The Gospel of John

Bring a New American Bible.

Catholic Bible studies are an important way of understanding our faith.
The more we can understand the inspired writings in the books of the Bible, the more we understand our beliefs, celebrations, and rituals.

90 minutes will be devoted to the speaker, followed by 30 minutes of group discussion.

If you did not attend our overview of how Catholics understand and interpret the bible last year, we ask that you view it on YouTube before our first meeting Sept 29.

Go to web and type in sainthubert.org/retreats and click on Week 1, September 10.
Interpreting the Bible as a Catholic Presentation and Video

JUBILEE OF MERCY
SEARCH

God’s mercy does not wait for us to approach the throne of grace. God’s mercy is an active force in the world that searches for us. God’s mercy pursues us, especially when we are lost or alone or seemingly without hope. “Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?” (Luke 15:8)

"'My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad.'" Today's Gospel reading is Jesus' parable about a "rich man," whose name we do not know, and a "poor man," named Lazarus. The story shows both men after death, the rich man in torment, and Lazarus enjoying the comfort that he was deprived of during his earthly life.

It's important to understand that this teaching does not imply that having wealth leads to eternal punishment. Rather, we look at how the rich man USED his wealth and see there the cause of the problem. As Jesus says, this man "dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day." Clearly, he had abundant wealth and focused it all upon serving himself. To further the accusation against him, all the while "lying at his door was a poor man ... who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table." But the rich man paid Lazarus no heed, and THIS is why he now suffers. Because he would not deign to "suffer" at all during his life by sharing his linen clothing or feeding his poor neighbor covered with sores.

This selfishness became the rich man's SELF-condemnation. He put himself in torment because he blatantly disobeyed God's law to love his neighbor. This challenging parable urges us to examine our own behavior and ask how WE use our wealth—whatever size our bank account may be. Are we willing to assist our neighbors in need? Or do we walk by the poor, excusing our own comfort? Let us heed Christ's warning today that such earthly comforts are, in the long run, short-lived.

Parish Pets' Blessing honors the Feast of St. Francis

We often see an image of St. Francis of Assisi giving God glory as Creator by holding up a small creature or raising his arms in praise. This year, the feast of St. Francis, celebrated on October 4th, falls on Tuesday. To allow for more households to participate, Deacon Steve will offer a blessing upon pets on Sunday, October 2nd at 2:00 PM.

This blessing gives thanks for the companionship of our pets, asks God to keep them healthy, and that they be a source of pleasure for the Earth and our homes.

Children and all households who care for God's creatures are invited to bring your pet for the traditional blessing of animals. This will take place about 4:00 PM in the parish lot near the School Meeting Hall.

It is common to bring dogs and cats, but you can also bring your hamsters, birds, bunnies and the like. It is safer for your small pet, such as these, to be in their cage. Let all God's creation be kept from harm, abuse, or neglect as we celebrate the feast of St. Francis, who honored God with respect for all God has put on Earth.

Wedding Workshop

Friday, October 21, 7:30—9:30 PM in the church

Prepare your wedding liturgy. Options for the Rite of Marriage (processions, art & environment, music, etc.) will be discussed.

Listen to a demonstration.

Hearing orchestration possibilities (piano and other instruments) and vocal qualities (some of our cantors will sing for you) can help you in making your music selections.

Who should attend?

Brides and grooms, of course, as well and their mothers, fathers, members of the wedding party, aunts, uncles, and cousins …

Anyone who has an interest in learning more about the Catholic faith and how we celebrate this sacrament …

Anyone who wishes to develop his or her liturgical spirituality …

All are welcome!

For more information, contact Yvonne Cassa, Director of Liturgy at 847-885-7700, ext. 107 or y.cassa@sainthubert.org.
Is God calling you to become Catholic?

It begins with an awareness… or stirring in one’s heart for something more. It could be a curiosity or a sense of longing for fulfillment. Maybe it’s God calling you to explore the life of faith, love, and justice within the community of the Catholic Church….

Contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org for more information.
Practicing Catholics are needed in this ministry to share in the RCIA experience as sponsors and team members.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AT MASS

The Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at our weekend liturgy on Sunday October 9th at the 6:00 PM Mass. One of the Church’s most beautiful and consoling rituals, this sacrament keeps the Church’s promise: “We will not abandon you” in your sickness, suffering, weakness, or struggle.

