Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.” - Lk 10:40
Children’s Liturgy of the Word Wants to Come Back!

Over the past year, we asked for your support and prayers as we stepped back from our Sunday dismissals of our young children to recruit and train new leaders and helpers. We are disappointed that this was not successful. Yet, a couple people on our team, some of them serving over 10 years, are willing to continue in whatever way they can if we can attract even 2-3 new people to the ministry as co-leaders.

We have had newcomers ask if Children’s Liturgy of the Word is available, so there is a desire for this ministry and there are many who know it is helpful to our young Church. We would like to make a decision and begin dismissing the children on Sundays no later than August at 10:45 Masses...if we can get a few to read the scriptures and help the children understand them through a brief reflection. This is a different Mass time since we noticed many more young children at 10:45.

Our effort will be to call forth family members, older teens, grandparents, and newcomers to this ministry. Volunteers can help to set-up and put away the things they use in their space for Liturgy of Word, can escort children to the bathroom, or accompany a child who needs to return to the adult they are with who is upstairs. Many of these roles require no training; some do, and we provide that introductory training. This ministry works as a team helping each other to prepare a few thoughts and questions for the children so they make connections between what God is saying and their daily lives.

If you see this as a way to give back and want to serve our young children, please contact Yvonne at the Liturgy Office, y.cassa@sainthubert.org or 847-885-7700, ext. 107. Even if you just need to know more, we’re happy to talk with you.

The Lectionary provided for the children is directed to children who are kindergarten through 4th grade. Some children a bit younger or older find CLOW an experience suited to them. We leave it up to parents and children to decide whether this is the best way to hear and explore the Sunday scriptures.

Thank you from the Team for Children at Worship.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing." Martha was caught up in a whirlwind of her own making. She stressed herself out with all the tasks and chores she thought she had to do to host Jesus, but Jesus wasn't the one who expected all of that. He just wanted Martha's presence, her company and friendship. His only expectation was that Martha would prepare for him her heart, but she was fixated on preparing her home instead.

How often do we create a similar whirlwind in our lives? How often do we fixate on external details, on making a good impression, on having all appearances looking just so, but forget what really matters? How often do we make ourselves "anxious and worried" about all we think we have to do? In today's Gospel Jesus calls us to stop the frenetic activity of our lives, to pause and listen, imitating Mary "who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak."

This can seem impossible. We look at our calendars and our to-do lists and cannot find a single slot in which to squeeze quiet prayer or silent spiritual listening. But Jesus asks us to reorganize our priorities. He tells us, "There is need of only one thing." Really, Jesus? Have you seen our lists!? What can we possibly eliminate? Don't we need to do all of this?

The Lord says no. What we need to do is to make time to be with him. The same Lord who turned water into wine and fed five thousand men with five loaves of bread and two fish can also multiply our time. So instead of being like Martha who tried to tell Jesus what to do—"Tell her to help me"—let's be like Mary who listened to what Jesus had to say.

Everyday Stewardship

When we realize we are going to have company, my family and I swing into motion with a frenzy. No dust shall be present for our guests. The bathrooms will be spotless and toilets worthy of the name "throne." We must run to the store so that an endless supply of refreshments and snacks greet our distinguished guests. We never want to be seen as bad hosts and, of course the real reason for all the commotion, we never want to be seen in our natural habitat of messy rooms and barren kitchens.

But what is real hospitality, a necessity for encouraging good stewardship and developing a sense of belonging? In the Gospel of Luke, Mary knew. Martha was so busy preparing and serving, while Mary simply sat with Jesus and listened to him. This is not to say that she did not prepare for her Guest by making a proper place for gathering. But when a guest is already received, true hospitality begins with being present to and engaging him or her. Part of the message in this story is that we all need to pause and listen to the good news that Jesus preaches, but also we can learn a lesson about good hospitality from it as well.

How many times have we been more concerned with appearances and outward things than what we have inside each of us to share? Christian hospitality calls for the Jesus in me to meet with the Jesus in you. We are called to be fully present to one another, with no distractions of technology or the world standing in our way. This is choosing "the better part." For what does it profit a man if he has all the beer and wine in the world, and a spotless home with the greatest of technology, and loses his attention in the conversation with his brother or sister to the game on television? (Or something like that!)

NEW EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS TRAINING

A training session for anyone interested in becoming a Eucharistic Minister is scheduled for Wednesday, July 20th in the church building. There are 2 opportunities to attend on this day: 4:30—6:00 PM or 7:00—8:30 PM.

