Join us on Friday, November 18 for a Parish Thank You Dinner

6:00 PM Fellowship Dinner at 6:45 PM

Please RSVP by calling the office, ext. 101 or email mdoyle@sainthubert.org.
Dear Friends,

Last week’s bulletin already went to press when the Cubs won the World Series. I take this opportunity to congratulate the Chicago Cubs and all their fans, especially those in our parish. Since the Cubs were playing in Cleveland, they were one hour ahead of us and won the game on November 3, the feast of St. Hubert. Thanks to our parishioner, Elaine Leschok, this was reported by her son on WGN sports news. He ended by saying, “Do you know who the Pastor is…Fr. Rizzo.” We received some good comments, and are happy to do our part for a Cubs Win.

This week, some parishioners will be receiving a letter from me regarding the Archdiocesan Capital Campaign, which usually takes place in January. Certainly, I encourage all parishioners to support the Archdiocese, but want to inform you that we will be required to have a Capital Campaign next August or September called To Teach Who Christ Is. Our goal will be close to $1.8 million. 40% of this will go to the Campaign for the future of Catholic Schools. The other 60% will remain here at the parish for our expenses. Most likely, this money will be needed to install the fire suppression system (sprinkling) of our school.

I am asking you to pray about how you want to make your future donations regarding the Archdiocesan Catholic Appeal in January, and/or the parish campaign at the end of the summer. Some of you may be able to do both. If you have to choose one, it would be better for the parish if you contribute to the later Campaign, To Teach Who Christ Is.

Our search committee for a Music Director has been working diligently checking resumes and interviewing. We have about 10 applicants, with only about 4 who fulfill all the requirements for the job description. I will keep you informed, but realistically, I do not see us having this position filled until the New Year.

Another update regarding the sprinkling of our school, the officials of Hoffman Estates have been very cooperative in working with us on a reasonable plan and timetable to execute this enormous project of $1 million. Presently, the legal department and officials from the Archdiocese are working with their counterparts in Hoffman Estates to develop a fair and equitable plan. Again, I will keep you informed of any new developments.

On November 18, we will have our annual Thank You Dinner for all those who are involved in any ministry here at St. Hubert. It will begin at 6:00 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room with dinner served at 6:45 p.m. Please RSVP by calling the office, ext. 101 or email mdoyle@sainthubert.org.

As I mentioned in previous letters, my term as Pastor will end June 30, 2017. At that time, the Archbishop will appoint a new Pastor. If he is new to pastoring, I may remain for a short while to help him with the transition. At the appropriate time, I will retire after working 43 years as a priest in the Archdiocese.

Bishop Rassas, our Vicar, along with the Priests’ Placement Board would like to meet with parishioners on Monday, November 28, at 7:00 p.m. in the lower church. Prior to the Parish meeting they will meet with the parish paid employees, then the PPC and the Finance Council. The purpose of this meeting will be to surface parishioner feedback on what you would like to see in a new Pastor. I am not permitted to be present at these meetings.

Clearly, we are in a time of transition for our country and our parish. Let us not forget that we are disciples of Jesus Christ, who will never abandon us and will be with us forever. I ask you to pray for our parish and me.

"You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name." This is not a pleasant prophecy. On the contrary, Jesus' somber words may strike us with a bit of fear and make us wonder if we will ever actually face such a tragic scenario. We are fortunate to live in a country where religious freedom is tolerated, and of course we hope that this continues to be the case. But the sad fact is that right now, there are Christians in other parts of the world who are living out the reality of these prophetic words. For these men, women, and children of faith, the name of Jesus truly is a cause of persecution and martyrdom.

Let us imagine for a moment that the tables were turned. Suppose we were the ones suffering from the violent advances of anti-Christian forces. Suppose we were the ones losing our homes, fleeing for our lives, tending to our wounded loved ones, or worse. Where would we look for help? To other Christians, most likely, to those who would sympathize with our commitments but who still had the resources to assist us.

