MOTHERS

The most important person on earth is a mother.

She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not.

She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral ... a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby's body.

Mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other creature. God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation.

What on God's good earth is more glorious than this:

to be a mother!

Happy Mothers Day to Our Lady and to All our Mothers!

Today we celebrate Mothers Day and crown Mary in our Church and in our homes as Our Lady and Mother. May all our mothers find in Her the strength, consolation and model. Last year, many families took so many beautiful initiatives to show their love for Mary. I encourage each family of our parish to make this month special for Mary in their homes. May your home become Her home. Mothers Day - it's a perfect day to also consecrate your entire family to Our Lady and to Her protection. Pope Francis launched a month-long, global recitation of the rosary, pleading for Mary's intercession for the end of the pandemic.

This coming Thursday and Friday Bishop Marconi will confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on our 34 candidates. Let us pray for them, that the Holy Spirit may transform them and make them the witnesses of Christ's Resurrection in their lives.

HEADS UP - May 25th, Fr. Bryan Adamcik and Fr. Chris Ciccarino will celebrate their 25th Anniversary of Priestly Ordination. Both priests will preside a Solemn Anniversary Mass in our Church on May 30th at 10:45AM. That Mass will be also live streamed.

FOR ALL MOTHERS - Special MOTHERS DAY quotes:

"A man never sees all that his mother has been to him until it's too late to let her know he sees it" - William Dean Howells

"A mother is she who can take the place of all others but whose place no one else can take." - Cardinal Mermillod

To all whose Mothers have passed

"There is no death, daughter. People die only when we forget them," my mother explained shortly before she left me. "If you can remember me, I will be with you always." - Isabel Allende

"The highest tribute to the dead is not grief but gratitude."
- Thornton Wilder

Class.

The Queen of this Land

Jaime Cardinal Sin, Primate of the Philippines, spoke at Stonehill College in North Easton, Massachusetts, to graduating Seniors on May 18, 1986. His Eminence said of a scene he witnessed on February 23, 1986: "We knew that Marcos had sent out his troops, and that the only way to stop that dictator was to encourage the people to go to EDSA and pray to Our Lady."

Cardinal Sin said "Through all the available media sources, I, along with many other religious and media individuals, pleaded with the people to "Go to EDSA!" Shortly after the EDSA event, Rosalie was in the Philippines, and she spoke to Mr. Alex Reyes, the President of the local Blue Army, and a restaurant owner. At the time of the plea, he asked his family, "Who will go with me to die for God?" Several of his grandchildren joined him in his mission, fully expecting to be run over by the tanks ... and die. And, they went!

Without any other weapons, several hundred people were praying the Rosary - everyone in deep and earnest prayer, with beads in their hands and candles flickering beside them.

On the front lines of EDSA stood Brother Joseph Rona with the statue of Our Lady that he had received from Rosalie, John, and the Blue Army, some two years before. Because the people had seen miracles with this statue, they asked Our Lady to intercede for them again, since their only alternatives now were Her help, or death. Facing them were hundreds of combat-ready marines whom this assembly of prayer had stopped; and, behind the soldiers (ready to climb up the little hill), the tanks, trucks, there stood two battalions about to launch an attack!

Then a very amazing thing happened. The troops stopped, the tanks were halted, not by any force of weapons, nor even by the force of bodies bound together in a human barricade. In the United Press International, Cardinal Sin reported that the government troops held their fire and did not attack the crowds blocking their way to Camp Crame, "because," as the soldiers told him, "a very beautiful Lady appeared," saying to them, "Dear soldiers, stop! Don't attack my people. I am the Queen of this land." The troops dispersed!

Cardinal Sin said, "I have not said this publicly before, and I hesitate to say it here, but I firmly believed, in my heart of hearts, that if the people prayed there, there would indeed be a miracle, and that our deliverance would come in peace from the Lord, through His Mother's hands.

"That is why I had to encourage them to go there. I felt that their confidence in Our Lady was necessary to save the day. Their lives were at stake, but we all trusted in God's power and Our Lady's love."

Every Wednesday in May after the 8AM and 12Noon Masses, we will make a special tribute to Our Lady before her image outside reciting the Holy Rosary. Let us witness to all passers-by that it is HER month and that we are HER's.

*As the mother knows the needs better than the babe,
So the Blessed Mother understands our cries and worries and knows them better than we know ourselves.*

-Ven Fulton Sheen

Mary is the NECK!!!

Do you remember that scene in the film My Big Fat Greek Wedding in which the Greek mothers teach the Greek girl that the Greek father is the "head" of household, but that the mother is the "neck"?

