“And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” - Lk 11:9
Dear Friends,

I hope you are taking some time to relax this summer. In the midst of unrest, terrorism, violence, police shootings, presidential campaigns, Pokemon, and just the general stresses of life, it can be very difficult to experience the Good News of Jesus Christ.

We have to be reminded that no matter what happens, Jesus Christ is our Savior and Lord. He invites us to spend some quiet time with Him and to hear the words once again, “Do not be afraid, I am with you.” We can stay busy and miss His presence or take some time to reflect on it, so that when we interact with others we are more mindful and aware of His loving care.

I am grateful to all those who have been working on the Domestic Violence Ministry, especially Sylvia Hiple, for coordinating the ministry and setting up future programs to help all of us be aware of this horrible reality in our communities.

During August and September, there will be some small fund raisers to help WINGS. Their mission is to provide housing, education services and advocacy to end domestic violence. The hope is to create a society in which every survivor has a voice and the resources to break the cycle of domestic violence.

During October, Respect Life Month, we will have a speaker at all the Masses to give us more information and raise our consciousness.

Our Parish Pastoral Council is not meeting during the month of July. In August, they will finalize the comments from our Long Range Pastoral Plan and develop a plan with objectives and goals for the future of our Parish. It will include the areas of Music and Liturgy, Christian Formation, Technology and Communication, and accomplishments since we started the Plan 3 years ago. More will be said about this next month.

We are still looking over plans for Homeland Security and our campus, and the intricacies of fire suppression (sprinkling) in our school building.

In September, we will publish the financial report. I am happy to report that our initial review of the fiscal year ending June 30 was positive, and we have paid all of our bills to date.

I hope that you continue to enjoy the summer.

Rev. Robert C. Rizzo

"Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." This is a promise that anyone would love to hear. With these words Jesus comforts and reassures us. He suggests that we will be satisfied and welcomed and fulfilled. His message in today's Gospel assures us that our heavenly Father loves us even more than earthly parents love their children. So we can enjoy the security of knowing that God will take good care of us.

But God's care may not always look exactly the way we expect it to. His care for us is based on knowing what is best for us and what will make us flourish. And, sometimes, what we think we need isn't really best. It's important to keep this context in mind. This prevents us from understanding Jesus' words today in a selfish way. As the end of the passage makes clear, this asking and seeking that Jesus refers to is ultimately fulfilled in the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus is promising us that if we ask God for his Spirit, he will certainly give it to us, his children.

For most of us, we actually received this gift at our baptism. But have we taken full advantage of this? Although we may not realize it at first, in receiving the Holy Spirit we actually receive a whole host of gifts. With God's Spirit come the sevenfold gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. And the fruits of the Spirit as St. Paul lists them in Galatians 5 include love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. God knows that all of these gifts and fruits make us very well equipped for life on earth, and for eternal life in heaven! What more do we really need to ask for?

Everyday Stewardship

My father would always say to me when I was growing up, "Whatever is mine is yours." He was always very generous toward me and, if I am being truthful, probably spoiled me. We were not a rich family by any measure, but I never really wanted for anything. If I asked, I would receive.

In Luke 11, Jesus tells us our heavenly Father is similar to my father, but God is profoundly more generous. However, I am not sure many of us really believe that. When growing up we ask our earthly parents for all sorts of things, some requests being large but many being small. I know my own three children might ask me for anything at anytime. If God is more generous with me than I am with my own three children, how come I find myself mostly asking God for things when all my other options have run out or my back is against the wall? We make deals with God in our moment of despair or fear, but when things were great we asked for little or sometimes nothing at all.

We need God and his generosity 365 days a year. Better than that, God wants us to ask for things and learn to rely on him. There is no strength in walking in this world alone. God wants to be the source of all our strength. That is one reason why at every hour of the day, somewhere in the world, Mass is being celebrated and his children are receiving him in the holy Eucharist. If God can become man, die, and rise again, and then humble himself in the elements of bread and wine to be close to you, do you not think he will respond to your everyday simple requests? May God's generosity flow to you in great abundance for his love knows no limits.

