Fr. Wojciech's Corner

To ALL who participated in our Christmas Giving Tree project-THANK YOU for your generosity and EXTRA MILE! May God reward you!

We are now in the second half of Advent. On Tuesday the Church starts a novena that directly connects us with Christmas. As we prepare gifts, clean our homes, provide food, tickets in case we travel - what about our SOUL where Christ will want to reside? He will not reside in our kitchen, nor under the Christmas tree, however beautiful it might be, but HE WANTS an INN IN our soul.

Good preparation-MEANS-Good celebration.

Therefore, I URGE all of us to take advantage of this week in a special way to prepare our SOULS for HIM. Please welcome with me the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal. They will lead "Repair my House Invitation"-Mission with opportunity for confessions. Let us welcome their message by our attendance. It will be a great way to rehearse our welcoming of guests-strangers. If we are able to welcome them, then we are ready to welcome THE GUEST: JESUS this Christmas. Please see the schedule on page 3 and choose the time that is best for you.

This Tuesday Deacon Al will help us with a special time to STOP! with Silent Night, Holy Night!; No, he will not sing carols. We need so much silence today, to think WHO we are waiting for. In all preparations there is a moment in which either a cook, cleaner, builder, stops for a moment to see if everything is ready, that is the moment of this special stop. It is to give of our time, not to God, but really to ourselves, time with God. Tuesday 6-9PM. Please see the info for Silent Night Holy Night.

If you have not done so, please see the schedule of Confessions - one good confession can make of us saints. It would be unthinkable that we wait for Christ and then be like people in Bethlehem's inns not wanting Him in.

Home for Christmas is the last project this year in which our parish will participate - starting this week. Our CCD students and their families gladly collaborated already in Box of Joy project of Cross Catholic Outreach, a great and trustworthy organization. As Joseph and Mary were looking for a home to bring Jesus to this world, OLV Family wants to materially provide a real, material home to a family, poor like Joseph and Mary, in Haiti. The total cost of a home is $6,981. Knowing the generosity of our parishioners, I know it can be done. We want to provide one home for one family. Many times, people ask some concrete ways to donate. That's it. Please see the flyer in the bulletin or the poster in the atrium re. how concretely the project works. It's a great idea for a Christmas GIFT. Yes, it is a big gift. Please take an envelope, include your donation and return in a collection or to the rectory.

Today is Gaudete Sunday. We started last year the tradition of blessing Bambinelli - the baby Jesus that will be in our home manglers. Today we continue the tradition at the 10:45 Family Mass.

Lastly, heads up, next weekend, for those who still did not buy yet or did not buy enough, Bethlehem crafts (see page 3).

Good preparations to all!

In the active life all the vices are first of all to be removed by the practice of good works, so that in the contemplative life a man may, with now purified mental gaze, pass on to the contemplation of the Divine Light. - St. Isidore of Seville

CONFESSION'S POWER

Charles de Faucauld (now already Blessed) came into the confessional and said through the confessional screen: Father, I do not have faith, please give me some advice. He heard from the other side a voice: Please kneel, confess your sins to God and you will believe. But I did not come for that, responded Charles. Please, confess, insisted firmly the priest. Charles knelt and allowed his heart to speak ...

Silent Night, Holy Night

Silent Night, Holy Night will be held at OLV this Tuesday, December 17, from 6:00PM to 9:00PM. During the season of Advent we ask everyone, young and not so young, to stop for 10 minutes from all the hustle and bustle of the Christmas season, and visit Jesus in His Church. The gift of time is so precious, but sometimes, especially around Christmas, we are so busy with last minute preparations that we forget about preparing our hearts and souls for the holy celebration of Christmas. As a family, what greater example can we give to our children than to come to God's house and in the silence of the night offer our prayers to Emmanuel — God with us. Please make the effort to come and allow the music of the season to prepare you for the Feast of Christmas.

John the BEST MAN for our WEDDING

John was what we would today describe as the "best man" at the wedding, not the bridegroom. In the 1st Century the role of the "best man" was a little more involved. He was known as the "shoshben." The shoshben had a prominent place in a Jewish wedding. He was the liaison between the bride and the bridegroom. He was instrumental in the arranging of the wedding and inviting people to the wedding. He brought the bride and the bridegroom together and guarded the bridal chamber making sure no others came in. And once his jobs were done, he willingly and graciously faded from the picture. He had a prominent place, but he was not center stage. John the Baptist sees himself as in this role.

