27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
"When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do." What a humble attitude this would be! Jesus challenges us today not to boast, not to seek special praise, not to consider ourselves worthy of some great reward when we follow him. Rather, he honestly reminds us that it is simply our duty to do all we "have been commanded."

God made us. Our lives are a result of his loving initiative. Giving ourselves back to him through "the obedience of faith" (as the Second Vatican Council called it), is truly the only appropriate response. Of course we are free NOT to practice this obedience. We are free to reject God, to ignore his commandments, even to make ourselves his enemies. But nonetheless it remains true that what we ought to do is to love God and follow his ways. And Jesus suggests today that this simple obedience should be a given in our lives. Following the commandments is merely what we are obligated to do.

But, let's not forget that we are also free to do more. Because of the nature of love, we can never really exhaust it. We can always love more, serve more devotedly, give more generously. Perhaps Jesus is calling us to focus less on meeting the bare-bones requirements of Christianity, and instead to shift our efforts farther in the direction of going above and beyond the call of duty. Instead of asking what is the least I HAVE to do, we would do well to ask, what ELSE can I do? What else can I do to show my gratitude to God for all he has given me? What else can I do to serve his people and nurture the world he has made? Let us aim to become truly profitable servants.

Parish Pets' Blessing honors the Feast of St. Francis
We often see an image of St. Francis of Assisi giving God glory as Creator by holding up a small creature or raising his arms in praise. This year, the feast of St. Francis, celebrated on October 4th, falls on Tuesday. To allow for more households to participate, Deacon Steve will offer a blessing upon pets on Sunday, October 2nd at 2:00 PM. This will take place about 4:00 PM in the parish lot near the School Meeting Hall.

It is common to bring dogs and cats, but you can also bring your hamsters, birds, bunnies and the like. It is safer for your small pet, such as these, to be in their cage. Let all God’s creation be kept from harm, abuse, or neglect as we celebrate the feast of St. Francis, who honored God with respect for all God has put on Earth.

Anointing of the Sick
The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is intended for those who are ill. The Rite consists of the “laying on of hands” and the anointing of the hands and forehead of the sick person. The illness need not be life threatening to receive the sacrament; and in fact, it is common practice now for people to be anointed if they are suffering with a chronic disease or addiction and wish to receive the special grace of this Sacrament. This Sacrament is not to be confused with the old notion of the “last rites” which were reserved only for persons in imminent danger of death.

Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick
next Sunday, October 9th
at the 6:00 PM Mass

CMI (Children’s Ministry of Initiation) needs your help!

Parents and Children are coming back to the Church! Families have heard God’s call and want to reconnect to the life of the church and Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI) is here to help them.

We are in need of a Catechist to work with adults/parents in CMI on Sunday mornings.

Contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700 ext 124, or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We begin in October. You would meet with the parents after the 9:00 AM Mass. It is not every Sunday, so it allows for a little flexibility.

This would be a great opportunity for two catechists to work together too!

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI)

The Best Exercise... Walking with God

Children’s Ministry of Initiation (CMI) is a family centered program. If you wish to have your child initiated into the Catholic Church (to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist), but have not been actively practicing and wish to resume practice, this process would be a great place for your family to journey together. The instructional sessions take place over the course of the standard school year for two years. This process provides for the catechetical (teaching religious principle by questions and answers) needs of the students, and guides them through the various rites of the Church, which will lead to their initiation during the Easter Vigil.

For more information, contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700 ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org.

Training Session for New Lectors Happening Soon!

Initial training for new lectors will take place on October 19th from 7:00-9:00 PM in the church. This training is for any adult or teen who wishes to be part of the Lector Ministry. Deacon Allen and Jim Elder facilitate the session. They bring to the evening a desire for drawing others to the lector ministry, an engaging, experiential training, and a love for God’s word.

This session will explore what it means to be a lector and how it enriches our relationship with scripture. It will cover methods of preparing for reading scripture and skill-building, such as volume, eye contact, pausing, and phrasing. All of us have a gift. If you love the scripture and are able to read well publicly, please consider attending this training. This ministry offers a way to share your gifts and provides necessary training to grow as a lector. A workbook for preparation will be provided.

