Fr. Wojciech's Corner -

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. Just recently I saw a Church sign that said: Mosquitos also know there is power in the blood. Even though it is a funny sign, yet how powerful. It recalls the words from St Paul: we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace.

Yes, there is a power in the Body and in the Blood of our Lord; it is so easy to enter the routine of coming week after week for Mass or even day after day and forget that power. This feast started with a doubt in the power of the Body and Blood and concluded in exaltation of that power. May this celebration not only remind us of the enormous power of the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ, but may this power transform us into Him whom we eat as St. Augustine has put it. May this Solemnity ignite in us a new love - for each Eucharist we celebrate and Holy Communion we receive - awareness of not what we receive, but WHO WE RECEIVE. Therefore, a couple of practical details, since love is in the details. Let us show this love in the way we dress for Who we receive, the time we arrive for Who we will meet. The time we spend with WHO we meet without rushing out. As Catholics we await ETERNITY with the Lord. What's the rush now then. Let us ask Mary, His Mother and our Mother, as St John Vianney once said, she could be the only one who could say: 'This is My Body'. May she teach us love for the Body and Blood of our Lord. For all who were able to participate in the Corpus Christi Procession THANK YOU.

Two great solemnities that are not holy days of obligations but ...
This Friday we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is a day of prayers for sanctifications of the priests. Even though it is not a Holy Day of Obligation - Please pray for us priests. For those who can, please join us at Mass at 8AM or 12Noon. Please see a prayer of consecration (next column) that can be used by families or individuals.
This Saturday the Church will celebrate the Solemnity of the Apostles of Peter and Paul. May these two great saints help us become great followers of our Lord.

LAST CALL for CCD REGISTRATION

Please remember CCD REGISTRATION closes at the end of JUNE.

GOING ON VACATION

Visit www.masstimes.org for the locations of Catholic Churches and a Mass schedule, throughout the USA.

When you look at the crucifix,
you understand how much Jesus loved you then.
When you look at the Sacred Host,
you understand how much Jesus loves you now. -St Teresa of Calcutta

Pray for Vocations

"If there is no priest, then there is no Holy Mass; if there is no Holy Mass, then there is no consecration of the Sacred Host; if there is not consecration of the Sacred Host then there is no Holy Communion; then if there is no Holy Communion there is no Sacramental Presence of Jesus."

Jesus Christ is very much like the light of the sun. The sun is so very bright that if we are to understand its inner beauty, we have to shoot that sunlight through a prism, and when we do, it splits up into the seven rays of the spectrum. And so Our Blessed Lord, having a life that is infinitely rich, shoots this divine light through the prism of the Church and it splits up, not into the seven rays of the spectrum, but into the seven sacraments of the Church.

—ARCHBISHOP FULTON SHEEN from Life is Worth Living

On the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus let us consecrate our families and also our priests - It is a day of prayer for sanctification of priests.

Act of Consecration to the SACRED HEART

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials, and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honoring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that can displease Thee.

I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be Thou, O Most Merciful Heart, my justification before God Thy Father, and screen me from His anger which I have so justly merited. I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O Heart of Love, I hope all from Thine infinite Goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint Thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee.

I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite Goodness, grant that my name be engraved upon Thy Heart, for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants. Amen.

Tolerance is Not a Christian Virtue ...

Render to God the Things that are God's by Archbishop Charles Chaput, OFM CAP

Real freedom demands an ability to think, and a great deal of modern life - not just in the United States, but all over the developed world - seems deliberately designed to discourage that... The most important fact to remember is this: As adults, each of us needs to form a strong and genuinely Catholic conscience... That's why really knowing, living and submitting ourselves to our Catholic faith are so important. It's the only reliable guide we have for acting in the public square as disciples of Jesus Christ.

We need to remember that tolerance is not a Christian virtue. Charity, justice, mercy, prudence, honesty - these are Christian virtues. And obviously, in a diverse community, tolerance is an important working principle. But it's never an end itself. In fact, tolerating grave evil within a society is itself a form of serious evil.

Likewise, democratic pluralism does not mean that Catholics should be quiet in public about serious moral issues because of some misguided sense of good manners. A healthy democracy requires vigorous moral debate to survive. Real pluralism demands that people of strong beliefs will advance their convictions in the public square - peacefully, legally and respectfully, but energetically and without embarrassment. Anything less is bad citizenship and a form of theft from the public conversation.

