He said, “Young man, I tell you, arise!” The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. - Lk 7:14b-15
Dear Friends in Christ,

On the weekend of June 11-12, 2016, we will take up a special collection for the Retired Priests of the Archdiocese.

Throughout the year, I have had several opportunities to meet many of our 206 retired priests who continue to share their priestly ministry in our parishes. It has come to my attention that many parishes depend upon their service for daily and Sunday Masses and for countless funerals. Without the help of our retired priests many parishes would have to reduce Mass schedules and other sacramental services.

In April, it was my honor to celebrate the funeral Mass for Monsignor Richard O’Donnell, our oldest priest. Monsignor O’Donnell was 105 years old when he died. He was ordained a priest in 1935, which means he served as a priest of Chicago for almost 81 years. He spent his retirement years at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish where he had been pastor. Parishioners visited him every day and somewhere in that time his ministry was returned to him through their care and love.

Our retired priests rely upon your help now. The Priests’ Retirement and Mutual Aid Association (PRMAA) cares for our retired priests. As you know the costs for health care, prescription drugs and nursing home care continues to increase. This special collection in June is different from the December collection for retired men and women religious where the collection goes to those in religious orders; Archdiocesan priests do not receive any funds from that collection.

Many thanks to all of you for your most gracious generosity in this collection last year and I ask that you repeat that kindness this year. Your donations, your prayers, and your good wishes are an affirmation of our retired priests. With this letter, I wish to take this opportunity to share my heartfelt appreciation for the ministry and devotion of our retired priests and I ask you to remember all the faithful priests who have gone to their eternal reward. Wishing you every blessing, with kind regards I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Eucharistic Adoration and Contemporary Music
(Featuring music heard on K-LOVE)

Do you ever wish you had a “pause” button for life? Do you wish that you had the ability to pause the really important moments so you could more fully enjoy them? In a way, Eucharistic Adoration is a “pause button” for our encounter with Christ in the Eucharist.

Adoration is a distinct form of prayer separate from prayers of petition, confession or intercession. It is a form of prayer that allows us to take time in reverent silence before our Lord.

Through time spent in Adoration we are able to develop a more intimate relationship with Christ, by allowing Him to speak to our hearts and by thanking Him for not only our lives, but for giving His life for our sake.

We invite you to join Deacon Allen and a talented group of singers and musicians for this spirit-filled evening of prayer, song, and silence; to pause our life in order to listen. Jesus is speaking to us on a daily basis. All we have to do is take the time to listen.

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her." A survey of the Gospels reveals many ways in which Jesus upheld the dignity of women. In a culture where women were considered second-class citizens, Jesus was never afraid to encounter women, to affirm them, and to welcome them among his followers. He regularly broke rules about interaction with women and understood the value of women's religious testimony. In today's Gospel we see another aspect of Jesus' respect for women.

Here we see that his heart was stirred by the situation of this grieving mother. The man who had died was "the only son of his mother, and she was a widow." In other words, this woman had just been stripped of her primary focus in life. Also, in this culture, a woman was protected by her father, her husband, or her son. Absent one of those men in her life, she was in an incredibly vulnerable position. This, along with the grief of losing her child, struck the Lord with pity. "Do not weep," he told her, clearly moved by her sorrow. And then, he did the impossible and restored the dead man to life. But he did more than this. After "the dead man sat up ... Jesus gave him to his mother." In other words, Jesus made a point to restore and affirm this woman's vocation as a mother.

In our culture, women have earned a much more respectable status and are no longer dependent upon men. But, at times, the noble and irreplaceable role of mother is still undervalued in society. Too often, women who devote themselves to this vocation are dismissed as unimportant. Christ himself reveals, through his ministry to this mother, that her role is vital. May we also find ways to affirm and serve the mothers in our midst.

Everyday Stewardship

There have been many times in the Church where we latch onto trends and movements, attracted by a new concept or idea of how we should practice our faith. I think back to the 1970s, where art and environment seemed to explode into so many different directions. We were trying out new liturgical music forms, new ways of setting the tone of a worship space, and new prayer experiences we often labeled as "para-liturgical." Even though some will look back with nostalgia or even fondness, a lot of it wasn't very good, for it distracted some from the source and summit of our faith: the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Mass. I mean, how many burlap and felt banners are too many? Some might say, "One!"