We ARE those other Christians. We are the ones who share a common faith with these suffering brothers and sisters on the other side of the globe. We are the ones with the resources to help them, even if it is just in a small way. Our prayers for their protection and peace cannot be underestimated, but neither can we dismiss the significance of contributing in any way possible to those organizations that are working on the front lines to assist the suffering Church throughout the world. May we all do what we can to bring relief to those who need it most.

AWARENESS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior. It is used to exert power and control over another person. It is found in the context of a dating, family or household relationship.

Questions to ask:
- Does your partner isolate you from family and friends?
- Are you being physically, psychologically, economically or sexually abused?
- Is your partner attempting to destroy your self-esteem and self-confidence?

Domestic violence victims often report:
- “I didn’t know it was abuse.”
- “I thought I could fix it.”
- “I didn’t tell anyone.”

These are traps that keep people bound.

GET HELP. YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

Domestic violence. Dating Violence. No Excuse!

If you or someone you know is being abused, seek help today. In an emergency, please dial 911. For all other help, please call: Illinois Statewide Domestic Violence Helpline 877 TO END DV (877-863-6338), 877-863-6339 TTY or call WINGS 24-hour hotline 847-221-5680.

Ps 144:1b, 2-9, 10

Jesus says that the day will come when not one stone of the temple will be left untorn down. He’s reminding us that everything here on earth is temporary.

Think of what you enjoy here on earth. It’s temporary. What causes you to suffer? It too is temporary. What of this world do you depend on? It’s temporary. What do you admire, trust, save, hope for, spend working hours to achieve and plan relaxation hours for a reward? It’s all temporary — unless we are using it for the Kingdom of God.

We know that we’re supposed to focus on the things of God, things that will last for all of eternity, but we’re uncomfortable with the blind faith that this requires. We are like the disciples who looked for God’s vindication against injustices and immorality in the temporal world: wars, earthquakes, plagues and famines. We wish that Jesus would hurry up with his Second Coming and stop all the evils and hardships.

In our daily lives, we seek God’s help, but we look for something tangible upon which to base our faith. We want to know the future; we don’t like the insecurity of not knowing what God has planned. We depend on what we can see more than we depend on God whom we cannot see, so we ask God for signs.

However, the best way to walk forward with God is to raise one foot in the air for the next step, and — while that foot is still in the air — ask God: “Where do You want me to place my foot next?”

This takes balance; if we don’t remain centered in God, we teeter and fall. If God doesn’t show us immediately where to put our foot down to move forward, we can either fall away or fall into his hand.

God’s hand is never temporary! God’s hand provides true security based only on his endless, all-powerful, all-knowing love. It doesn’t always feel that way, but his love and protection never fail.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What help from God are you waiting for? What battles plagued your life? Do you believe that your problem is temporary or do you fear that it’s permanent?

2. What will you do this week to entrust yourself to the wisdom and guidance of Jesus?

3. When waiting for God’s guidance, how do you stay centered on God? How do you find and hold your balance while you’ve got one foot waver in the air?

4. What if you were to put your foot down in the wrong place and move in the wrong direction? Does God protect you then? How?
There is a popular theme within Christian apologetics that goes something like this: Christianity is the most hated of all religions and that is a certain proof of its truth. The logic works this way: If we are so unfairly hated, we must be doing something right. Truth and innocence draw hatred. Jesus was hated, and so are we!

We need to be careful with that because, among other things, today, thanks to certain radical fundamentalists claiming to be Muslim, Islam is probably the most hated of all religions, and hated not because of what is true and best inside of it. Not only innocence and truth draw hatred. Being hated is not always a good sign or an indication that you (alone among the unfaithful) are holding to the real truth. It may be that you have made a vow of alienation rather than of love. Both eventually make you hated.