They may have been Greeks, but they were reading from a Roman script – because a similar thing was said by Pope Saint Pius X in his encyclical Ad diem illum of 1904, # 13 (and also by Saint Bernard of Sienna before him). According to Saint Pius X, the source is Jesus Christ "of whose fullness we have all received" (John i.,16), the Blessed Virgin Mary is the "neck" that connects Christ the Head to the Church as His Body.

But Mary as St. Bernard fittingly remarks is the 'channel' or, even, the neck, through which the body is joined to the head, and likewise through which the head exerts its power and strength on the body. For she is the neck of our Head, by which all spiritual gifts are communicated to His Mystical Body.

Honoring the Bedridden Mothers

St. Anna Schäffer (1882-1925)

Growing up in Bavaria, Anna desired to enter a missionary order, but after her father's untimely death she had to work to support her family. In February 1901, while working in a laundry, she slipped and fell into a vat of boiling lye, suffering severe burns. The next months were ones of excruciating pain. Anna survived gangrene, only to undergo thirty unsuccessful surgeries for skin grafts. Finally the word came that she would be bedridden for the rest of her life. At first Anna struggled against this diagnosis. Yet, through prayer and frequent Communion, she began to embrace a new path. "Her sickbed became her cloister cell and her suffering a missionary service," Pope Benedict XVI would say at her canonization. Anna devoted her days to writing letters of consolation and creating needlework for local churches. "I have three keys to heaven," she said. "The biggest is made out of pig iron and is heavy - it is my suffering. The second is the sewing needle, and the third is the penholder. With these different keys, I strive each day to open the door to heaven."

As her prayer life deepened, so did Anna's joyful confidence in God's plan. Paralysis set in, and then colon cancer. A fall from her bed caused a neurological injury that robbed her of her voice. Yet on her deathbed she made one last prayer: "Jesus, I love you." Her feast day is October 5th.

PROVERBS ABOUT MOTHERS

God could not be everywhere, and therefore He made mothers. - A Jewish Proverb

There is only one pretty child in the world, and every mother has it. - Chinese Proverb

A man loves his sweetheart the most, his wife the best, but his mother the longest. - Irish Proverb

"Never be afraid of loving Blessed Virgin Mary too much. You can never love her more than Jesus did."
-St. Maximilian Kolbe

THEOTOKOS - Mary: Mother of God

A woman is a man's mother either if she carried him in her womb or if she was the woman contributing half of his genetic matter or both. Mary was the mother of Jesus in both of these senses; because she not only carried Jesus in her womb but also supplied all of the genetic matter for his human body, since it was through her - not Joseph - that Jesus "was descended from David according to the flesh" (Rom. 1:3).

Since Mary is Jesus' mother, it must be concluded that she is also the Mother of God: If Mary is the mother of Jesus, and if Jesus is God, then Mary is the Mother of God. There is no way out of this logical syllogism, the valid form of which has been recognized by classical logicians since before the time of Christ.

Although Mary is the Mother of God, she is not his mother in the sense that she is older than God or the source of her Son's divinity, for she is neither. Rather, we say that she is the Mother of God in the sense that she carried in her womb a divine person - Jesus Christ, God "in the flesh" (2 John 7, cf. John 1:14) - and in the sense that she contributed the genetic matter to the human form God took in Jesus Christ.

Some assert that Mary did not carry God in her womb, but only carried Christ's human nature. This assertion reinvents a heresy from the fifth century known as Nestorianism, which runs aground on the fact that a mother does not merely carry the human nature of her child in her womb. Rather, she carries the person of her child. Women do not give birth to human natures; they give birth to persons. Mary thus carried and gave birth to the person of Jesus Christ, and the person she gave birth to was God.

Mother of the Eucharist

St. Peter Julian Eymard, that Saint so totally devoted to the Eucharist, declared that even in this world, after Jesus' Ascension into Heaven, the Blessed Virgin "lived a life in and by the Blessed Sacrament," and thus he liked to call her "Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament."

St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina would sometimes say to his spiritual children, "Do you not see the Madonna always beside the tabernacle?" And how could she fail to be there --- she who "stood by the Cross of Jesus" on Calvary (John 19:25)?

Therefore St. Alphonsus Liguori, in his book of devotions, used to always join a visit to the Blessed Virgin Mary to each visit to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

St. Maximilian M. Kolbe used to recommend that when we go before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, we never fail to remember Mary's presence, calling on her and associating ourselves with her, at least seeing to it that her sweet name comes to mind.

