fully vaccinated:*

- 2 weeks after their second dose in a 2-dose series, such as the Pfizer or Moderna vaccines*
- 2 weeks after a single-dose vaccine, such as Johnson & Johnson's Janssen vaccine.”*

Out of consideration for the many people who remain medically vulnerable (including certain clergy and the elderly), the Diocesan Restoration Advisory Council encourages the continued wearing of masks. The wearing or not wearing a mask, is a personal decision that we all respect.

The Diocese is also encouraging the continuance of social distancing of three (3) feet between congregants that are not of the same household.

Special Collections

Peter's Pence Collection On Sunday June 27, 2021

This collection enables the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to requests to aid the neediest throughout the world—those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. It likewise provides the faithful with a tangible opportunity to not only empower the weak, defenseless, and voiceless, but also sustain those who suffer.

Father's Day - Sunday, June 20, 2021

If you would like to remember your living or deceased Father, Husband, Grandfather, Father-in-law, Godfather, Brother, Uncle, Son, Friend/Other as a Spiritual Gift in a Mass offered in our church in observance of Father's Day, we are now accepting your gifts and intentions before Father's Day, June 20th. You can send your request by email (standrewbc@gmail.com) or by contacting the office at 702-293-7500 during office hours. Your Father's Day Offering for this Spiritual Bouquet can be mailed to the parish office, dropped in the collection basket or your gift or offering can be given through OnLine Giving.

If you would like a Father's Day Spiritual Bouquet Card for sending to your living Father, Husband, Father-in-law, etc., please include that with your request. We will get it ready for you to either pick up in the office or leave it in the vestibule of the church on Sunday with your on it for pick up. If you prefer to send your own card to your loved one or friend, you may want to include: As a Spiritual Gift, you will be remembered in the Mass offered in our church. St. Andrew's Catholic Community, in observance of Father's Day.

Again, this year, we will list your name and intention in the Father's Day bulletin (e.g., in Honor of my father, John Doe or in Memory of my grandfather, Joe Brown).

Pope Francis'
GOSPEL REFLECTION
Mark 4: 26-34

This Gospel of Mark is composed of two very brief parables: that of the seed that sprouts and grows on its own, and that of the mustard seed (Mark 4:26-34). Through these images taken from the rural world, Jesus presents the efficacy of the Word of God and the requirements of his Kingdom, showing the reasons for our hope and our commitment in history.

In the first parable, attention is placed on the fact that the seed scattered on the ground (vs 26) takes root and develops on its own, regardless of whether the farmer sleeps or keeps watch. He is confident in the inner power of the seed itself and in the fertility of the soil. In the language of the Gospel, the seed is the symbol of the Word of God, whose fruitfulness is recalled in this parable. As the humble seed grows in the earth, so too does the Word by the power of God work in the hearts of those who listen to it. God has entrusted his Word to our earth, that is to each one of us with our concrete humanity. We can be confident because the Word of God is a creative word, destined to become the “full grain in the ear” (vs 28). This Word, if accepted, certainly bears fruit, for God Himself makes it sprout and grow in ways that we cannot always verify or understand (vs 27). All this tells us that it is always God, it is always God who makes his Kingdom grow. That is why we fervently pray “thy Kingdom come”. It is He who makes it grow. Man is his humble collaborator, who contemplates and rejoices in divine creative action and waits patiently for its fruits.

The second parable uses the image of the mustard seed. Despite being the smallest of all the seeds, it is full of life and grows until it becomes “the greatest of all shrubs” (Mk 4:32). And thus is the Kingdom of God: a humanly small and seemingly irrelevant reality. To become a part of it, one must be poor of heart; not trusting in their own abilities, but in the power of the love of God; not acting to be important in the eyes of the world, but precious in the eyes of God, who prefers the simple and the humble. When we live like this, the strength of Christ bursts through us and transforms what is small and modest into a reality that leavens the entire mass of the world and of history.

Pope Francis'

Mark 4: 35-41

When he wakes up, after calming the wind and the waters, he turns to the disciples in a reproaching voice: “Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?” (v. 40). Let us try to understand. In what does the lack of the disciples’ faith consist, as contrasted with Jesus’ trust? They had not stopped believing in him; in fact, they called on him. But we see how they call on him: “Teacher, do you not care if we perish?” (v. 38). Do you not care: they think that Jesus is not interested in them, does not care about them. One of the things that hurts us and our families most when we hear it said is: “Do you not care about me?” It is a phrase that wounds and unleashes storms in our hearts. It would have shaken Jesus too. Because he, more than anyone, cares about us. Indeed, once they have called on Him, He saves His disciples from their discouragement.

Embracing his cross means finding the courage to embrace all the hardships of the present time, abandoning for a moment our eagerness for power and possessions in order to make room for the creativity that only the Spirit is capable of inspiring. It means finding the courage to create spaces where everyone can recognize that they are called, and to allow new forms of hospitality, fraternity and solidarity. By his cross we have been saved in order to embrace hope and let it strengthen and sustain all measures and all possible avenues for helping us protect ourselves and others. Embracing the Lord in order to embrace hope: that is the strength of faith, which frees us from fear and gives us hope.

Fathers’ Day is a reminder for all of us to respect and appreciate our father figures, especially God our Father. Being a father means that you are a very important teacher to your children. They follow your lead, consider your opinions and learn from your examples to prepare them for tomorrow.