"Maybe Christmas.....

.....means a little bit more?"

"And the Grinch, with his Grinch-feet ice-cold in the snow Stood puzzling and puzzling, 'How could it be so?"

'It came without ribbons! It came without tags!

'It came without packages, boxes or bags!' And he puzzled three hours, 'till his puzzler was sore.

Then the Grinch thought of something he hadn't before!

'Maybe Christmas,' he thought, 'doesn't come from a store.
'Maybe Christmas ... perhaps ... means a little bit more!'"

Give yourself a CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Lord, Jesus, every Christmas, I need a quiet moment, just one silent moment. A moment outside of time, a moment without bells. Without carols or cards. A moment away from worrying about presents and parties. Just ONE quiet moment, either in Church or when all have gone to bed. A moment when I can be still and picture myself, one by one, as a shepherd, wise man, Scrooge, inn keeper, Little Drummer Boy, as George Bailey discovering "It's a Wonderful Life," a moment when I can experience You with me as the Christmas Present.

SUPPORT THOSE WHO SUPPORT US

PRO LIFE CORNER

ARE YOU AWARE THAT ROE V WADE IS BASED ON A LIE?

Twenty-one-year-old Norma McCorvey, also known as Jane Roe in the prominent court case, was unmarried and pregnant with her third child. Seeking an abortion, she was introduced to two young attorneys, Sarah Weddington and Linda Coffey. Looking to challenge the abortion laws in Texas, the young lawyers decided to use McCorvey to facilitate their scheme. Adopting the falsehood that McCorvey's pregnancy was due to a gang rape, Weddington and Coffey built their case on lies that would eventually claim the lives of untold numbers of unborn, not just in Texas, but nationwide. McCorvey grew to regret her actions, as she began to understand the truth about abortion. Next week we will share her testimony.

OLV's Right to LIFE Committee is also supporting and promoting the 2020 March for Life in Washington DC on January 24th. We would like to see a group from OLV be there! More information to follow.

Christmas Greens

Holly and Mistletoe or other Evergreens have been used to decorate for thousands of years in many cultures. Evergreens are symbols of enduring life since they stay "alive" all winter when most plants wither and die. Some believed evergreens had magical power due to their constant greenness. Homes were decorated with evergreens in the hope of enticing the spirits of the woods inside to bring good luck in the coming year. They were twisted into a circle, symbol of eternity, and suspended from ceilings after being attached to wagon wheels, brought inside to protect them from the winter elements. Candles were often added to give light to the room – and presto: Advent wreaths were born! Some consider holly "masculine" since it uses its thorns to protect itself, as men use weapons to protect themselves; ivy is "feminine" since it entwines or embraces whatever it is near. Since mistletoe was thought to bring good luck and fertility, the Scandinavians began the custom of "kissing under the mistletoe." In Norse mythology, an evil spirit formed an arrow from mistletoe and killed Baldur, the god of innocence, beauty, joy, purity, and peace. As his mother wept, her tears became the white berries of the mistletoe – and his life was restored! In thanks, his mother, Frigga, the goddess of love and beauty, is said to kiss anyone who passes under mistletoe. Even enemies would call a truce when they met underneath it.

THE BEGGAR'S RAGS

A beggar lived near the king's palace. One day he saw a proclamation posted outside the palace gate. The king was giving a great dinner. Anyone dressed in royal garments was invited to the party. The beggar went on his way. He looked at the rags he was wearing and sighed. Surely only kings and their families wore royal robes, he thought. Slowly an idea crept into his mind. The audacity of it made him tremble. Would he dare? He made his way back to the palace. He approached the guard at the gate. "Please, sire, I would like to speak to the king." "Wait here," the guard replied. In a few minutes, he was back. "His majesty will see you," he said, and led the beggar in. "You wish to see me?" asked the king. "Yes, your majesty. I want so much to attend the banquet, but I have no royal robes to wear. Please, sir, if I may be so bold, may I have one of your old garments so that I, too, may come to the banquet?" The beggar shook so hard that he could not see the faint smile that was on the king's face. "You have been wise in coming to me," the king said. He called to his son, the young prince. "Take this man to your room and array him in some of your clothes." The prince did as he was told and soon the beggar was standing before a mirror, clothed in garments that he had never dared hope for. "You are now eligible to attend the king's banquet tomorrow night," said the prince. "But even more important, you will never need any other clothes. These garments will last forever." The beggar dropped to his knees. "Oh, thank you," he cried. But as he started to leave, he looked back at his pile of dirty rags on the floor. He hesitated. What if the prince was wrong? What if he would need his old clothes again. Quickly he gathered them up. The banquet was far greater than he had ever imagined, but he could not enjoy himself as he should. He had made a small bundle of his old rags and it kept falling off his lap. The food was passed quickly and the beggar missed some of the greatest delicacies. Time proved that the prince was right. The clothes lasted forever. Still the poor beggar grew fonder and fonder of his old rags. As time passed people seemed to forget the royal robes he was wearing. They saw only the little bundle of filthy rags that he clung to wherever he went. They even spoke of him as the old man with the rags. One day as he lay dying, the king visited him. The beggar saw the sad look on the king's face when he looked at the small bundle of rags by the bed. Suddenly the beggar remembered the prince's words, and he realized that his bundle of rags had cost him a lifetime of true royalty. He wept bitterly at his folly. And the king wept with him.

