Dear Friends,

Today marks the 15th anniversary of what is now referred to as nine eleven. If you have a chance to visit New York City, I suggest you see the site and the museum. After much debate and controversy, they have established a beautiful memorial to the victims and their families. Please continue to pray for them and their families. In addition, we will have a special prayer at all the Masses today and continue to pray always for peace in our world.

On Tuesday of this week, at 6:30 p.m., I will be meeting with a new search committee for a Music Director. I anticipate having a Director in place by Advent or the New Year. Thankfully, Siobhan prepared music until Advent, and our accompanists and cantors are able to handle this transitional situation.

Member of the committee are:

Yvonne Cassa, (Chair) Liturgy Coordinator
Chris Severin, Accompanist
Melissa Barber-Tarolla, Cantor
Mark Fijalkiewicz, Young Adult Choir
Diane Kostecki, Sunday Choir

Dan Owens, Percussionist
Roger Malinski, PPC and parishioner-at- large
(bringing knowledge from comments on Long Range Pastoral Plan.)

The job description is listed with the Website of the Archdiocese and the National Pastoral Musicians. Presuming we have a good number of candidates, the committee will interview and give me 3 candidates with their order of preference. This person will then meet with the staff and PPC for final comments before a job offer is made. If anyone in the parish has any suggestions or comments about a new Music Director, please do not hesitate to contact me about this very important ministry here at St. Hubert.

After this Tuesday meeting, I have invited the choirs and cantors to meet with me at 8:00 p.m. Anyone from the parish may come to this meeting in church.

Please pray that God will send us a competent, faith-filled person to lead us in our liturgical music.

Rev. Robert C. Rizzo

DIRECTOR OF LITURGICAL MUSIC

St. Hubert Parish, in NW suburban Hoffman Estates, IL, is a large, active and progressive Catholic parish, seeking a highly qualified pastoral musician for full-time Director of Liturgical Music. The Music Director is a member of the parish pastoral staff and the Liturgy Board.

Luke 16:1-13 or 16:10-13

JUBILEE OF MERCY
ENDURE

We live in an often unstable world. Things do not last. God’s mercy is different; it endures forever. God’s mercy offers us the kind of reliability that we long for but rarely find. We can rest in this stable and enduring merciful love. O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever. (Psalm 136:1)

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time
"The Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, 'This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.'" Jesus knew these self-righteous religious leaders were complaining. And he knew they needed to learn a lesson. So, in addition to giving a lived example of welcoming the company of "tax collectors and sinners," Jesus also directly taught the skeptics about the importance of welcoming those who have been lost. Today's Gospel gives a powerhouse lineup of three parables that all teach a similar message: rejoice over the lost sheep, rejoice over the lost coin, and rejoice over the return of the lost son.

The theme can be summarized in the simple directive: rejoice don't reject. When someone who isn't part of the "fold" appears in church, this is cause for rejoicing! It should not be cause for gossip, sideways glances, or nervous whispers about what to do or say. Rather a genuine smile and word of welcome would be in order at the very least, and a heartfelt invitation to join the community would be totally appropriate.

Too often we become complacent about our Christian company. We get used to seeing the same people every Sunday and forget about the "lost" men and women who are outside the bounds of our comfort zone. Jesus gives us the image of an active shepherd who goes "after the lost one until he finds it," and a diligent widow who will "sweep the house, searching carefully" until she finds her coin. He tells us of a father who "ran to his son, embraced and kissed him," in spite of the separation they had faced. We too are called to take initiative in seeking out those who are lost, and to rejoice heartily when they finally do come back home.

CHILDREN’S MINISTRY OF INITIATION (CMI)

Some of our children may be new to the parish and, for a variety of reasons, may need to receive sacraments other than at the designated grade levels. Children's Ministry of Initiation (CMI) is a process for children 7 years of age or older. CMI is a vibrant part of the parish welcoming and evangelical efforts for families wishing to learn more about becoming a Catholic Christian or reconnecting to the Church. CMI provides families with the opportunities for religious education, prayer, service, and reception of the sacraments (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist). The children involved in this process of Religious Education receive their sacraments at the Easter Vigil in the second year of participation in CMI.