The "separation of Church and state" does not mean - and it can never mean - separating our Catholic faith from our public witness, our political choices and our political actions. That kind of separation would require Christians to deny who we are; to repudiate Jesus when He commands us to be "leaven in the world" and to "make disciples of all nations." That kind of radical separation steals the moral content of a society.

We serve Caesar best by serving God first. We honor our nation best by living our Catholic faith honestly and vigorously, and bringing it without apology into the public square and its debates. We're citizens of heaven first. But just as God so loved the world that he sent his only son, so the glory and irony of the Christian life is this: The more faithfully we love God, the more truly we serve the world.

Question?

What happened to the Apostles after Pentecost?

The fate of Jesus' Apostles is as follows:

St. Matthew was slain with a sword in Ethiopia.

St. Mark expired in Alexandria, after being cruelly dragged through that city.

St. Peter was crucified upside down in Rome.

St. James the Greater was beheaded in Jerusalem.

St. James the Lesser was thrown from a tower and beaten to death with clubs.

St. Philip was hung on a pillar at the Heiropolis in Phrygia.

St. Bartholomew was flayed alive.

St. Andrew was bound to a cross until he died.

St. Thomas was run through with a lance at Coromandel in the East Indies.

St. Jude Thaddeus was shot to death with arrows.

St. Matthias (who replaced Judas) was first stoned and then beheaded.

St. Barnabas was stoned to death by the Jews at Solonica. Judas Iscariot committed suicide.

St. Paul was beheaded in Rome by Emperor Nero.

St. John was put into a caldron of boiling oil, but miraculously escaped death. He was banished to the island of Patmos where he died of natural causes.

REGISTER FOR OLV PARISH

All Roman Catholics living within the boundaries of Our Lady of Victories Church should officially register; If you did NOT receive an Easter mailing you are probably NOT registered! Obtain a registration form from the priest after Mass or phone Maria at the Rectory. We strongly encourage you to register, even if you do not plan to use envelopes, so we can include you on or mailing list. Only registered members of the parish, who fulfill all other canonical [Church Law] requirements can obtain a Sponsor [Godparent] Certificate, letter of recommendation or other documentation.

Did you know?

... that an eagle knows when a storm is approaching long before it breaks?

The eagle will fly to some high spot and wait for the winds to come. When the storm hits, it sets its wings so that the wind will pick it up and lift it above the storm. While the storm rages below, the eagle is soaring above it.

The eagle does not escape the storm. It simply uses the storm to lift it higher. It rises on the winds that bring the storm.

When the storms of life come upon us, like the eagle, we can rise above them and ride the winds of the storm that bring sickness, tragedy, failure, and disappointment into our lives.

What is your greatest challenge right now? Jot it down. And then let it lift you higher. — Author Unknown

Oh Divine Pilot! whose hand guides me,
I'm soon to see you on the eternal shore.
Guide my little boat over the stormy waves in peace,
just for today.

First Communion Outfits - Thank You!

Thanks to your continued caring and generosity, we were again able to dress about 50 children with the beautiful dresses, suits, jackets, shirts, headpieces, shoes, and monies that were donated to make their day one to cherish. Outfits were first distributed to needy children in the local area, then to St. Rose of Lima Parish and New Community in Newark, to the Sacred Heart Cathedral in Newark, and to Oasis, a haven for women and children in Paterson. You have made a difference in the lives of so many children. May God bless you!

Prayer is not a "spare wheel" that you pull out when in trouble; it is a "steering wheel" that directs us in the right path throughout life.

Prayer for the Safety of Soldiers

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in You will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of Your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of Your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise You for Your loving care. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

PRAY FOR OUR SICK: Please PRAY in the name of JESUS, the Healer, that the SICK of OLV PARISH may be restored to health and all those who AS-SIST and CARE for the sick will be given the STRENGTH to continue GOD'S GOOD WILL: baby Cordelia, Kelly Bauerlein, Richard Bolton, Sal Cenicola, Helen Choma, Bob Cole, Anthony Cortez, Marie D'Ascenzo, Lorraine Degerdon, Vincent DePaola, Marge Devitt, Carl Falasca, Jay Filippone, Marie Filippone, Mary Foley, Tom Giuliano, John Pal, Joyanna Peros, John Peterson, John Peterson Jr., Marie Piazza, Veronica Romanchuk, Mike Tobia, Jeremy Unanue, Brian, Carla, Chris, Dierdre, Edward, Elba, Jennifer, Joann, Lisa, Liz, Lucas, Lynn, Michael, Patrick, Paul, Peter, Robert, Sean.