This session is required for all who wish to distribute the Eucharist at Mass or to the homebound on a regular basis. The Church requires that Extraordinary Ministers of Communion be fully Initiated—have already received Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist and be in good standing with the Church. The Archdiocese of Chicago strongly recommends that ministers be at least 16 years old; we maintain this policy here at St. Hubert.

If you have questions or would like to discuss anything about this ministry, please contact Yvonne Cassa at y.cassa@sainthubert.org or 847-885-7700, ext. 107. There is no need to register, just show up at church! You can also attend training as part of your discernment in choosing a ministry.

16th Sunday of Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus speaks to us about our anxieties and worries. They distract us. They're harmful to us if we let them control our lives, because they take our eyes off of our Lord and focus us on what's going wrong and how it might get worse.

Mary chose the "better part"; she didn't let anything distract her from being a disciple learning avidly from Jesus. When we make the time to put aside the busyness of life to sit quietly and learn from Jesus, we discover reasons why our worries aren't really so worrisome.

Even when there's a legitimate reason to worry, fear blocks our view of Jesus, because it turns us away from him.

We need to recognize fear as a warning flag that's telling us to slow down, quiet down, and sit down with Jesus for a good discussion on whatever it is that's bothering us. He's got the answers, the encouragement, and the affirmation that will bring us peace.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What has been worrying you lately? What are you anxious about? What are you fearing might happen? Write them on a list and take them to Jesus in a quiet prayer time.

2. What lessons is Jesus trying to teach you in those situations? Ask the Holy Spirit to help you learn from Jesus. Search the Bible for additional inspiration.

3. What are some of the ways we can slow down our lives and improve our prayer times?

4. Tell the story of an experience you had when quiet prayer relieved an anxiety or solved a problem.

There are dangers in overwork, not matter how good the work and no matter how noble the motivation for doing it. Spiritual guides, beginning with Jesus, have always warned of the dangers of becoming too taken-up in our work. Many are the spouses in a marriage, many are the children in a family, many are the friends, and many are churches, who wish that someone they love and need more attention from was less busy.

But it is hard not to be over-busy and consumed by work, particularly during our generative years when the duties of raising children, paying mortgages, and running our churches and civic organizations falls more squarely on our shoulders. If you are a sensitive person you will wrestle constantly with the pressure to not surrender yourself to too many demands. As Henri Nouwen once described this, our lives often seem like over-packed suitcases with too much in them. There is always one more task to do, one more phone call to make, one more person to see, one more bill to pay, one more thing to check on the internet, one more leaky faucet to tend to, one more demand from some church or social agency, and one more item that needs to be picked up from the store. The demands never end and we are always conscious of some task that we still need to do. Our days are too short for all that needs to be done.

And so we give ourselves over to our work. It begins in good will and innocence but it invariably transmutes into something else. Initially we give ourselves over to all these demands because this is what is asked of us, but as more and more time goes by that commitment becomes less and less altruistic and more self-serving.

First off, though we are generally blind to this, our work soon becomes an escape. We remain busy and preoccupied with our work. This is in fact what Jesus warned Martha about in the famous passage in scripture where she, consumed with the very necessary work of preparing a meal, complains to Jesus that her sister, Mary, is not carrying her share of the load. In a rather surprising response, Jesus, instead of chastising Mary for her idleness and praising Martha for her dedication, tells Martha that Mary has chosen the better part, that, at this moment and in this circumstance, Mary’s idleness trumps Martha’s busyness. Why? Because sometimes there are more important things in life than work, even the noble and necessary work of tending to hospitality and preparing a meal for others.

Classical spiritual writers are unanimous in warning about the danger of overwork and of becoming over-preoccupied with our work. This is in fact what Jesus warns Martha about in the famous passage in scripture where she, consumed with the very necessary work of preparing a meal, complains to Jesus that her sister, Mary, is not carrying her share of the load. In a rather surprising response, Jesus, instead of chastising Mary for her idleness and praising Martha for her dedication, tells Martha that Mary has chosen the better part, that, at this moment and in this circumstance, Mary’s idleness trumps Martha’s busyness. Why? Because sometimes there are more important things in life than work, even the noble and necessary work of tending to hospitality and preparing a meal for others.

Idleness may well be the devil’s workshop, but busyness is not always a virtue.

Sharing the Gospel

When company came, Martha hurried to get the house ready. She made sure the food was cooked. She set the table with cups, dishes, and silverware. She put clean sheets on the beds. She emptied the trash. Mary didn't worry about all that. She stopped everything to listen to her visitor. If your house is neat all the time, you can relax and talk with your guests. Then you can cook dinner together.

Prayer

Lord, I want to stop working to listen to my visitors.

Mission for the Week

I will sit and talk with Jesus every morning.