Regardless of how one might look back at those days, the reality is that most of it has passed away. It originated from humans and their experiences of the time. It was not some divine revelation of how things should be.

Skeptics will say talk of stewardship in the Church today is really just a trend and it will pass away. In fact, I have been at conferences where presenters have suggested that it is time to leave the term stewardship behind. They think this spirituality has a human origin.

But stewardship is a spirituality that comes out of the parables and the good news of Jesus Christ. It is about more than the simple slogans we have used: The 3 Ts, an Attitude of Gratitude, and Sharing Is Caring. It is about seeing all things as gifts from God, and the use of those gifts for his glory. It is about total surrender to God. It is about a complete lack of attachment to things of this world and the giving of it all for eternal life in the next. It is about being a mature disciple. And you can put THAT on a banner!

MONTH 6
Developing Baby

“I’m sitting up straight now!”
Spiritual Adoption Program Your spiritually adopted baby is developing quite beautifully now. Her weight is approaching 2 pounds. She sits up straight now to accommodate her internal organs which have moved into their final place in her little body. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. The medical advances in caring for extremely small newborn infants are extraordinary indeed. Don’t forget to pray for your baby. Abortion is legal through all nine months and her mom might still feel pressure to abort.

Sharing the Gospel
Imagine you fell from the jungle gym at the school playground. You would not even need to ask for help. If you were so hurt that you could barely walk or breathe, your teacher would see you and come running. The widow in today’s Gospel story did not need to ask Jesus for help. Jesus saw her pain and came running to help her. Jesus sees when you are in pain, too, and he always comes to help you, too.

Prayer
Jesus, I thank you for raising the widow’s son to life. I know that you are with me, too, when I am sad or hurt.

Puzzle
Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:
The boy sat up and began to speak.

Mission for the Week
Read Luke 7:11-17 with your family. Think of ways Jesus has helped you through sad times, even if you didn’t ask for help.
Dear St. Hubert Parish,

We at St. Aloysius Parish Food Pantry would like to take a moment to express our sincere gratitude to the Parish and the Scouts for hosting the food drive on Saturday, May 14 at the Hoffman Estates Post Office.

The Scouts were a great help on that cold and cloudy day, they were our sunshine and warmth. They did really well loading the truck, while having fun and being safe. They were very knowledgeable and taught us a few things about handling food. It is wonderful to see young people actively involved in the serving ministry. God bless them.

Again thanks to St. Hubert Parish and its volunteers. Our food pantry is well stocked and ready to serve our needy.

May joy, love and peace reside in your hearts,
Minerva Perez-Minguela

10th Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Gospel reading is a message of hope for any situation. Think of the widowed mother as a symbolic Mary and her dead son as Jesus. This incident foreshadowed Christ's resurrection.

See the dead son as anyone you know who has left the faith, or anyone who has been wounded or abused, or anyone who has lost much in a disaster such as a fire or flood or storm.

"God has visited his people" is the good news. The Spirit of Christ can drive out fear, despair, anger, and thoughts of revenge. "I tell you, arise!" Jesus is saying. Our heavenly Father has new life to give.

To "arise" might mean getting back to normal routines. It means standing up to the abuser and drawing a boundary that says "no more." It can mean walking away from someone who's causing harm, and seeking experts who will help with the recovery process.

In a resurrection, there is always something new: a new way of dealing with the problem, or a new place to work or a new parish to join, or a new courage and inner strength to live a changed life.

To "arise" always includes a new understanding of the Father's protective love, which comforts us in the midst of evil and leads us from tragedies into triumphs and from woundedness into recovery. God protects us through the decisions that he guides us to make, but if we ignore his guidance and end up suffering from our error, he still says, "Rise up! A new day is dawning!"

Jesus is a redeemer who overcomes death by making good arise from the ashes — despite all obstacles. We make ourselves vulnerable to life-destroying evil by the bad choices we make, but Christ is always at our side helping us despite our mistakes and sins.

