in the Lower Level of the Church

Catholic Bible studies are an important way of understanding our faith.
The more we can understand the inspired writings in the books of the Bible, the more we understand our beliefs, celebrations, and rituals.
90 minutes will be devoted to the speaker, followed by 30 minutes of group discussion.

If you did not attend our overview of how Catholics understand and interpret the bible last year, we ask that you view it on YouTube before our first meeting Sept 29.

Go to web and type in sainthubert.org/retreats and click on Week 1, September 10.

JUBILEE OF MERCY

In Luke’s Gospel, as Jesus is being crucified, he reveals the divine depths of his mercy. He forgives those who are nailing him to the cross. Even more than forgiving them, as Saint Aedred of Rievaulx points out, he excuses them. He gives them an excuse—their ignorance. The reach of God’s mercy is astonishing.
"Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." (Luke 23:34)

St. Hubert
25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently." It's important to pay attention to the details of the parable Jesus tells in today's Gospel. At first glance, it might seem as if Jesus is encouraging us to be dishonest. But in fact, it's just the opposite. The steward in this tale was reported to his master "for squandering his property." In other words, the steward was not being responsible with what he was in charge of. And the master was ready to fire him on account of it. But then, the steward had a change of heart. (This isn't so hard to comprehend--sometimes it takes a real threat for us to realize we need to change our ways, doesn't it?) So the steward went to the people from whom he had previously collected money to "make friends" with them. How? By reducing their debts.

This might seem to be dishonest yet again, but we need to bear in mind that in the end, the master was pleased with the steward's behavior. So this debt reduction must not have affected the master's pocketbook. Rather, it seems probable that the steward had originally hiked up what the debtors owed the master and put the extra cash in his own pocket. This was the sort of extortion that was common in those days, among tax collectors for example. Now, when the steward was about to lose his position, he thought it wise to go back and return that "dishonest wealth" to the folks who had lost it, and gain some sympathy in the process. So, in the end, the steward was making up for his previous cheating behavior by doing something RIGHT and smart. It's this honest behavior that will enable him to take his place in "eternal dwellings." And surely our honest behavior will have the same effect.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AT MASS
The Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at our weekend liturgy on Sunday October 9th at the 6:00 PM Mass. One of the Church's most beautiful and consoling rituals, this sacrament keeps the Church's promise: "We will not abandon you" in your sickness, suffering, weakness, or struggle.

Please join us! Whether you want to receive the sacrament yourself or pray with and for those who are receiving it, we invite your participation in these liturgies.

Those desiring to receive the sacrament are asked to follow these steps:
1. Sign in at a table in the Narthex of the church and receive a name badge. Wear it plainly visible, so the priest can call you by name.
2. Sit near the end of a row so that the priest can reach you easily. You need not stand during the whole anointing ritual; if you are able to rise when the priest is about two people away from you. If not, have your companion stand.
3. If you are with a family member, friend, or caregiver, that person should sit with you and place a hand on your shoulder as a sign of support while you are being anointed.
4. One of St. Hubert's Ministers of Care will also stand with you as a sign of community support.

It is a privilege to join you in prayer and to have you witness to us faithful and hope filled movement to Christ, even in the midst of suffering. For more information, please call Lynn Howard at 847-885-7703 or email her at Godsgal56@aol.com.

A Catechist is needed to work with the parents/adults in CMI (Children's Ministry of Initiation)
Come join this great ministry. By our Baptisms and Confirmations, we are made a part of the People of God and given the responsibility to work toward the building up of the Church. Take part in a ministry to which God is calling you and live out your Baptism. Please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We begin in October. You would meet with the parents after the 9:00 AM Mass. It is not every Sunday so it allows for a little flexibility.

This would be a great opportunity for two catechists to work together too!
Why is my church using this?
Your church cares about you. Because they care about you, they want to communicate more easily and effectively with you (and be able to get your feedback too). Using Flocknote allows your church to easily send you the information you care about most via email and text message, and gives you the ability to give them essential feedback, too!

Am I "in for good" if I sign up?
Nope! The nice thing about this great service from the church is that it’s always free, and you can unsubscribe at any time.

Is my information secure?
Yes. All of your data is transmitted across an encrypted internet connection, and all of your personal information is stored in secure databases. Your information is never (ever!) sold, rented or given away to any third-parties. Find more info at flocknote.com/privacy

What if I don't have texting?
You can still sign up! As long as you have an email address, your church has a unique link on the Internet that you can use to sign up as well. Just enter your name and your email address, and you can still receive all messages sent out by your church.
We’d like to connect with you!

Get important updates from our church in a timely and convenient way. This new tool we're using lets you choose what info you'd like to receive - via email or text message - from the various ministries and groups in our church. You can unsubscribe any time.

