SPIRITUAL EXCERPT

"Whenever a person becomes obsessed with success and material things, he quickly becomes restless. The proud and greedy never rest; the poor and humble in spirit rest in great peace. Anyone who is not completely free from the grip of his own vanity is easily tempted and is toppled by small, trifling things." Thomas A Kempis, THE IMITATION OF CHRIST Book 1, Chapter 6.

HOMEBOUND

If you or anyone you know is homebound – even for a short duration of time - please contact the parish office so I or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion can be scheduled to bring the Eucharist to the sick and homebound.

SCRIPTURE QUESTION

When was the New Testament, as we know it, compiled and placed under one cover? In the year 397AD, by the Council of Carthage, from which all Christians derived their New Testament from the Catholic Church; NO other source was available. Up to 397AD, some Christians only had access to part of the New Testament. In this situation, how would "Bible Only" Protestants survive.

THINK ABOUT IT

Money will buy a bed, but not sleep.
Money will buy books, but not brains.
Money will buy food, but not an appetite.
Money will buy finery, but not beauty.
Money will buy a house, but not a home.
Money will buy medicine, but not health.
Money will buy luxuries, but not culture.
Money will buy amusement, but not happiness.
Money will buy one a religion, but not salvation.

IN THE IMAGE OF GOD

Of all the visible creatures only man is "able to know and love his Creator." He is "the only creature on earth that God has willed for its own sake," and he alone is called to share, by knowledge and love, in God's own life. It was for this end that he was created, and this is the fundamental reason for his dignity. Being in the image of God, the human individual possesses the dignity of a person, who is not just something, but someone. God created everything for man, but man in turn was created to serve and love God and to offer all creation back to Him.

QUESTION?

Did Jesus have any siblings, because in several places in the Gospels different people are called his brothers and sisters? The Jewish expression "brothers and sisters" in the Scriptures merely refers to relationship in the same tribe or stock. Cousins often came under this title. In all nations the word brother has a wide significance, as one stone mason may call another a brother mason without suggesting that he was born of the same mother. According to Catholic tradition Jesus had no brothers and sisters, and Mary was ever Virgin, before and after the birth of Christ.

THINK ABOUT IT

When something happens to you, good or bad, consider what it means. There's a purpose to life's events, to teach you how to laugh more or not to cry too hard. You can't make someone love you; all you can do is be someone who can be loved. The rest is up to the person to realize your worth.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK DURING HOLY MASS

"When the afflicted man called out, the Lord heard, and from all his distress he saved him." Psalm 34:7

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is administered to Catholics whose physical, spiritual, or emotional health is seriously impaired by sickness or advanced age. Join us at OLV for the Anointing of the Sick during Holy Mass on Saturday, March 25, at 12:00 Noon in church. Please call the rectory 201-768-1706 to register or with any questions. All are invited, even if you are not going to be anointed. A light luncheon will be served afterward. Fr. Bonaventure CFR will be the main celebrant.

We're supposed to have character, not be one.

THE CARD THAT SHAMED

Over a hundred years ago a university student found himself seated in a train by the side of a person who seemed to be a well-to-do peasant. He was praying the Rosary and moving the beads in his fingers. "Sir, do you still believe in such outdated things?" asked the student to the old man. "Yes, I do. Do you not?" asked the man. The student burst out into laughter and said, "I do not believe in such silly things. Take my advice. Throw the Rosary out through this window, and learn what science has to say about it." "Science? I do not understand science. Perhaps you can explain it to me," the man said humbly with tears in his eyes. The student saw that the man was deeply moved. So to avoid further hurting the feelings of this man, he said: "Please give me your address, and I will send you some literature to help you with the matter." The man fumbled in the inside pocket of his coat and gave the boy his visiting card. On glancing at the card, the student bowed his head in shame and became silent. On the card he read: "Louis Pasteur. Director of the Institute of Scientific Research, Paris."

THE SENILITY PRAYER

Grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked anyway, the good fortune to run into the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

SAVE USED EYEGLASSES

The Knights of Columbus collects used and old eyeglasses for the less fortunate. Any old or "retired" glasses may be left in the basket in the back of Church.

Jesus asked one thing from us!!!

On His last night on earth (Holy Thursday) Jesus asked His disciples one thing – to stay awake with Him for one hour. Every Thursday evening we at OLV try to fulfill this request by having a Holy Hour from 7-8PM. Join us in carrying out Jesus' request.

Rooted

As Catholics, we are to be rooted within a parish community, where we are obligated to come and be fed on God's Word in Scripture and on Christ's Body and Blood in the Eucharist at least once a week. To join our Parish, stop by the Rectory any weekday and meet Maria, the parish secretary, and register to become a member of the OLV family.