Thank You!
Those two words are simply not enough to convey the deep appreciation I have for the St. Hubert community; both Church and school. As you may know, on July 23rd, our son Jackson was critically injured. Our lives were upended tremendously. It’s been an unimaginable journey that no parent should ever have to endure. While Jackson still has a long road of recovery, we made it through the most critical time with your help.

Thank you for the encouraging words, the quiet thoughts, the beautiful cards, the wonderful homemade cards, the gift cards, the monetary gifts and fundraiser, the visits to Michigan, the phone calls/texts, the delicious meals, the unconditional support and most importantly, the PRAYERS. I truly believe that he is alive today because he was blanketed in prayer. I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

The face of homelessness has changed. Financial instability now affects a wider segment of our population, extending into the middle class and even beyond. It encompasses the young and the old, the unemployed and the underemployed.

A PADS (Public Action to Deliver Shelter) center is located at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Schaumburg and they have been providing shelter on Friday nights for 25 years. They currently are able to accommodate up to 40 guests each Friday. Unfortunately, the mattresses (pads) currently being used are also 25 years old. Their goal, with our help, is to replace as many as they can this fall before their new season begins on October 7. Their cost is $75 per mattress.

If you can help reach this goal, please place your check in the “donation box” located in the Narthex by the Ministry station. Please make these checks payable to “Prince of Peace” and write “new pads” on the memo line. We will be taking donations through Sunday, October 2.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, or any other questions concerning volunteering at this location, please call Marcia Long, 847-309-4575.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 2, 2016
Thank you for your generous response to help refugees with your contributions to the Welcome to America Pack.

Refugee Families

We welcomed our first refugee family to America on August 9th. They are a group of three adults—Azizah, age 27, Miriam, age 34, and Mohammad, age 31—originally from Burma, but they have been living in Malaysia. They are part of the Rohingya ethnic group, who are often said to be the world’s most persecuted minority. The Rohingya people are an ethnic Muslim group from Burma who are denied citizenship in their own country. Because of this, their rights to study, work, travel, marry, practice their religion, and access health services are restricted. Recently more Rohingya are fleeing Burma in flimsy boats. If they are able to make it to other southeast Asian countries (usually Thailand, the Phillipines, or Malaysia), they are at risk for employment exploitation and discrimination. We welcome them to the Chicago area.

Our second family was welcomed to their new home on August 22nd. Rawad & Doaa, their daughter Yasmeen, age 4, and son Rayan, 7 months are Shiite Muslims from Iraq. They have family living in Chicago who will help them adjust to their new home.

On August 27th we welcomed our third family from Africa. Chantal, his wife Ngirumfasha, and their two sons Daniel, age 5 and Fideri, age 3 are Christians from the Democratic Republic of the Congo. They are Banyamulenge Tutsi who are the targets of ethnic cleansing in the Congo.

We have one more Welcome Pack to distribute to another family. We are in need of volunteers who are willing to drive the items to Chicago. You should have a mini-van or SUV so we can fit all the items in your vehicle. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Stephanie at 847-885-7700, ext. 114 or youthministry@sainthubert.org.

HELP NEEDED!

The Baptism team needs help! We need extra hands to help with Sunday Baptisms. It will not take a lot of your time, and I promise, you will find it rewarding.

Time/Talent Needs:

Baptismal Ministers provide a climate of hospitality for the parents of the babies coming for baptism, as well as their relatives and friends. These ministers also assist the priest or deacon as necessary.

Qualifications:

A sense of hospitality, an ability to make others feel comfortable and welcome, and a love for children. Training will be provided on the baptismal ritual and theology, as well as the opportunity to observe one Sunday afternoon baptism.

Level of Commitment:

Help with Baptisms once every six weeks: Sunday 1:15-2:30 PM.

Contact:

Please contact Mike Keenan at 1-847-885-7703 or mkeenan@sainthubert.org.

This Gospel reading is disturbing. After doing a lot of hard work, the last thing we want to hear from God is: "You're an unprofitable servant." Think of how hard you work. Whether it's at home or for a business or in ministry, we're never rewarded enough, right? Instead, we're given more work! At home, we try to relax after a busy day but one of the kids or an elderly relative needs help. On the job, we're given more work because our colleagues are either too lazy or they've been laid off. In the parish, most of the work gets done by only 10 to 20% of the people.

