Being God’s People

Building-Up God’s People
by our evangelization of all from birth to New Life — at all stages of their Faith Journey.
Children’s Liturgy of the Word Wants to Come Back!

Over the past year, we asked for your support and prayers as we stepped back from our Sunday dismissals of our young children to recruit and train new leaders and helpers. We are disappointed that this was not successful. Yet, a couple people on our team, some of them serving over 10 years, are willing to continue in whatever way they can if we can attract even 2-3 new people to the ministry as co-leaders.

We have had newcomers ask if Children’s Liturgy of the Word is available, so there is a desire for this ministry and there are many who know it is helpful to our young Church. We would like to make a decision and begin dismissing the children on Sundays no later than August at 10:45 Masses...if we can get a few to read the scriptures and help the children understand them through a brief reflection. This is a different Mass time since we noticed many more young children at 10:45.

Our effort will be to call forth family members, older teens, grandparents, and newcomers to this ministry. Volunteers can help to set-up and put away the things they use in their space for Liturgy of Word, can escort children to the bathroom, or accompany a child who needs to return to the adult they are with who is upstairs. Many of these roles require no training; some do, and we provide that introductory training. This ministry works as a team helping each other to prepare a few thoughts and questions for the children so they make connections between what God is saying and their daily lives.

If you see this as a way to give back and want to serve our young children, please contact Yvonne at the Liturgy Office, y.cassa@sainthubert.org or 847-885-7700, ext. 107. Even if you just need to know more, we’re happy to talk with you.

The Lectionary provided for the children is directed to children who are kindergarten through 4th grade. Some children a bit younger or older find CLOW an experience suited to them. We leave it up to parents and children to decide whether this is the best way to hear and explore the Sunday scriptures.

Thank you from the Team for Children at Worship.

JUBILEE OF MERCY WITNESS

Jesus tells his disciples to proclaim God's mercy to the nations. In a more personal direction, he tells those who have experienced the mercy of God in their lives to witness that grace to others. We are never to hold on to our experiences of mercy as if they belonged only to us. We witness what God has done. "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." (Luke 8:39)

The Most Holy Trinity 3  May 22, 2016
The Most Holy Trinity
"The Spirit of truth... will take from what is mine and declare it to you." Jesus says in today's Gospel that the Spirit declares something to us. We actually have a kind of share in the blessed life of the Trinity through this spiritual declaration. In particular, God gives us the gift of his truth. Traditionally, we say that God--the Blessed Trinity--is the source of all truth, beauty, and goodness. Today's reading reminds us that truth exists, that it comes from God, and that we can know it, hear it, and live according to it. "But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth."

This is so important to remember in today's cultural climate. These days, the very idea of truth is a touchy subject. Because there is so much focus on tolerance and not offending anyone, we tend to shy away from discussions about "absolute" truth. Instead, we hear a lot of talk about "what's true for me" or "what's true for you." Too often we get confused about how to respect others' differing beliefs while still maintaining our own. Instead of embracing the fact that there is real truth--like, for example, the truth that God became man and was born of Mary--it is more popular to refer to "beliefs" and "traditions" and "practices," emphasizing that these things differ among people. Yes, those things differ. But truth does not change. Either Jesus is God, or he isn't. Either his claims were true or they weren't. It's not a matter of personal opinion.

The Holy Spirit helps to convince us of what is really right. But we needn't fear that this will lead us to be intolerant. It is this same Spirit within us that brings the fruits of love, peace, patience, kindness, and generosity.
The Baptism team needs help! We need extra hands to help with Sunday Baptisms. It will not take a lot of your time and I promise you will find it rewarding.

Time/Talent Needs:
Baptismal Ministers provide a climate of hospitality for the parents of the babies coming for baptism, as well as their relatives and friends. These ministers also assist the priest or deacon, as necessary.

Qualifications:
A sense of hospitality. An ability to make others feel comfortable and welcome. A love for children. Training will be provided on the baptismal ritual and theology, as well as the opportunity to observe a couple of Sunday afternoon baptisms.

Level of Commitment:
Baptismal Ministers are scheduled in teams of 2 based on their availability. Baptisms take place every other Sunday afternoon at 1:30 PM, except during the Lenten season. This amounts to attending a baptism once every six weeks.

Contact:
Please contact Mike Keenan at 847-885-7703 or mkeenan@sainthubert.org.

Family #26
This family is doing well. Our mom is still working on all of her goals and is beginning to plan for when she exits the program. She will probably have to relocate again because the current rent is too high to continue with her current lease. She also reported that her ex-husband is not working, so she doesn't expect to receive anything for child support from him. Her second job is going well, and she reported that she anticipates working there over the summer once school is out. She is unsure if she will be able to work at the school in the summer. Her children are stable, and she is doing her best to save money because car issues are dipping into her savings.

Family #27
This family is also doing quite well and is stable. She is happy that her transportation issue has been addressed. She really enjoys her job, which is a blessing. She is committed to keeping her son's weekly therapy sessions and saving money.