THE BEAUTIFUL HANDS OF A PRIEST

We need them in life's early morning, we need them again at its close;
We feel their warm clasp of friendship, we seek them when tasting life's woes.
At the altar each day we behold them, and the hands of a king on his throne
Are not equal to them in their greatness; their dignity stands all alone;
And when we are tempted and wander to pathways of shame and sin,
It's the hand of a priest that will absolve us----not once, but again and again;
And when we are taking life's partner, other hands may prepare us a feast,
But the hand that will bless and unite us is the beautiful hand of a priest.
God bless them and keep them all holy
For the Host which their fingers caress;
When can a poor sinner do better than to ask Him to guide thee and bless?
When the hour of death comes upon us may our courage and strength be increased.
By seeing raised over us in anointing the beautiful hands of a priest!

He calls himself Father

Human fatherhood can give us an inkling of what God is; but where fatherhood no longer exists, where genuine fatherhood is no longer experienced as a phenomenon that goes beyond the biological dimension to embrace a human and intellectual sphere as well, it becomes meaningless to speak of God the Father ... Where fatherhood is perceived only as a biological accident on which no genuinely human claims may be based, or the father is seen as a tyrant whose yoke must be thrown off, something in the basic structure of human existence has been damaged. If human existence is to be complete, we need a father, in the true meaning of fatherhood... namely, a responsibility for one's child that does not dominate him but permits him to become his own self ... Responsibility for one's child means the desire that he realize his own innermost truth, which lies in his Creator. And naturally, a fatherhood of this kind is possible only if one accepts one's own status as a child ... If men are to be fathers in the correct way, they must assent in their heart to the words of Jesus: "You have only one Father, who is heaven" (Mt 23,9) ... Here, of course, another point is important: the fact that the primary biblical image of God is the "Father" also means that the mystery of motherhood, too, has its origin in him... Man is not God's "image" (Gn 1,27) as an abstraction, for that would lead in turn only to an abstract God. He is God's image in his concrete reality, which is relationship.

DOUBTS, PILGRIMAGE, WAITING etc-ORIGINS of Corpus Cristi

In 1263, a German priest named Peter of Prague was on a pilgrimage to Rome to pray on the tombs of saints to help his doubts about the Eucharist. Lately he had been having doubts about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Was the bread and wine really transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus?

On the way back when nothing changed he stopped in Bolsena, Italy, a town about 70 miles north of Rome. He said Mass at the Church of St. Christina. As Peter raised the Host and consecrated it blood started flowing out of it, onto his hands and the altar. God was telling him (and us) that yes, He is truly present in the host.

Peter was confused and tried to hide the blood. Then he excused himself from finishing the Mass and went to the nearby city of Orvieto, where Pope Urban IV was staying. He explained everything to the pope, who ordered the host and blood-stained altar cloth brought to the cathedral at Orvieto, where they are still enshrined today.

It is said that this miracle prompted Pope Urban to have St. Thomas Aquinas write prayers for a Mass celebrating the Most Holy Body of the Lord, the Feast of Corpus Christi. One year after the miracle, in August of 1264, Pope Urban IV introduced the saint's composition, and by means of a papal bull instituted the feast of Corpus Christi.

St. Faustina's Little-Known Litany to the Blessed Host of the Eucharist

—ChurchPOP Editor - April 21, 2017

You've probably heard of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, which was given to St. Faustina by Christ. But have you heard of her beautiful Litany to the Blessed Host? St. Faustina was one of the great mystics of the 20th century, and she recorded her amazing regular supernatural experiences in her diary. In a passage dated January 4, 1935, she explains the holy way she spent the final hours of 1934: in intense prayer before Christ in the Eucharist. (Diary, 352ff) Then, as the clock struck midnight, she broke out into a litany of praise to Jesus in the Eucharist! The full text of her amazing prayer is below.