Immediate preparations are now underway for our CMI sessions to begin in October. Parents and grandparents, if you are interested in enrolling your child, teen, or grandchild, please call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

A Catechist is needed to work with the parents/adults in CMI (Children’s Ministry of Initiation)

We know that parents are the first and most important educators of their children. Adults who are willing to share their love, support, and faith as catechists and small group leaders also are influential in the hearts of children and their families.

We are grateful to those who share the gifts of time, skills, and faith with our parish programs. We invite you, to consider making a commitment to CMI this year. Please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We begin in October. You would meet with the parents after the 9:00 AM Mass. It is not every Sunday, so it allows for a little flexibility.
The Village of Hoffman Estates informed us that a new storm sewer project will have Grand Canyon Street, north of Bode, closed to thru traffic. They expect the work to be completed mid-October. Detours will be posted. Travel Safely!

ANointING OF THE SICK AT MASS

Sunday, October 9th at the 6:00 PM Mass

A communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will occur on Sunday October 9th. Please mark your calendar and join us. Whether you want to receive the sacrament yourself or pray with and for those who are being anointed, you are invited to participate.

The sacrament’s name, “Anointing of the Sick” (as opposed to the old “Extreme Unction”), emphasizes the important point that this is a sacrament for the living. It is the Church’s ordinary rite for the strengthening of those whose health is weakened by illness or age.

Who might choose to be anointed? The sacrament is for anyone with serious illness. For some, it is an ongoing struggle in need of God’s healing strength. For others, it is a new, and perhaps soon cured, condition with surgery or other treatment. All illness brings anxiety, and often, serious worry. Here are some persons who might choose to receive the sacrament: those facing surgery, subject to chronic disease, wrestling with depression, anxiety or addictions, those aware of growing weakness, those seeking the healing of loss or grief. Children, as well as adults of all ages, can be anointed. Caregivers who are seriously affected by the illness of a spouse, parent or child may also be anointed. In the Anointing of the Sick, not only are the sick ministered to, but they minister to us by witnessing their faithfulness to Christ and their move to him in hope, even in the midst of their suffering.

St. Hubert Ministers of Care will assist in the sacrament, signing in those to be anointed, standing with them during the anointing, and introducing them to the priest who comes to them in their row. Ministers of Care cannot know everyone who might receive strength and comfort from this sacrament. Please, if you know someone, invite them to come with you to 6:00 PM Mass on October 9th and assure them of our prayers.

Even if you will not be present for these liturgies, remember to pray for the sick of the parish. For more information, please contact Lynn Howard at 847-885-7703 or email her at Godsgal56@aol.com.

BECOMING CATHOLIC:

Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Is someone you know interested in becoming Catholic? Are you an adult Catholic who has never been confirmed or received the Eucharist? Do you just want to learn more about the Catholic faith? If this is the right time for you to take the next step on your faith journey, or if you want to talk to someone about the Catholic faith, please call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Practicing Catholics are needed in this ministry to share in the RCIA experience as sponsors and team members.

Today's Gospel is an assurance of God's desire to regain what has been lost. He is a God of reconciliation, pursuing those who have strayed from the truth. Why? Because he cares — he cares more than we do about the people we know who are "lost sheep" or "lost treasures" like the coin in this parable.

Think of the people who have been lost to you because they have abandoned you. God cares and is pursuing them to bring healing to the relationship, and he will continue his efforts even until they take their last earthly breath (sometimes the healing comes after death).

Think, too, of people who are neglecting their faith. Jesus is a Good Shepherd who will never give up pursuing them. Why? Because their value to your family and to the Church is important! Their absence is depleting the strength of the community. And God, who is the source of the life of the community, is doing everything possible — well, even the impossible — to lead them to repentance, healing and a safe return.

However, we cannot leave it all up to God. He works through us. Only when we've tried and our influence is nil does God say, “Let go. Trust that I am continually working on the problem.” We can believe that Jesus is still chasing after them, even though they hide from him. He is not far from them, even though they push him away.