Being hated is only a criterion of carrying the truth if you have made a vow of love. Jesus wasn’t trying to be divisive and unpopular, he was trying to speak his truth in ways that precisely didn’t alienate and didn’t provoke hatred. But that isn’t always possible. He was trying to love others, purely and in the truth, but it eventually made him an object of hatred.

That isn’t surprising.

There is a certain proclivity within human nature to hate innocence and goodness. We see this illustrated in many books and movies. Notice how in so many stories that depict the struggle between good and evil, invariably, the bad will eventually train its sights on and fixate on what is its opposite, innocence and goodness. In most every dramatic epic, eventually the guns of the bad guys will end up trained upon the most innocent and loving person in town. It’s the saint who invariably bears the brunt of wound and hurt inside of a community. It is the saint who eventually is the scapegoat. It happened to Jesus. It happens to all goodness; by its stripes we are healed.

Why?

Because such is the anatomy of hatred. Hatred is a perverse form of love, love’s grief. It’s what love becomes when, because of wound and circumstance, it cannot be warm and reciprocal. Rollo May once famously stated that hatred is not the opposite of love. Indifference is. Hatred might instead be described as cold, wounded, frustrated, and grieving love, love gone sour. You can’t conjure-up a powerful hatred for someone unless at some level you first love him or her. When love is wounded and frustrated, the tears it provokes can be warm and cleansing, but they can also be bitter and cold. Cold grief. Hatred with its children, jealousy, bitterness, murderous feelings.

That’s part of the anatomy of love and that’s why love can so quickly turn into hatred and why most murders are domestic. When love breaks down what follows is rarely indifference (a parting in good friendship). What follows is often hatred, bitterness, coldness. Affairs mostly grow sour, not indifferent, and the same is, sadly, true of love in almost all its aspects.

What’s to be learned from this?

That hatred needs to be understood, whether it’s at a personal level or at the level of whole civilizations hating each other. Hatred is not the opposite of love. It is a perverse form of love, cold grief, bitter disaffection, that needs not to be met in kind, with a reciprocal form of coldness, but with warmth and forgiveness, tough as these are in the face of their opposite.

One of the great moral struggles of our lives lies precisely in this. When people hate us what spontaneous feeling rise within us? Feelings of coldness and anger, along with the wish, secret and not-so-secret, that their lives will go badly and that, in the ensuing misery, they will be forced to see their error and have to swallow against their will the fact that they are wrong, particularly about us. Hatred wants the other to choke on his or her own error.

But none of that will be productive for those who hate us, or for ourselves. Only if good things begin to happen in the lives of those who hate us, only if they feel the warmth of love and blessing, can their hearts let go of the bitterness, jealousy, and hatred that’s there. Hearts don’t thaw out inside of bitterness and jealousy. They break. It’s not when people are bitter that they admit the error of their ways and the unfairness of their hatred. Hearts begin to see how wrong their hatred is only when the very object of their jealousy and hatred is itself strong enough to not give back in kind, but instead to absorb the hatred for what it is, wounded love, love gone cold when it would want to be warm.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

As the Jubilee of Mercy concludes, I invite you to reflect on opportunities to continue accompanying the poor in our midst, including through the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). For over forty-five years, CCHD has been a living example of our Church’s social teaching, offering a ‘hand-up’ to empower the poor to help themselves improve their lives and the livelihood of their families and others. This year, CCHD is funding twenty-eight organizations that are addressing the roots causes of poverty with seniors, youth, immigrants, people with disabilities and workers in Cook and Lake Counties.

This year a collaborative effort by several CCHD grantees helped pass the Illinois Domestic Workers’ Bill of Rights (HB 1288). This law grants domestic workers – caretakers, housekeepers, those who clean and do household maintenance – the same legal protections as other workers. This victory directly lifts up the poor.

Please make a special effort during this Thanksgiving season to give generously to the CCHD Collection the weekend of November 19-20. Your contribution will enable the poor to achieve greater dignity and all of us to work together to build God’s kingdom of justice.