The reply St. Bernadette Soubirous gave was very beautiful, when someone put this tricky question to her: "What would please you more, to receive Holy Communion, or to see the Madonna in the grotto?" The little Saint thought for a minute and then answered, "What a strange question! The two cannot be separated. Jesus and Mary always go together."

NEED BAPTISM, FIRST COMMUNION OR CONFIRMATION

CONVALIDATION

Best way to start your married life is with God. In Sacramental Marriage God's own divine life can be experienced and lived. Were you married only civilly by a mayor or justice of the peace and would now like to be married in the Catholic Church? Call Fr. Wojciech for details.

REQUIREMENTS for GODPARENTS

Godparents play a very important role in your child's spiritual life as role models of the faith. They should support not only the child, but the parents as well. Additionally, in their role as godparent, they represent the larger Church community and this is a tremendous responsibility. The Church has provided guidelines to help parents choose the best possible godparents for their children. In recognizing the importance of the godparent and their duties:

Godparent/Sponsor must be at least 16 years old.

Godparent/Sponsor must be in good standing with the Catholic Church. Must be a practicing Catholic (attend Sunday Mass weekly). Must have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, and Confirmation. If married, must be married in the Catholic Church. If single, not living with significant other, nor married civilly only.

Godparent/Sponsor cannot be the candidate's parent. Each child only requires one Godparent. If you wish to have 2 Godparents there must be one female and one male. (Canon Law 872-874)

CONFESSION/RECONCILIATION

Our Lord told St. Margaret Mary Alacoque that individuals should go to confession at a minimum once a month. This sacrament is offered every weekday at 7:30AM-7:50AM, as well as First Friday at 6PM, and Saturdays from 11AM to Noon and 3-3:40PM. A Priest is also available to hear Confessions daily by appointment.

Now turn off that light and get to bed! HUMPTY DUMPTY'S MOTHER: Humpty, If I've told you once, I've told you a hundred times not to sit on that wall. But would you listen to me? No!

Mother who believed in THE WEIGHT OF THE HOLY MASS

(From the Catholic Society of Evangelists Newsletter, August, 1999)

The following TRUE STORY was related to Sr. M. Veronica Murphy by an elderly nun who heard it from the lips of the late Reverend Father Stanislaus SS.CC.

One day many years ago, in a little town in Luxembourg, a Captain of the Forest Guards was in deep conversation with the butcher when an elderly woman entered the shop. The butcher broke off the conversation to ask the old woman what she wanted. She had come to beg for a little meat but had no money. The Captain was amused at the woman and the butcher. 'Only a little meat, but how much are you going to give her?', he wondered.

'I am sorry I have no money but I'll hear Mass for you,' the woman told the butcher. Both the butcher and the Captain were indifferent about religion, so they at once began to scoff at the old woman's idea.

'All right then,' said the butcher. 'You go and hear Mass for me and when you come back I'll give you as much as the Mass is worth'. the woman left the shop and returned later. She approached the counter and the butcher said. 'All right then, we'll see.'

He took a slip of paper and wrote on it 'I heard a Mass for you.' He placed the paper on the scales and a tiny bone on the other side, but nothing happened. Next he placed a piece of meat instead of the bone, but still the paper proved heavier.

Both men were beginning to feel ashamed of their mockery but continued their game. A large piece of meat was placed on the balance, but still the paper held its own. The butcher, exasperated, examined the scales but found they were alright.

'What do you want my good woman? Must I give you a whole leg of mutton?' At this he placed the leg of mutton on the balance, but the paper outweighed the meat. A larger piece of meat was put on, but again the weight remained on the side of the paper. This so impressed the butcher that he was converted and promised to give the woman her daily ration of meat.

As for the Captain, he left the shop a changed man and became an ardent lover of daily Mass. Two of his sons became priests, one a Jesuit and the other a Father of the Sacred Heart. Father Stanislaus finished the story by saying, 'I am from the Religious of the Sacred Heart, and the Captain was my father.'

'From this incident the Captain became a daily Mass attendant and his children were trained to follow his example. Later, when his sons became priests, he advised them to say Mass well every day and never miss the Sacrifice of the Mass through any fault of their own.'

If you like the story, share it with someone. Remember, too, that 'a Holy Mass a day keeps the Devil away'

Mother's special WEEP ON and WEAPON:

The Rosary stops a busy family in its tracks, quiets the world's noise, gathers us together, and focuses us on God and not ourselves.

This does wonders for a family psychologically and emotionally.