New Hope sends their sincere gratitude to all the parishioners of the Peace and Justice cluster! These families are very grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice family.

| Monday May 23         | Why aren't we ready for it? Because we have to first let the Holy Spirit prepare us. We have to let God transform something within us, and until we surrender to that process, the truth is more of a burden than a blessing, which we readily reject. |
| 1 Peter 1:3-9          | Everything that Jesus said and did came from the Father through the Holy Spirit. God gave us that same Spirit, that same Wisdom, that same Truth, but the gift is useless unless we submit to the Spirit’s purifying activity. |
| Ps 111:1-2,5,6,9-10c   | Of the Trinity, it’s the Father who forgives sins. It’s Jesus who delivers the forgiveness. And it’s the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us and empowers us to go and sin no more. |
| Mark 10:17-27         | In the confessional, the priest is the presence of Jesus and the whole Body of Christ (which is the Church). Absolution is an action of his Holy Spirit, but it's more than just the removal of guilt; it replaces the sinful vice with the virtue that will help us avoid that vice in the future. The Sacrament of Confession is a direct contact with the Holy Trinity who embraces our repentance and transforms us to increase our holiness. |

| Tuesday May 24        | To receive this grace, we only have to be open to it and interested in cooperating with God. Humility is necessary to be teachable and transformable. |

Living in the Holy Spirit

Few expressions so succinctly summarize what is asked of us as Christians as does the expression: “to live in the Spirit.” Too often, however, this phrase is used in a way that is too pious, too over-charged with charismatic fervour, or too theoretically abstract to have much meaning for ordinary people. It may well summarize Christian life, but it can also be little more than a very vague platitude. What does it mean “to live in the Spirit?”

St. Paul, in attempting to specify this, is anything but piously deluded or theoretically abstract. Rather he speaks with a clarity that leaves almost no room for vagueness or false sentiment. He begins by a certain VIA NEGATIVA, telling us that, if in our lives there is “lewd conduct, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, bickering, jealousy, outbursts of rage, selfish rivalries, dissensions, factionalism, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and the like”, then we are not living in the spirit, pure and simple. Conversely, we are living in the spirit when, in our lives, there is “charity, joy, peace, patience, endurance, kindness, generosity, faith, mildness, and chastity.” (Galatians, 5)

This is a valuable insight because, if we take Paul’s word’s seriously, we can never delude ourselves into identifying true life in the Spirit with what it is so often confused with, namely, false piety and over-privatized sentiment (in pious circles) and confrontation out of hurt, paranoia, and narrow loyalties (in both liberal and conservative circles). When the fruits of the Spirit are absent, irrespective of how spiritually confident and self-righteous we might feel or how right our cause might seem, then the Spirit too is absent. We must be clear about this.

The Spirit is present only when charity, joy, peace, patience, endurance, kindness, generosity, faith, mildness, and chastity are deeply in our lives – and permeate the air around us.

The Holy Spirit, as classically defined in theology, is “the love between the God and Christ, the Father and the Son.” It is in meditating this concept that we come to some understanding of what it means to live in the Spirit. Let me try to elaborate on this by using an image, that of romantic love in its peak fervor.

Imagine a man and a woman who are deeply, passionately, and completely in love. What will characterize their relationship? Constant giving and receiving, resulting in an ever deeper relationship and an ever intensifying gratitude – which will leave them both, daily, feeling ever more mellow, joyful, peaceful, mild, patient, chaste, and wanting to reach out and share with others what is so quickening in their own lives. Moreover, their love for each other will create, around them, an ambience, a climate, an atmosphere, of charity, joy, peace, patience, mildness, and chastity. The movement of giving-and-receiving-in- gratitude between them will create a warm hearth where others will spontaneously come to seek warmth in a world which offers too little peace, patience, joy, and the like.

Such a relationship can be a modest indicator for what happens in the Trinity, of how the Father and the Son generate the Spirit, and what results from this generation.

- The Father constantly creates and gives life.
- The Son receives life from the Father and gives it back in gratitude.
- This then (as is true in all relationships wherein gift is received lovingly) makes it possible for the Father to give even more to the Son.
- As this flow of life, this giving and receiving, goes on, gratitude intensifies and an energy, a spirit, the Holy Spirit, is created.
- This Spirit, since it is generated by gratitude, naturally is a Spirit of charity, joy, peace, patience, goodness, long-suffering, mildness, faith, and chastity. It is then too a spirit that is naturally incompatible with idolatry, adultery, violence, gossip, factionalism, jealousy, rage, and infidelity.

When we meditate on how the Holy Spirit is generated, we are under less illusion as to what it means to live in the Spirit. To believe that we are living in the Spirit when our lives are not permeated by, and radiating, gratitude is to be dangerously deluded. We must be clear about this, lest, as poet William Stafford puts it: “Following the wrong God home, we may both miss our star.”