If there is something else we can do to invite them back into the sheepfold, but we don't, someday we will have to explain to Jesus why we didn't. Why did we fail to love as much as he loves them? Why did we let them stray away without researching how we could help them? Have we done anything to push them away?

No matter how difficult it gets as we partner with Christ to bring others back to the sheepfold, the most important thing we can do is keep loving them unconditionally. Hopefully, they will see in us the love that Jesus is offering to them.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Who are the lost sheep and missing treasures of your family and your parish community? What will you do to reveal Jesus and his merciful love for them?

2. Is there a parish ministry or an evangelization program that you could join to learn how to better help others turn to Jesus?

3. When the lost are not ready yet to turn to Jesus or return to us or to the Church, how do our attempts to give them Jesus prepare them for an eventual conversion?

4. Why is it worth trying, even if we don't see any fruits for our efforts? Even if it includes sacrifice and extra humility on our part?
For more than a thousand years, Christians have not had the joy of being one family around Christ. Although there were already tensions within the earliest Christian communities, it was not until the year 1054 that there was a formal split so as to, in effect, establish two formal Christian communities, the Orthodox Church and the Catholic Church in the West. Then, with the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century, there was a further split within the Western Church and Christianity fragmented still further. Today there are more than a hundred Christian denominations, many of them, sadly, not on friendly terms with each other.

Division and misunderstanding are understandable, inevitable, the price of being human. There are no communities without tension and so it’s no great scandal that Christians sometimes cannot get along with each other. The scandal is rather that we have become comfortable, even smug, about not getting along with each other. The scandal is that we no longer hunger for wholeness and that we no longer miss each other inside our separate churches. In virtually all of our churches today there is too little anxiety about those who are not worshipping with us, whether these separated brothers and sisters belong to other denominations or whether they belong to our own. For instance, teaching Roman Catholic seminarians today, I sense a certain indifference to the issue of ecumenism. For many seminarians today this is not an issue that is of particular concern to them. Sad to say, this holds true for most Christians in all denominations.

But this kind of indifference is inherently unchristian. Oneness was close to the heart of Jesus. He wants all his children at the same table, as we see in this parable in the Gospels:

A woman had ten coins and lost one. She became extremely anxious and agitated and began to search frantically and relentlessly for the lost coin, lighting lamps, looking under tables, and sweeping all the floors in her house. Eventually she found the coin. She was delirious with joy, called together her neighbors and threw a lavish party whose cost far exceeded the value of the coin she had lost. (Luke 15, 8-9)

Why such anxiety and such joy over the loss and the finding of a coin whose value was that of a dime? The answer lies in the symbolism: In her culture, nine was not a whole number; ten was. Both the woman’s anxiety on losing the coin and her joy in finding it had little to do with the value of the coin but with the value of wholeness; an important wholeness in her life had been fractured, a precious set of things was no longer complete. Hence the parable might recast this way:

A woman had ten children. With nine of them, she had a good relationship, but one of her daughters was alienated. Her nine other children came regularly to the family table, but this daughter did not. The woman could not rest in that situation; she needed her alienated daughter to rejoin them. She tried every means to reconcile with her daughter and, one day, miracle of miracles, it worked. Her daughter came back to the family. Her family was whole again, everyone was back at table. The woman was overjoyed, withdrew her modest savings from the bank, and threw a lavish party to celebrate that wholeness.

Christian faith demands that, like that woman, we need to be anxious, dis-eased, lighting lamps and searching, until the Church is whole again. Nine is not a whole number. Neither is the number of those who are normally inside our respective churches. Roman Catholicism isn’t a whole number. Protestantism isn’t a whole number. Neither is the number of those who are normally inside our respective churches. Roman Catholicism isn’t a whole number. Protestantism isn’t a whole number. The Evangelical Churches aren’t a whole number. The Orthodox Churches aren’t a whole number. No one Christian denomination is a whole number. Together we make up a whole number.

Thus we are meant to ask ourselves uncomfortable questions: Who no longer goes to church with us? Who feels uncomfortable worshipping with us? Are we comfortable that so many people can no longer join us in our church?