Jesus says that our reaction to all this should be: "Lord, I'm an unworthy servant of your kingdom, because I've only done what's expected of me." Is he implying that it's right to be burdened with more to do when we're tired? Not at all. What he is telling us is that there's a difference between doing what's required of us and volunteering to go the extra mile because we love and care.

When we stop short of going the extra mile, it's usually because we have an unbalanced view of faith. Unaware that we're serving Christ in our everyday tasks, and unaware that we're serving others with Christ, we settle for a mediocre, half-hearted attitude. We limit our potential. And then we're astonished that Jesus would suggest that we can command trees to cast themselves into the sea! When was the last time you saw that happen?

Here's the connection between doing more than the minimum and having a supernatural faith: For both to occur, we have to know that God's love is complete and unconditional and available all the time and that from this comes his desire to serve us. Knowing this, we're confident that he can accomplish anything he wants in us and through us. If we care like he cares, we want to go the extra mile with him. And then when we get hurt or tired, he restores us. Do you believe that yet?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What's your mulberry tree? What problem is so deeply rooted that it seems immovable?

2. Who in your life is so stuck in sin that you've lost hope? Can you surprise that person with gestures of love that are unexpected and unrequested?

3. Describe examples of service that show the difference between doing our duty and doing more. How does volunteering to serve above and beyond what's expected reveal God's love?
In her brilliant, haunting book, Random Passage, Bernice Morgan describes the physical and psychological trials of the first families that journeyed from England to Newfoundland to settle at Cape Random.

Life was hard. Food was scarce and of only one kind, fish; drinking water was bad, the climate was harsh, and sometimes people died because there were no doctors or medicines. Everyone had to work constantly. There were no luxuries. The struggle was for life itself and starvation was ever a threat. Then there were the cold winters with inadequate housing.

Beyond all of this, there were other pains, not of the physical sort, but of the kind that come to a community that consists of less than 20 persons living in complete isolation. There were, of course, joys as well, but the reality of life in those early years was far different from the way it is often romantically depicted in books and films.

Near the end of the book, Morgan describes this scene: The women of the community, six of them, are making soap out of lye, ashes and lard. They are boiling this mixture over a fire and all of them are hot, dirty, tired and dressed in clothes (the only clothes they have) that should have been thrown away years ago.

A ship from St. John’s, that only came about twice a year, had docked briefly the day before. One of the women, Meg, whose daughter had left the Cape and is now living in St. John’s, has received a package from that daughter. As the women take a break from the work, she opens the package.

It is a big package and she had hoped it might be a lamp, something practical, but its contents catch her and the others by surprise. It contains an oblong wooden box holding a fan made of ivory and cream lace. It is the most beautiful thing any of them has ever seen. On it is painted a picture of a woman on a swing, wearing a pink dress, surrounded by roses, with blue ribbons and flowers in her hair.

All of the women, without knowing exactly why, are stunned into silence and a certain embarrassing vapid conversation. Suddenly one of them makes a gulping sound and begins to cry. Tears literally splash on the delicately carved fan depicting the imaginary, extraordinarily graced, woman on the swing. One of the women, whose soul is what Morgan is really describing in this book, is named Lavinia Andrews. She is somewhat younger than the others and she is particularly stunned by the beauty of the fan and especially by what is depicted on it, a woman seemingly living without poverty, need and limitation.

Lavinia looks at the woman on the fan and wonders: “Does she cry, go to the outhouse, does she bleed, eat, does she love someone?” (Random Passage, p. 189).

That night in bed, unable to sleep, thinking about the woman on the fan, Lavinia is haunted by a sense of loss and longing stronger than she had ever felt. She clearly is not the woman on that swing, or any swing: “She is 32. She does not own a single pretty thing; had never heard another human being say he, or she, loved her; cannot remember a day when she did not have to work. She thinks about her life and the lives of the other women on the Cape and resolves she will leave in the fall. “Like Emma (the woman who had sent the fan), she will go away to St. John’s, or perhaps back to England. The idea fills her with such bleak despair that she cries herself to sleep” (pp. 189-190).