The Year of Mercy – A time for JOY

Fear. Guilt. Shame. Break free from these negatives and cultivate spiritual joy as we move through this Year of Mercy. That’s the message of Father Fred Licciardi C.P.P.S. as the Catholic Minds – Catholic Matters speakers series returns August 10, 17, and 24. A dynamic, engaging speaker, Father Fred is associate pastor at St. Hubert.

Sessions are 7:00 to 8:30 PM in the lower level of the church. They are presented by the parish’s Catholic Adult Formation and Education (CAFÉ) ministry.

While the programs are free, registration ensures seating and refreshments for the group. However, walk-ins are always welcome. To register or for information, phone 847-885-7700, ext. 101 or e-mail speakersseries@sainthubert.org.

JUBILEE OF MERCY
FORGIVE

Jesus reveals the mercy of God most powerfully when he forgives sins. He enables people to let go of their damaged past and reclaim their loving relationship with God, who has never ceased to love them. His forgiveness is real, powerful, and life-changing. Then he said to her, “Your sins are forgiven. Your faith has saved you; go in peace.” (Luke 7:49,50)

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

In Luke 11:1-13, Jesus teaches us how to pray with faith. The “bread” that runs as a theme in this scripture is the life of holiness. The “Bread of Life” is Jesus. The gift of the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life, is a holy life.

Notice also that the visitor in the parable is a friend of God, not a stranger, who wants to share the bread with another friend. This represents a baptized Christian who wants to share the friendship of God (“three loaves” – the Trinity) with others, but he or she is inadequate for the task.

When we knock on the door to God’s heart seeking help for our inadequacies, the Father gives us his fully adequate Holy Spirit. And that’s not all we get! Whenever we pray, this Holy Spirit connects us to the Father and to Jesus. Therefore, every prayer increases our holiness, brings us closer to God and empowers us to be more like Jesus. But holiness does not come quickly or easily. We must be persistent in our prayer lives. We must continually rely on God’s Spirit in order to resist temptations and grow in faith.

No matter what we ask God to share with us, including the material things that we need or desire, God wants to use it to nourish our souls. This is what we ask for when we pray, “Give us this day our daily bread.” Be persistent. Receiving God’s bread takes time (we’re slow learners).

It’s the devil who says we can have everything we ask for as fast as we want it. New Age and occult practices are fast-food spiritualities that are riddled with the dangerously unhealthy fat of false beliefs. They lack the growth in holiness that we can only receive from the Holy Spirit. Many people turn to the occult because they don’t have the desire to do the hard work of holiness.

The supernatural adequacies of the Holy Spirit are ours for the asking, because we already received the Holy Spirit during baptism. However, to live in God’s supernatural power, we have to pray persistently, identify our sins and repent, and humbly open ourselves to the holiness of the Holy Spirit.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How much do you rely on the Holy Spirit’s help in your daily life?

2. How often do you humble yourself before the Lord in prayer and ask for an increase of holiness?

3. Describe your prayer life. How does it help you become holier in your daily activities?

4. How has the Holy Spirit purified you?
In his memoir, Report to Greco, Nikos Kazantzakis shares this story: As a young man, he spent a summer in a monastery during which he had a series of conversations with an old monk. One day he asked the old monk: “Father, do you still do battle with the devil?” The old monk replied: “No, I used to, when I was younger, but now I have grown old and tired and the devil has grown old and tired with me. I leave him alone and he leaves me alone.” “So your life is easy then?” remarked Kazantzakis. “Oh no,” replied the monk, “it’s much worse, now I wrestle with God!”

There’s a lot contained in that remark – “I wrestle with God.” Among other things, it suggests that the struggles in later life can be very different than what we struggle with earlier on. In the normal pattern of things, we spend the first-half of our lives struggling with sensuality, greed, and sexuality, and spend the last half of our lives struggling with anger and forgiveness – and that anger is often, however unconsciously, focused on God. In the end, our real struggle is with God.

But wrestling with God has another aspect. It invites us to a certain kind of prayer. Prayer isn’t meant to be a simple acquiescence to God’s will. It’s meant to be an acquiescence, yes, but a mature acquiescence, come to at the end of a long struggle.