Sadly, today, too many of us are comfortable in churches that are far, far from whole. Sometimes, in our less reflective moments, we even rejoice in it: “Those others aren’t real Christians in any case! We’re better off without their kind! There’s more peace this way! We are a purer, more faithful, church because of their absence! We’re the one true remnant!”

But this lack of a healthy solicitude for wholeness compromises both our maturity and our following of Jesus. We are mature loving people and true followers of Jesus, only when, like Jesus, we remain in tears over those “other sheep that are not of this fold” and when, like the woman who lost one of her coins and would not sleep until every corner of the house was turned upside down in a frantic search for what was lost, we too set out solicitously in search of that lost wholeness.

ST. HUBERT MINISTRY OF CARE
HAVE YOU BEEN THINKING ABOUT BECOMING A MINISTER OF CARE?

Purpose of Ministry
During a time of failing health, when the need to connect with the faith is at its greatest, people may be too ill to come to Church to receive communion. Ministers of Care are parishioners who bring the Eucharist to patients in the hospital, nursing homes, and homebound parishioners. Ministers of Care help individuals nurture their spiritual lives when their physical well-being is compromised and they need to maintain a connection with their Catholic community.

Who can be a Minister of Care?
Ministers of Care are compassionate men and women who are the link between the person unable to participate in the weekly liturgy and the worshipping body of the Church. Ministers of Care are also Eucharistic Ministers and are registered members of the parish who are in full communion with the Church. They regularly participate in parish worship life, especially Mass and the sacraments. Ministers of Care have a deep devotion to the Holy Eucharist and are open to sharing prayer and faith with the sick, and willing to undertake prerequisite initial training for the ministry. They are also committed to attending Ministry of Care Enrichment Days.

Benefits
This ministry is a unique opportunity to serve others and to witness the faith to those in need or crisis. Ministers of Care act as an extension of the Eucharistic table, enriching their own experience of the sacrament through witnessing the power of the Eucharist with people in great need of spiritual nourishment.

How does one become a Minister of Care?
1. Contact the Coordinator of Ministry of Care for an interview.
2. Attend the basic training sessions.
3. Be commissioned for this ministry by the diocese and the parish.
4. Choose a particular type of care ministry
5. Finally, you will apprentice with an experienced minister, by visiting a homebound person.

Basic 2 Week Training for Ministers of Care
Will be held at St. James Parish 820 N. Arlington Heights Road Arlington Heights on two Saturdays, October 8th & and October 15th from 8:30 AM—3:00 PM
There is no cost to attend these sessions.

If you are interested, or if you want to explore whether this ministry is for you, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We want to get everyone interested in this ministry interviewed and registered for this fall program by September 28.

Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments:
A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families

Family #26
Recap: This family consists of a mother with two daughters ages 14 and 7 years old.

This family has great news! She was next on the waiting list for low income (Section 8) housing in Elgin. With this program, she will be required to pay only 30% of her income. She is hopeful that she will be ready to move by the end of her lease. She is very excited and feels some relief knowing that she will be moving into affordable housing.

Her children are doing well and they are excited about starting school in mid-August. She is still employed at her summer job and when the summer is over she will return to her job at the school.

This family sends gratitude to our cluster Parishioners!
New Hope joins this family as we celebrate this client’s victory!

Family #27
Recap: Single mom with a son.

Our mom had a setback. She admitted herself into the hospital because of depression. She has since been released and is working to improve her mental health. She maintains her work schedule and now is playing catch up with her rent. She reported that she got overwhelmed in trying to keep up with her car, which has been an issue for a few months now. However, she is feeling better since she sought appropriate help for her condition.

Her son is doing well and also excited about starting school in August. He continues to receive services through the Kenneth Young Center.

This family is so grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice cluster of Parishes! New Hope sends sincere gratitude to all of your parishioners!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
SPIRITUALLY ADOPTED BABY!