To learn more about CCHD in the Archdiocese of Chicago, parish resources, and the groups it funds, please visit www.ChicagoPeaceAndJustice.org/CCHD.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Blase J. Cupich

St. Hubert Junior High Students Strengthen Their Faith

Our graduating class traveled to Camp Duncan for the annual eighth Grade Retreat. Ten former graduates of St. Hubert School accompanied the students and teachers and served as group leaders. Their insight and leadership were invaluable to the success of the day, and we thank them for helping to create such a successful event! Students participated in team building activities, prayer services, and times of thoughtful reflection throughout the day in a peaceful and serene outdoor setting. Though it was difficult for students to let go of those phones and electronics, by the end of the day everyone agreed that taking the time to “unplug” and connect with God and our friends proved to be an enlightening experience that we will never forget!

In October, the seventh grade also participated in an all-day retreat. Fr. Fred Licciardi spoke with the students for a short time about positive peer relationships, the adverse effects of bullying, and the value in strengthening our Faith. After lunch, the students collaborated in small groups and as a large group to complete varying tasks. Students experienced growth in their spiritual relationship with God and social relationships with peers.

“Random Acts of Kindness” was the general theme of the sixth grade retreat. Students began the day working with our third graders. After choosing a biblical quote, groups of third and sixth graders, together, created murals to illustrate their quote. Both grades learned the true meaning of team work while writing, drawing, and coloring side by side. Our day included practicing the “Golden Rule,” writing and singing original kindness songs, and “paying it forward” by doing a random act of kindness for someone. Students participated in a sculpting project, while team building and developing bonding skills with classmates.

Catholic Charities New Hope Apartments
A Transitional Housing Program for Homeless Families
September Update

Family #26
Recap: Mother with two daughters ages 14 & 7. We have said good bye to this family. They are moving on to permanent, affordable housing in Elgin and are excited about moving into their own place. She accomplished many goals while in the program. She was able to find another part time job, pay down some credit card debt, and save up enough for her security deposit and first month’s rent at her new place. She was very grateful for the time to get her life back in order and to stabilize her children. Next year, her children will transfer to an Elgin school district. Our mom had many challenges along the way, but she was determined to be a success and her hard work has paid off.

Next month we will introduce a new family. This family sends its sincere gratitude to all the parishioners for your support! It is exciting to help a family reach their goals.

Family #27
Recap: Single mom with a son.
This family will exit the program the end of October. Our mom is doing well and both she and her son accomplished much while in the New Hope Program. She continues to look for affordable housing closer to her job, but she wants to keep her son’s school and therapy (Kenneth Young) in mind. He is currently stable and consistently going to therapy and taking his medication. It has had a positive impact on his behavior at home and school. It might be a detriment to her son’s progress to move away from the routine of his school and Kenneth Young, so she must keep his best interests in mind as she seeks other housing options.

This family is very grateful to be a part of the Peace and Justice extended family.

BETHLEHEM BOUND

November 15th at 7:00—9:00 PM

So often the weeks before Christmas are filled with the busyness of preparation for celebrations with family and friends. And what a joy ~ and a challenge this can be! In the midst of this bustle and activity, we can lose sight of the true message and meaning of the season. This evening of reflection, with the theme "Bethlehem Bound," offers you an opportunity to pause, reflect, share, and deepen your faith, as we journey together to the city of Jesus’ birth.

Mary is a member of the ministry staff at Bellarmine Jesuit Retreat House in Barrington, Illinois. She is originally from Quincy, Illinois, and is a 1969 graduate of Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She taught school in Milwaukee’s inner city, before moving to Washington DC, to work for the United States Senate. Mary and her late husband, David, have a daughter, Catherine and two grandsons who are the joy of her life. Mary received training as a Spiritual Director at the Jesuit’s Manresa Retreat House in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, where she was a staff member for several years prior to joining the retreat staff at Bellarmine.