We see this in the prayer of the great figures in scripture: Abraham, Moses, Jesus, the apostles. Abraham argues with God and initially talks him out of destroying Sodom; Moses at first resists his call, protesting that his brother is better suited for the job; the apostles excuse themselves for a long time before finally putting their lives on the line; and Jesus gives himself over in the Garden of Gethsemane only after first begging his Father for a reprieve. As Rabbi Heschel puts it, from Abraham through Jesus we see how the great figures of our faith are not in the habit of easily saying: “Thy will be done!” but often, for a while at least, counter God’s invitation with: “Thy will be changed!”

Struggling with God’s will and offering resistance to what it calls us to can be a bad thing, but it can also be a mature form of prayer. The Book of Genesis describes an incident where Jacob wrestled with a spirit for a whole night and in the morning that spirit turned out to be God. What a perfect icon for prayer! A human being and God, wrestling in the dust of this earth! Doesn’t that accurately describe the human struggle?

We would do well to integrate this, the concept of wrestling with God, into our understanding of faith and prayer. We honor neither ourselves nor the scriptures when we make things too simple. Human will doesn’t bend easily, nor should it, and the heart has complexities that need to be respected, even as we try to rein in its more possessive longings. God, who built us, understands this and is up to the task of wrestling with us and our resistance.

The classical mystics speak of something they call “being bold with God”. This “boldness”, they suggest, comes not at the beginning of the spiritual journey, but more towards the end of it, when, after a long period of fidelity, we are intimate enough with God to precisely be “bold”, as friends who have known each other for a long time have a right to be. That’s a valuable insight: After you have been friends with someone for a long time, you can be comfortable with expressing your needs to him or her and in the context of a long, sustained relationship unquestioning reverence is not necessarily a sign of mature intimacy. Old friends, precisely because they know and trust each other, can risk a boldness in their friendship that younger, less mature, friendship cannot.

That is also true in our relationship with God. God expects that, at some point, we will kick against his will and offer some resistance. But we should lay out our hearts in honesty. Jesus did.

God expects some resistance. As Nikos Kazantzakis puts it:

“The struggle between God and humans breaks out in everyone, together with the longing for reconciliation. Most often this struggle is unconscious and short-lived. A weak soul does not have the endurance to resist the flesh for very long. It grows heavy, becomes flesh itself, and the contest ends. But among responsible persons who keep their eyes riveted day and night upon the supreme duty, the conflict between flesh and spirit breaks out mercilessly and may last until death. The stronger the soul and the flesh, the more fruitful the struggle and the richer the final harmony. The spirit wants to have to wrestle with flesh which is strong and full of resistance. It is a carnivorous bird which is incessantly hungry; it eats flesh and, by assimilating it, makes it disappear.”

PADS Volunteers Needed for the New Season

Prince of Peace PADS continues to provide shelter and meals to the area homeless as it has for over 25 years. As we open the new season each Friday evening beginning on October 7, we invite you to join us as a volunteer. There is particularly need of new volunteers to help with set-up (from 5:30—6:30 PM); first shift (from 6:45—11:00 PM); breakfast (from 5:15—7:15 AM); and clean-up (6:00—7:15 AM on Saturdays). However, all volunteers are welcome and you can volunteer when it is convenient for you. PADS volunteers don’t need to be a member of Prince of Peace, so your neighbors and friends can join you as a volunteer. For more information, please contact either Michelle at mavahlkamp@comcast.net or 847-884-8656, or Bonnie at 630-220-1034 or b.wagner@henrickson.com.

If Fridays are not convenient, Congregational United Church of Christ, in Arlington Heights, is in need of site-directors and shift coordinators for its Thursday evening PADS. For more information, please contact Allyson Schnoor at 847-963-9163 x114 or a.schnoor@journeystheroadhome.org.

Monday & Friday:
- 7:00 AM Mass

Adoration after Friday morning Mass until 9 AM

Tuesday:
- 8:30 AM Mass

Wednesday & Thursday:
- 7:00 AM Communion Service

Sacramental Life

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