WHAT TO DO FOR MASS

It ought to behoove us, when we are headed out the door to Mass on Sunday, to stop and take a look in the mirror, and see what is going on with our attire rather than to just roll in wearing whatever you have on, wrinkled or stained clothes and all. God's house is neither a beach resort nor a theme park.

There is importance of knowing how to dress appropriately for the occasion, for one's state in life, etc., rather than taking a devil-may-care attitude toward one's appearance.

In his chapter on fashion St. Francis concludes by writing: "For my own part I should like my devout man or woman to be the best dressed person in the company, but the least fine or splendid, and adorned, as St. Peter says, with 'the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit.' St. Louis said that the right thing is for every one to dress according to his position, so that good and sensible people should not be able to say they are over-dressed, or younger gayer ones that they are under-dressed. But if these last are not satisfied with what is modest and seemly, they must be content with the approbation of the elders."

The assembly brings gifts to the altar at Mass, in the form of bread, water, and wine, contained in beautiful vessels. However we also give our hearts as gifts, when the priest asks us to "Lift up your hearts," and we reply, "We lift them up to the Lord." While God loves that we offer the gift of our heart to Him, wouldn't it be nice if we could do so with some nice wrapping paper? Not because it makes the gift look better, but because it makes it more pleasing to Him that we took the time to do so.

BEFORE MASS

Important Things To Remember

- The Mass is Holy.
- Dress Appropriately.
- Be On Time: It can be distracting when others arrive late at Mass. If you do arrive late, be thoughtful and considerate, by sitting or standing at the back so as not to disturb the Mass.
- Turn Cell Phones Off. Taking Phones call in Church is RUDE.
- Sit Quietly: Once we have found a seat, we should sit or kneel to quietly pray, reflect or meditate. This is not a time to socialize with those who we know. If we must talk, it should be done very quietly and kept extremely brief. Respect must be shown for Christ, whose Eucharistic presence is amongst us in the tabernacle and for all our fellow parishioners.
- Stay Until Mass Is Over: Judas was the first to leave the first Mass at the Last Supper, let us not follow his footsteps. The Mass ends when the priest says, "The Mass has ended, go in peace," after which we reply, "Thanks be to God." It is proper for the congregation to remain in their pews until the completion of the recessional hymn. Respectfully waiting for the celebrant and those accompanying him to leave the Nave, is expected and only then do individuals begin to leave the pews. If an emergency or unforeseen or uncontrollable event should arise, every effort should be made to leave the Mass in a discreet manner, so as to not disrupt the Mass.
- Leaving The Church: As a matter of respect, leaving the Church does not mean the beginning of socialization and chatter. Out of reverence, we must always remember our Savior and Redeemer's true presence, only a few feet away in the tabernacle. Leaving quietly is proper to our respect and reverence. There are those who desire to remain after Mass and continue with personal prayers and as such, the proper respect should be accorded to these individuals with our quiet conduct and considerate departure from the church.

FAILURE LIST

- Albert Einstein was 4 years old before he could speak.
- Isaac Newton did poorly in grade school and was considered unpromising.
- Beethoven's music teacher once said of him, "As a composer, he is hopeless."
- When Thomas Edison was a youngster, his teacher told him he was too stupid to learn anything. He was counseled to go into a field where he might succeed by virtue of his pleasant personality.
- F. W. Woolworth got a job in a dry goods store when he was 21, but his employer would not permit him to wait on customers because he "didn't have enough sense to close a sale."
- Michael Jordan was cut from his high school basketball team. Boston Celtics Hall of Famer Bob Cousy suffered the same fate.
- Walt Disney was fired from a newspaper because he "lacked imagination and had no good ideas."
- Winston Churchill failed the sixth grade.
- Babe Ruth struck out 1,300 times-a major league record.

A person may make mistakes, but he isn't a failure until he starts to blame someone else. We must believe in ourselves, and somewhere along the road of life, we must meet someone who sees greatness in us, expects it from us, and lets us know it.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISM

First-Century Christians began making the Sign of the Cross as a reminder and renewal of what happened to them when they were baptized. It still works the same way for us. When we Sign ourselves, we are declaring that in Baptism we died sacramentally with Christ on the Cross and rose to a new life with Him (see Rom. 6:3-4 and Gal 2:20). We are asking the Lord to renew in us those baptismal graces. We are also acknowledging that Baptism joined us to the Body of Christ and equipped us for our role of collaborating with the Lord in His work of rescuing all people from sin and death.