GAUDETE SUNDAY

Today is Gaudete Sunday – Rejoicing Sunday -"rejoice"- because the Entrance Antiphon of Holy Mass takes up St Paul's words in the Letter to the Philippians where it says: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, Rejoice". Today we light the rose candle on the Advent Wreath as we rejoice in the Lord's coming.

Bambinelli Sunday

"Bambinelli", plural for the word "bambinello", refers to the "Baby Jesus" in a Nativity scene. The Bambinelli Blessing is a thirty year old tradition that was started in Rome at the Vatican. Today every family brings their "Baby Jesus" from their Nativity Scene to receive a blessing from the Pope at the Angelus.

The Bambinelli Blessing at OLV's 10:45AM Mass today will incite us to experience God's true joy and love that comes to us from the infant Jesus. Come and rejoice in God's love for you in this new Advent celebration with your parish family.

why ROSE today?

The season of Advent originated as a fast of forty days in preparation for Christmas, commencing on the day after the feast of St. Martin (November 12).

St. Gregory the Great was the first to draw up an Office for the Advent season, and the Gregorian Sacramentary is the earliest to provide Masses for the Sundays of Advent. In both Office and Mass, provision is made for five Sundays, but by the tenth century four was the usual number, though some churches of France observed five as late as the thirteenth century.

Notwithstanding all these modifications, however, Advent still preserved most of the characteristics of a penitential season which made it a kind of counterpart to Lent, the middle (or third) Sunday corresponding with Laetare or Mid-Lent Sunday. On it, as on Laetare Sunday, the organ and flowers, forbidden during the rest of the season, were permitted to be used; rose-colored vestments were allowed instead of purple (or black, as formerly). Gaudete Sunday, therefore, makes a breaker like Laetare Sunday, about midway through a season which is otherwise of a penitential character, and signifies the nearness of the Lord's

A farmer whose crops were more plentiful than those of his neighbors, on being asked how this happened with such unvarying regularity, said he was not surprised because He Always Had The Kind of Weather He Wanted.

He was asked to explain. He said: "It is so because I want whatever kind of weather God wants, and because I do, He gives me the harvests I want." If souls resigned to God's will are humiliated, says Salvian, they want to be humiliated; if they are poor, they want to be poor; in short, whatever happens is acceptable to them, hence they are truly at peace in this life. In cold and heat, in rain and wind, the soul united to God says: "I want it to be warm, to be cold, windy, to rain, because God wills it."

THE "O ANTIPHONS" OF ADVENT

The Roman Church has been singing the "O" Antiphons since at least the eighth century. They are the antiphons that accompany the Magnificat canticle of Evening Prayer from December 17-23. Since the Second Vatican Council, they have also been adapted (slightly reworded and rearranged) for the "Alleluia Verse" of the Mass (the short scriptural text or paraphrase that immediately precedes the Gospel reading). Each Antiphon invokes the coming of the Messiah, beginning with a biblical title and closing with a specific petition. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. Their repeated use of the imperative "Come!" embodies the longing of all for the Divine Messiah.

CLOWN'S Gift for Christmas

There is an old story about a weary, way-worn juggler who performs his very last act before a statue of the Virgin Mother and Child in a dark church on Christmas Eve. This playful gift of flying colored balls was a gift of delight offered to the Monarchs of Heaven, and one blessed by a miracle when the image of the Child catches the last falling ball even as the clown falls to the floor in death - his soul in the hand of God.