Your spiritually adopted baby was born this month—nine months after her mother conceived her. The only change at birth is a change in the external life support system of the baby. She is no different now than she was before birth except that she breathes and eats differently. She is truly a miracle. She began as a 46- chromosome cell and has grown over the past nine months into this unique human baby we now can see. Never before in history, nor ever again, will anyone exist who is exactly like your spiritually adopted baby. Your prayers saved her life. Thank you on behalf of all of the little babies and their parents for your loving prayers that helped to bring them to birth “so that they might have life and have it to the full!"

In conclusion to our Spiritual Adoption Program begun nine months ago, the St. Hubert Respect Life Ministry presents a

A Thank You Dinner for Parish Volunteers

A Thank You Dinner will be given by the parish for all of those in the parish that volunteered for various activities in the past year.

Friday, November 18
6:00 PM fellowship
Dinner will be at 6:45 PM

Child care will be provided and your companion is welcome join us. Mark your calendar today!

To those of you who haven’t yet volunteered their time for the parish, it is strongly recommended that you give it a try. The members of the ministry that you might join, or at least investigate, will be most cordial, and I can assure you that the experience will more than please you. You will find the atmosphere low-key and low pressure. Just drop in and chat with Marie Staffa to learn about the various ministries available.

Most groups are run very informally. It is very easy to just assume that things will happen without stopping to consider who does these “things” - such as, change and water the flowers, take care of the altar cloths.

Become a volunteer. The parish needs you.

If you want to become a volunteer minister, please contact Marie Staffa at 847 885-7700 ext 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

6:30-6:55 PM – Preschool – Grade 5: Presentations in Homerooms
7:00-7:25 PM – Preschool – Grade 5: (Repeat Presentation)
7:00-8:30 PM – Grades 6–8: Parents follow student schedules. Go to Homeroom to receive student schedules

One of the best ways parents can help their children have a successful academic year is to stay connected to the school. Curriculum Night is the perfect opportunity to meet your child's teacher, hear grade level expectations and learn about the St. Hubert curriculum.

Parents often ask, “What can I do to help my child thrive in school?”

- Value effort, hard work, and remain positive
- Ask your child what he/she is learning in science, math, etc.
- Provide a quiet interruption free space for homework and be organized
- Monitor your child’s use of the Internet and social media sites
- Get a good night’s sleep during the school week and eat a good breakfast
- Encourage reading and model it yourself

The Response of the Gospel of Mercy

"Facing the tragedy of tens of thousands of refugees — fleeing death by war and famine, and journeying towards the hope of life — the Gospel calls, asking of us to be close to the smallest and forsaken."

-Pope Francis

As Catholics, it is our mission to encourage our leaders and elected officials to protect the dignity of every person, including those seeking refuge. This September the global goals include: increasing humanitarian aid by 30 percent, doubling the number of refugee resettlement opportunities, guaranteeing the right to work for one million more refugees, and ensuring access to education for refugee children. - USCCB Justice for Immigrants

Is Networking Dead?
September 12, 7:00—9:15 PM
St. Hubert Parish Ministry Center
729 Grand Canyon
Hoffman Estates, IL

Quite a few people are finding networking more difficult these days as candidates descend on connections associated with published job opportunities. Our presenter is Sheldon Helfgot. Sheldon is a career consultant and coach, resume expert, and regular presenter at MyCareerPlace in Barrington, IL and with the Executive Network Group.

For questions regarding the St. Hubert Job Ministry events, contact Bob Podgorski at 847-843-0020 or careerguy1@gmail.com.

FOR THE NEWCOMER: Join us at St. Hubert at 6:00 PM prior to our regular meetings. We'll offer a one hour program on how to use a networking meeting effectively, the tools you'll need such as; The Elevator Speech; How to do a Handbill; and how to generate the contacts you need.

Our Time is Now
Women are stepping up and making a big difference in the world like never before. Author and psychotherapist Mary Ann Daly shares an understanding of the key to this powerful evolution.

Mon., Sept. 19th
7:00pm
Prince of Peace Church
930 W. Higgins Rd.
Schaumburg, IL 60195

All are welcome. Please extend this invitation to your women friends and relatives.

RSVP to cbasak3@msn.com by Sept.15

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