Like an extraordinary painting, this incident touches that intimate part of us where the brain, heart and gut commune without words. What is pictured is how poverty makes a soul both more nameless and more precious all at the same time. What is Morgan showing us through the soul of Lavinia Andrews? There is always a danger in over-explaining a painting and perhaps even a greater one in moralizing about it. Jesus says, speak the truth in parables. Perhaps he, Jesus, looking at the soul of Lavinia Andrews, might say this to those of us who do own beautiful things and generally live without gratitude: “Which of you, with a servant plowing or minding the sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, ‘Come and have your meal at once? Would he not more likely say, ‘Get my supper ready; faster your belt and wait on me while I eat and drink. You yourself can eat and drink afterwards’? “Must the master be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been asked to do, say, ‘We are useless servants; we have done no more than our duty’” (Luke 17:7-10).

Domestic Violence Outreach Ministry

Let’s Talk About

Domestic Violence

Sunday, October 9
After 12:15 PM Mass
(1:30 – 2:30 PM)
Community Room – Church Lower Level
729 Grand Canyon Street
Hoffman Estates, IL 60169

Join us to learn about the domestic violence services available in our community.

- Kristin Jordan, MSW, Schaumburg Police Department, will talk about all the services offered by the Schaumburg Police Department’s Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT). This agency takes a victim-sensitive approach as it relates to domestic violence. Their efforts have been instrumental in breaking the cycle of violence as it offers direct assistance to victims who may not otherwise seek out help for themselves.

- Shelley Welch, Sr. Manager of Community Resources for WINGS Program – Giving Flight To Hopes and Dreams

- Michelle Mussman, State Representative of the 56th District and leader of the Northwest Suburban Alliance on Domestic Violence.

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments Served.
First Grade used the text David Goes to School, by David Shannon, to engage in their first Close Reading activity. After reading the story, students analyzed the character David and found text evidence to support why we need classroom rules. Students worked together to make a list of classroom “dos and don’ts” based on the actions of the character David. To further their text connections, students created their own David character and wrote about a classroom rule that helps them do their best in school!

In Math, first graders had lots of fun exploring the Commutative Property of Addition. Students worked with a partner and used manipulatives to create number sentences. In doing so, they discovered that addends can be arranged in any order to still get the same sum.

In Science, first Graders kicked off their Apple Unit by using apples to engage in some fun STEM activities. Students worked together in groups to plan and design the best way to create an apple house, an apple boat, and an apple tower. Many discoveries were made! Students learned how to make an apple house sturdy enough to stand on its own. They found out how many apples they could stack before the tower fell, and they were amazed to find out that apples float!
Fall Spirituality Conference
Sacred Rhythms: Arranging Our Lives for Spiritual Transformation
Presented by Ruth Haley Barton

In this conference, you will be encouraged to be in touch with your deepest spiritual desire, to be honest about that in God’s presence, and to arrange your life for what you say you really want. Based on her best-selling book, Sacred Rhythms, Ruth Haley Barton will lead us in reflecting on the role of desire in the spiritual life and the key spiritual practices that open us up to God’s transforming presence. Come for a morning of teaching and guided experiences along with practical ideas for weaving spiritual disciplines into our everyday life.

Family #26
Recap: This family consists of a mother with two daughters ages 14 and 7 years old.
Our mom is preparing for her move the end of September. It is a wonderful blessing that this family has secured permanent, affordable housing in Elgin. Through her discipline and assistance through the New Hope Program, she has saved enough for the move and a security deposit. She is so excited to move to Elgin. She reported that their Elgin home has new appliances and has been recently remodeled.

She reports that her children will remain in school for the rest of the year and then transfer to Elgin Public Schools as they wanted to finish this year out. Our mom is still working at her two jobs and she plans to keep them both even after she moves.

This family sends gratitude to our cluster Parishioners! New Hope joins this family as we celebrate this client’s victory!

Family #27
Recap: Single mom with a son.
Our mom is still playing catch up with her bills. She is working on getting her rent caught up. She made progress and continues to work on all of her goals. She is set to exit at the end of October. She reported that her sister is now assisting her with watching her son while she picks up shifts as a bartender and maintains her current job. Her son is doing well and he is also responding positively to therapy at home and in school.

This family is so grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice cluster of Parishes! New Hope sends sincere gratitude to all of your parishioners!

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