Please join us! Whether you want to receive the sacrament yourself or pray with and for those who are receiving it, we invite your participation in these liturgies.

Those desiring to receive the sacrament are asked to follow these steps:

1. Sign in at a table in the Narthex of the church and receive a name badge. Wear it plainly visible, so the priest can call you by name.
2. Sit near the end of a row so that the priest can reach you easily. You need not stand during the whole anointing ritual; if you are able to, rise when the priest is about two people away from you. If not, have your companion stand.
3. If you are with a family member, friend, or caregiver, that person should sit with you and place a hand on your shoulder as a sign of support while you are being anointed.
4. One of St. Hubert’s Ministers of Care will also stand with you as a sign of community support.

It is a privilege to join you in prayer and to have you witness to us faithful and hope filled movement to Christ, even in the midst of suffering. For more information, please call Lynn Howard at 847-885-7703 or email her at Godsgal56@aol.com.

Ministry of Care Training
REGISTRATION IS COMING TO A CLOSE FOR THE FALL SESSIONS

Ministers of Care visit ill or injured parishioners in their homes, hospitals, or nursing homes. Ministers of Care respond to those in need through their presence, prayer, and sacrament. This ministry is a powerful witness to God’s presence in the world and God’s special concern for those in need and suffering.

Training for Ministers of Care consists of two Saturdays, October 8th & October 15th (8:30 AM to 3:00 PM)
Training will be held St. James Parish, 820 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights
Participation in both sessions is required.
There is no cost to attend these sessions

Days of enrichment held during the year will provide ongoing support and education to Ministers of Care after their initial training. Many Ministers of Care have served St Hubert Church for many years. To continue this important ministry, additional Ministers of Care are needed. Please consider becoming one.

If you are interested or if you want to explore whether this ministry is for you; contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We want to get everyone interested in this ministry interviewed and registered for this fall program by September 28th.
Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI)
The Catechumenate for Children/Teens, which is an Adaptation of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (R.C.I.A.), is the process by which unbaptized young people of the age of reason come into the Church. (Infant Baptism is only for those children under the age of reason.) Older children who are already baptized, but who are uncatechized, also can prepare to celebrate the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist together with their peers during the Easter Vigil or at a Rite of Full Communion.

The following is the criteria for attendance for CMI:
● Unbaptized; or
● Baptized in another Christian tradition and now wants to be a Catholic; or
● Baptized in the Catholic Church but has had little or no Religious Education, training, catechism classes, etc. and wants to celebrate First Communion;

For more information, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Urgent need!
A Catechist is needed to work with the parents/adults in CMI (Children’s Ministry of Initiation).

Parents and Children are coming back to the church and we are excited!

Many families have heard God’s call and want to reconnect to the life of the church and Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI) is here to help them. In CMI we grow, worship, learn, and reach out to each other in what is most important: the faith formation of our children and their families. We know that faith begins in the home, and the wonderful catechists who volunteer in our program are committed to helping children in the ways and teachings of Jesus Christ. We pray that you will help us by taking an active role in nurturing the gift of faith in the lives of these families by sharing your faith with the parents. Please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We begin in October. You would meet with the parents after the 9:00 AM Mass. It is not every Sunday, so it allows for a little flexibility. This would be a great opportunity for two catechists to work together too!

“All your children shall be taught by the Lord, and great shall be the peace of your children.”

26th Sunday of Ordinary Time

What was the rich man’s sin in this Sunday’s Gospel story? What tortured him after he died? Being wealthy is not sinful; what tortured his soul was his decision to not share his wealth with Lazarus while he had the opportunity.

Death is not a closing of life; it’s the opening up of our souls so we become fully alive in God’s love. Death awakens us to the full reality of who God is and all the gifts he has given us and how well – or how poorly – we’ve invested those gifts.

Whenever we share the gifts that we’ve received, we’re investing in God’s kingdom. In God’s economy, our investments always pay off very well. We receive more than we give away so that we can share even more.

In contrast, when we protect and keep something for ourselves, we lose it like a flower that’s "protected" in a dark box. The flower wilts. It cannot grow. Everything we try to protect ends up useless or even poisonous. We stagnate spiritually as well as emotionally. The gift rots. Our selfishness destroys our union with God who is the Master of Generosity.

Every day, we’re given opportunities to share something – some blessing from God – with others.