There are 2 easy ways to connect (pick one):

1. Visit our church at:
   www.flocknote.com/StHubertChurch

OR

2. Text sthubert to 84576 from your phone to subscribe to updates.

Text STOP to 84576 to stop txt notifications at any time. Text HELP for help. There is no charge for this service, but your carrier message and data rates may apply. View full terms & conditions at www.flocknote.com/txt.
If you or someone you know is being abused, seek help today. In an emergency, please dial 911. For all other help, please call: Illinois Statewide Domestic Violence Helpline 877-TO END DV (877-863-6338), 877-863-6339 TTY or call WINGS 24-hour hotline 847-221-5680.

For those thinking about becoming a Catholic:

Why might you be thinking about this now, as an adult? You may be looking for more in life, dissatisfied with the emptiness you may be feeling. You might be searching for a way to share faith within your family…you might simply know that there is something missing in your life. All of us, Catholics or not, experience these longings at one time or another. Those of us involved in St. Hubert Parish RCIA process invite you to join us, to begin YOUR journey, to ask questions, pray with us, explore your own spiritual history, and learn about the Catholic Church.

What do I do next?

Inquirers seeking entrance into the Catholic Church meet once per week for instruction and discussion in the essentials of the Catholic Faith. Following the Rite of Acceptance/Welcome, they also attend Sunday Liturgy together as a group and may be dismissed after the Liturgy of the Word to reflect more deeply on the Scriptures and seek to connect them to their daily lives. Each person on this faith journey has a companion in the initial stages, and later chooses a sponsor—a baptized Catholic who provides support, prayers, and guidance. Further, it is the work of the entire parish community to support our inquirers through prayer and example.

Call Marie Staffa at 885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org for more information.
Help Wanted: Ministers of Care

Have you been sick at home or in the hospital and had Communion brought to you by a parish minister? Have you heard a relative in a nursing home tell you how much she appreciates the Communion Service conducted by visitors from the local parish? Have you visited a friend in the hospital and found a card there from a Minister of Care announcing that he had been there to bring Communion?

Visits, such as these, are wonderful boosts to the spirits of the sick and homebound. Through the Ministry of Care, communion is available to them whether they are homebound, hospitalized, or in nursing homes. Given the growing number of residents in local nursing homes, requests we receive for visits to the homebound and changes in the lives of our Ministers of Care, we need to expand our Ministry of Care group. If you can join us in this ministry, we guarantee you will find it extremely rewarding.

Basic 2 Week Training for Ministers of Care

Will be held at St. James Parish, 820 N. Arlington Heights Road, in Arlington Heights on two Saturdays, October 8th & October 15th from 8:30 AM to 3:00 PM.

There is no cost to attend these sessions.

Topics include:
- Spirituality of the Ministry
- Prayer in Care Ministry
- Pastoral Communication Skills
- Ministerial Procedures
- Experience of Suffering
- Theology of the Eucharist

If you are interested, or if you want to explore whether this ministry is for you, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We want to get everyone interested in this ministry interviewed and registered for this fall program by Sept. 28th.

CHILDREN’S MINISTRY OF INITIATION (CMI)

Each of us knows someone who has fallen away from practicing his or her Catholic faith. Many of us have people right in our own families- sons, daughters, and grandchildren. Could they be at a point in their lives where they just need an invitation to return? Could they be looking for a “way in” without embarrassment of guilt?

Perhaps you know of someone who is a non-Catholic. They may have been baptized in another religion or never baptized at all. Do you think they may be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and perhaps becoming Catholic? Do they have children who might be ready to know Jesus better?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, then you should call St Hubert to find out about Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI). We will be starting sessions in October.

This process allows families with children to join other families who are seeking to become closer to God. St. Hubert ministers to the whole family as their children journey toward Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist or full reception into the Catholic Church.

We feel our program is exciting! We’ve had many wonderful families come before you and feel really good about taking that first step to just call and inquire.

Pass this article on to those family members and friends described above. For more information, call Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or email her at mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Domestic Violence

Sunday, October 9
After 12:15 PM Mass
(1:30 – 2:30 PM)
Community Room in the Church Lower Level
729 Grand Canyon Street
Hoffman Estates, IL 60169

Join us to learn about the domestic violence services available in our community.

• Kristin Jordan, MSW, Schaumburg Police Department, will talk about all the services offered by the Schaumburg Police Department’s Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT). This agency takes a victim-sensitive approach as it relates to domestic violence. Their efforts have been instrumental in breaking the cycle of violence as it offers direct assistance to victims who may not otherwise seek out help for themselves.

• Shelley Welch, Sr. Manager of Community Resources for WINGS Program – Giving Flight To Hopes and Dreams

• Michelle Mussman, State Representative of the 56th District and leader of the Northwest Suburban Alliance on Domestic Violence.

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments Served.

Sacramental Life

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

Baptisms

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

Marriages

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

Reconciliation

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

Eucharist for the Sick and Homebound

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