Even when we don't ask for it, he is helping us. How merciful he is! Even when we don't accept the help he provides, he doesn't stop doing more. How caring he is!

Hope is not wishful thinking. It is the awareness of God's goodness. As you grow stronger in hope, evangelize this hope to those around you who need to hear Jesus say, "Arise!"

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what ways do you need new life?

2. Think of people you know who are suffering or have lost faith. How can you help them receive Christ's message of "Arise"?

3. How does believing in God's goodness help us find hope?

4. How does hope drive out fear, despair, anger, or thoughts of revenge?
Daily Resurrection

Gilbert K. Chesterton once wrote a poem he entitled, Second Childhood. It speaks of the resurrection:

When all my days are ending
And I have no song to sing,
I think that I shall not be too old
To stare at everything;
As I stared once at a nursery door
Or a tall tree and a swing….

Men grow too old for love; my love,
Men grow too old for lies;
But I shall not grow too old to see
Enormous night arise,
A cloud that is larger than the world
And a monster made of eyes….

Men grow too old to woo, my love,
Men grow too old to wed;
But I shall not grow too old to see
Hung crazily overhead
Incredible rafters when I wake
And I find that I am not dead….

Strange crawling carpets of the grass,
Wide windows of the sky;
So in this perilous grace of God
With all my sins go I;
And things grow new though I grow old,
Though I grow old and die.

What the resurrection of Jesus promises is that things can always be new again. It’s never too late to start over. Nothing is irrevocable. No betrayal is final. No sin is unforgivable. Every form of death can be overcome. There isn’t any loss that can’t be redeemed. Every day is virgin. There is really no such thing as old age.

In the resurrection we are assured that there are no doors that are eternally closed, every time we close a door or one is closed on us, God opens another for us. The resurrection assures us that God never gives up on us, even if we give up on ourselves, that God writes straight with the crooked lines of our lives, that we can forever re-virginize, regain lost innocence, become post-sophisticated, and move beyond bitterness. In a scheme of things where Jesus breathes out forgiveness on those who betray him and God raises dead bodies from the dead, we can begin to believe that in the end all will be well and every manner of being will be well and everything, including our own lives, will eventually end sunny side up.

However, the challenge of living this out is not just that of believing that Jesus rose physically from the grave, but also, and perhaps even more importantly, to believe that – no matter our age, mistakes, betrayals, wounds, and deaths – we can begin each day afresh, virgin, innocent again, a child, a moral infant, stunned at the newness of it all. No matter what we’ve done, our future is forever pregnant with wonderful new possibility. Resurrection is not just a question of one day, after death, rising from the dead, but it is also about daily rising from the many mini-graves within which we so often find ourselves.

How does belief in the resurrection help us rise from these mini-graves? By keeping us open to surprise, newness, and freshness in our lives. Not an easy thing to do. We are human and we cannot avoid falling – into depression, bitterness, sin, betrayal, cynicism, and the tiredness that comes with age. Like Jesus, we too will have our crucifixions. More than one grave awaits us. Yet our faith in the resurrection invites us precisely to live beyond these. As John Shea once so aptly put it: What the resurrection teaches us is not how to live – but how to live again, and again, and again!

G.K. Chesterton, whom we quoted earlier, was also fond of saying: “Learn to look at things familiar until they look unfamiliar again. Familiarity is the greatest of all illusions.” In essence, that captures one of the real challenges of believing in the resurrection. If the resurrection is to have power in our lives, we must give up the illusion of familiarity, particularly as this pertains to all that’s nearest to us because the most common cancer that eats away at our marriages, families, communities, friendships, and simply at the joy we might have in living, is precisely the cancer of familiarity. We think we know, we think we understand, we think we have things figured-out, and we end up psyching-out life and each other, leaving them no room for newness, for surprise, for the unfamiliar, for the resurrection.

Familiarity breeds contempt. Nothing robs us of joy more than that and nothing destroys our marriages, families, communities, and friendships more than a contemptuousness that is born of familiarity. The resurrection tells us that familiarity is an illusion, the greatest of all illusions. It invites us to look at things familiar until they look unfamiliar again because, in the end, a startling, delightful surprise is hidden in all that is familiar.