Perhaps the rich man in the parable turned away from Lazarus because of the poor man’s disease. He was probably a leper and highly contagious.

Do we share less because we feel disgust toward those who need what we have? Or maybe fear holds us back. Or resentment. To be united to God and experience everlasting joy, we cannot live in this state. We have to let love motivate us. Love has no limits, it’s always generous.

In the second reading, we hear: “Compete well for the faith.” Against whom do we compete? Ourselves! Are you holier today? Are you spiritually stronger because you’ve worked hard at becoming more loving and generous?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Bring to mind someone you find disgusting. How generous are you toward him or her? If you’ve missed an opportunity to share a blessing with this person, the Sacrament of Reconciliation will give you strength, through special grace, to overcome this sin.

2. Give examples of times when people turn away from opportunities to be generous. Explain reasons why this happens.

3. How have you personally been a Lazarus who was denied what you needed because of prejudice? What did you learn from that which changed your own attitudes about generosity?
“Nobody gets to heaven without a letter of reference from the poor!” That’s an axiom attributed to James Forbes, the pastor of Riverside Church in New York City.

He’s right. If Jesus is to be believed, then we need to believe that the poor stand before us always as that place where we are judged. We get to heaven (or don’t) on the basis of our response to the poor. The cross of Christ is the key to life and the cross is forever being erected at that place where the excluded ones, the poor, suffer. Only at that place can we learn the crucified-wisdom that, at the end of day, puts us inside the circle of discipleship, or, stated in another way, opens up for us the gates of heaven.

But, as we know, it’s not easy to actually feed the hungry, clothe the naked, console the sorrowful, or help the downtrodden. Why?

Mainly because we never see them. We think we do, but in reality we don’t. In fact, that’s the point the gospels make when they point out the dangers of riches, namely, wealth blinds us so that we don’t see the poor.

We see this clearly in the famous, gospel parable about the rich man who dines sumptuously every day, while a poor man, Lazarus, sits under his table and eats the crumbs that fall there. The rich man dies and goes to Hades and, from there, he finally sees Lazarus – implying that he had never seen him before even though Lazarus had sat just a few feet away from him during his life.

John Donahue, a biblical scholar, makes this point about that parable: “The rich man is condemned not because he is rich but because he never saw Lazarus at his gate: the first time he sees him is from Hades, emphasized by the somewhat solemn phrase, ‘He lifted up his eyes, and saw’. Here the text is bitterly ironic. In life there was a chasm between himself and Lazarus because of wealth and power; in death this chasm still exists.”

The real danger of wealth is that it causes a “blindness” that renders us incapable of seeing the poor. Jean Vanier, in the Massey Lectures at the University of Toronto in the late 1990s, made the same point: The “great chasm that can’t be bridged”, he suggests, exists already now, in the present distance between the rich and poor. The next life simply eternalizes a present situation where the rich and poor are separated in a way so that one cannot cross over to the other. Why?

According to the gospels, the major reason is that the rich simply don’t see the poor.

It is easy to miss the point here: Jesus isn’t saying that wealth is bad. Nor is he saying that the poor are virtuous and the rich are not. Indeed the rich are often just as virtuous in their private lives as the poor. We sometimes naively glamorize poverty, but poverty isn’t beautiful and, often times, isn’t particularly moral either. A lot of violence, crime, sexual irresponsibility, domestic breakdown, drug abuse, and ugliness of all kinds, happens on the poorer side of the tracks. The rich are no worse than the poor, in these things.

But where the rich are worse is in vision, eyesight. When we are rich, we have a congenital incapacity to see the poor and, in not seeing them, we never learn the wisdom of the crucified. That’s why it’s hard, as Jesus said, for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

That’s also why it’s hard for rich nations and rich individuals to reach across the great divide that separates us from the poor. We try, but in the richest nation in the world, the United States, one in every six children still falls below the poverty line and, worldwide, despite all the resources and good-will on this planet, one billion people subsist on less than a dollar a day and thirty thousand children die every day from diseases that could easily be prevented by simply supplying clean drinking water. There’s a gap that we can’t find a way to cross.

We see – but we don’t see! We feel for the poor – but we don’t really feel for them! We reach out – but we never reach across. The gap between the rich and poor is in fact widening, not narrowing. It’s widening worldwide, between nations, and it’s widening inside of virtually every culture. The rich are becoming richer and the poor are being left ever further behind. Almost all the economic boom of the last twenty years has sent its windfall straight to the top, benefiting those who already have the most.