After recording the prayer in her diary, she finished the entry for that date with this thought: "I do not understand how it is possible not to trust in Him who can do all things. With Him, everything; without Him, nothing. He is Lord. He will not allow those who have placed all their trust in Him to be put to shame."

Here's St. Faustina's Litany to the Blessed Host:

- O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the testament of God's mercy for us, and especially for poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus as proof of infinite mercy for us, and especially for poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained life eternal and of infinite mercy, dispensed in abundance to us and especially to poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the mercy of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit toward us, and especially toward poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the infinite price of mercy which will compensate for all our debts, and especially those of poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the fountain of living water which springs from infinite mercy for us, and especially for poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the fire of purest love which blazes forth from the bosom of the Eternal Father, as from an abyss of infinite mercy for us, and especially for poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the medicine for all our infirmities, flowing from infinite mercy, as from a fount, for us and especially for poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom is contained the union between God and us through His infinite mercy for us, and especially for poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, in whom are contained all the sentiments of the most sweet Heart of Jesus toward us, and especially poor sinners.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in all the sufferings and adversities of life.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the midst of darkness and of storms within and without.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in life and at the hour of our death.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the midst of adversities and floods of despair.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the midst of falsehood and treason.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the midst of the darkness and godlessness which inundate the earth.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the longing and pain in which no one will understand us.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the toil and monotony of everyday life.
O Blessed Host, our only hope amid the ruin of our hopes and endeavors.
O Blessed Host, our only hope in the midst of the ravages of the enemy and the efforts of hell.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when the burdens are beyond my strength and I find my efforts are fruitless.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when storms toss my heart about and my fearful spirit tends to despair.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when my heart is about to tremble and mortal sweat moistens my brow.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when everything conspires against me and black despair creeps into my soul.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when my eyes will begin to grow dim to all temporal things and, for the first time, my spirit will behold the unknown worlds.

St. Faustina's Litany to the Blessed Host of the Eucharist (cont'd)

- O Blessed Host, I trust in You when my tasks will be beyond my strength and adversity will become my daily lot.
O Blessed Host I trust in You when the practice of virtue will appear difficult for me and my nature will grow rebellious.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when hostile blows will be aimed against me.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when my toils and efforts will be misjudged by others.
O Blessed Host, I trust in You when Your judgments will resound over me; it is then that I will trust in the sea of Your mercy.
+Most Holy Trinity, I trust in Your infinite mercy. God is my Father and so I, His child, have every claim to His divine Heart; and the greater the darkness, the more complete our trust should be. Amen!

Michael Los, a young priest with terminal cancer at a military hospital in Warsaw, Poland. Warsaw, Poland, May 28, 2019 / 06:44 pm (CNA). - May is ordination month in many dioceses, but the ordination of Fr. Michael Los, FDP, a member of the Orionine Fathers, was far from your typical ordination.

On May 24, Los was ordained a priest in his Warsaw hospital bed. Los was diagnosed with cancer a month ago, and is now in critical condition. Pope Francis granted a dispensation allowing him to be ordained both a deacon and a priest in the same Mass, and Los was ordained by Bishop Marek Solarczyk of the Diocese of Warsaw-Praga.

The day before his ordination, Los made perpetual vows in his religious community. Photos of that were shared on Facebook by Biloxi Vocations, along with a video of his ordination. Permission was granted to the director general of the congregation, Fr. Tarcisio Vieira, to whom Pope Francis sent a letter. Also present at the ceremony were the vicar general of the Orionine Fathers, Fr. Oreste Ferrari, the counselor general, Fr. Fernando Fornerod, and the Orionine Province of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Fr. Krzysztof Mis. Los' parents and sister also came, along with other Polish members of the congregation.

"The ceremony took place in an atmosphere of great and profound spirituality. After the initial prayer, the litany for the intercession of the saints followed for the life of Michael and for his congregation," said Fr. Fornerod in a Facebook post about the event.

The day after his ordination, Los celebrated his first Mass from his bed. On May 25 with a video posted on Facebook, Los, thanked Catholics who prayed for him, asking for more prayers and offering a blessing with the sign of the Cross. "Praised be Jesus Christ, thanks for all your prayers and I hope you continue praying, I bless all of you in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit," the young priest said on the video. To the right is a photo of his first Mass. After a great battle Fr. Michael has passed to the Father. RIP.