What Jesus asks of us is simply that we see the poor, that we do not let affluence become a narcotic that knocks out our eyesight. Riches aren’t bad and poverty isn’t beautiful. But, nobody gets to heaven without a letter of reference from the poor.

Let’s Talk About

Domestic Violence

Sunday, October 9
After 12:15 PM Mass
(1:30 – 2:30 PM)
Community Room – Church Lower Level
729 Grand Canyon Street
Hoffman Estates, IL 60169

Join us to learn about the domestic violence services available in our community.

• Kristin Jordan, MSW, Schaumburg Police Department, will talk about all the services offered by the Schaumburg Police Department’s Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT). This agency takes a victim-sensitive approach as it relates to domestic violence. Their efforts have been instrumental in breaking the cycle of violence as it offers direct assistance to victims who may not otherwise seek out help for themselves.

• Shelley Welch, Sr. Manager of Community Resources for WINGS Program – Giving Flight To Hopes and Dreams

• Michelle Mussman, State Representative of the 56th District and leader of the Northwest Suburban Alliance on Domestic Violence.

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments Served.
Grandparents’ Day 2016
A St. Hubert School Tradition!

Grandparents’ Day is a long standing tradition at St. Hubert Catholic School. Students love to share what they are learning at school with grandparents, aunts, uncles, and special friends. We love our families! Nobody can do for children what grandparents and family members do!

Casual Networking Night
September 26, 6:30—8:30 PM
St. Hubert Ministry Center
729 Grand Canyon
Hoffman Estates, IL
Continuing this popular meeting format, the Saint Hubert Job and Networking Ministry will again feature a casual networking opportunity. We will have Career Subject GURUs circulating in the crowd to seek out and ask your key questions of. This is a great opportunity to visit with us and some of the experts in the hiring field, as well as to make some new key contacts and connections, while enjoying refreshments.

For questions regarding the St. Hubert Job Ministry events, contact Bob Podgorski at St. Hubert 12 Hoffman Estates

FOR THE NEWCOMER: Join us at St. Hubert at 6:00 PM prior to our regular meetings. We’ll offer a one hour program on how to use a networking meeting effectively, the tools you’ll need such as; The Elevator Speech; How to do a Handbill; and how to generate the contacts you need.

The face of homelessness has changed. Financial instability now affects a wider segment of our population, extending into the middle class and even beyond. It encompasses the young and the old, the unemployed and the underemployed.

A PADS (Public Action to Deliver Shelter) center is located at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Schaumburg and they have been providing shelter on Friday nights for 25 years. They currently are able to accommodate up to 40 guests each Friday. Unfortunately, the mattresses (pads) currently being used are also 25 years old. Their goal, with our help, is to replace as many as they can this fall before their new season begins on October 7. Their cost is $75 per mattress.

If you can help reach this goal, please place your check in the “donation box” located in the Narthex by the Ministry station. Please make these checks payable to “Prince of Peace” and write “new pads” on the memo line. We will be taking donations through Sunday, October 2.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, or any other questions concerning volunteering at this location, please call Marcia Long, 847-309-4575.

TAG
Do you ever feel bored or confused during Mass? Do you find yourself distracted or have difficulty staying focused? Then our upcoming TAG series is for you! Starting Sunday, September 18th and continuing every Sunday night for 5 weeks, we’re going to be examining the Mass. You’ll be able to ask questions and learn more about why the Mass is so important. Join us in the church lower level on Sunday night 7:15—8:30 PM.

September is National Hunger Action Month, and you can be a Hunger Hero by joining Catholic Charities in the fight to end hunger in our communities.

The need is tremendous. As many as 1 in 8 families in the northwest suburbs struggles to put food on the table. Each year nearly 30,000 people turn to Catholic Charities’ Des Plaines office for nutritious meals through our food pantry and twice-weekly supper program. In all, we distribute nearly 265,000 meals every year to those in need in the north and northwest suburbs.

You can help those who suffer from hunger and food insecurity in your community by collecting canned and dry goods for our food pantry or making a financial donation to our Nourish Your Neighbor program. Donations can be dropped off or mailed to Catholic Charities, 1717 Rand Road, Des Plaines, IL 60016.

For more information contact Northwest Regional Director Mike Waters at 847-376-2118 or mwaters@catholiccharities.net.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
