6th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

“You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment. But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment.” —Mt 5:21-22a

Dear Friends,

Last week I included a letter sent to school parents regarding our fund-raising efforts for St. Hubert School. It explained why we are having a raffle this year with a goal of $75,000. It’s called We Hold God in Our Hearts.

I take this opportunity to remind all our parishioners that the school is not separate from the parish. It is not the “parish and school,” but rather St. Hubert Parish, which includes a church and a school. Consequently, it is the responsibility of all of us to support our ministries including our school. Therefore, I am asking our parishioners to consider buying a raffle ticket for $25.00. If you would like to contribute more or take extra chances, it would help our school budget tremendously. I thank you in advance for your generosity and support. Tickets may be purchased in the narthex after the Masses.

Our new Music Director, Ed Magistrado, will begin on February 16. For his first 4 days he will spend time learning the routine and infrastructure of our parish. I have asked him to simply observe our liturgies during the weekend of February 18/19. He will have his first rehearsals with the choirs on the following Monday and Tuesday. In the near future, we will publish a bio and picture of him and his family. I know that I can count on you to give him a warm St. Hubert welcome.

It’s that time of year again when the Archdiocese asks us to conduct the Annual Catholic Appeal. So, as we are holding God in our hearts for our school raffle the theme for the Appeal is “Love Your Neighbor As Yourself.” The Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge Campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments. This theme is a reminder that our gifts can make a difference to enable the funded ministries and services of the Archdiocese to help the Pastoral Center in serving our large Archdiocese. We exceeded our goal last year by about $7,000. The parish will get a rebate for this. This year’s goal is $82,631.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend.

Prior to Christmas I sent a letter to last year’s donors to remind them to pray about how they would like to divide their contributions for this year. I hope by now, you are giving a percentage of your gross income to charity. May protestant churches recommend tithing or 10%. I realize that Catholics are not used to thinking this way, but I do think that our giving should be a prayerful response to God, with some percentage of our annual income. It’s too easy to fall into the temptation to just give whatever we have left over in our pockets. We hope for a deliberative and intentional prayerful response to thank God for His gifts to us.

Later this year the new Pastor will be required to run the Campaign, To Teach Who Christ Is. Our parish will be responsible to raise $1.8 million. If your funds are limited, like most of us, I ask you to consider waiting for this campaign next fall.

For your information, I will be out of the office until February 27.

Enjoy the last month of winter.

Rev. Robert C. Rizzo

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF
Annual Catholic Appeal 2017

Please spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The ACA theme, “Love Your Neighbor As Yourself,” was selected to remind us that our contributions to the Annual Catholic Appeal enable the funded ministries and services to share God’s love with many others in our parish, our Archdiocese, and throughout the world.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services.

After our parish goal of $82,631 is reached in cash, 100% of any additional funds come back to our parish to help to fund our needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 3

FEBRUARY 12, 2017
Liturgy Corner

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven." Jesus presents two paths for us today: we can break his commandments or obey them. And the result corresponds to our choice. If we decide not to follow God's guidelines, we will not enjoy the fullness of the kingdom of heaven. But if we choose otherwise, eternity will look much brighter for us!

Of course, it's easy to know in our minds what the right choice is. But putting this into practice is another matter. The commandments Jesus gives in today's Gospel are not easy to follow. He takes the ancient Ten Commandments to a deeper level of commitment. He says more than do not kill. Rather, do not even harbor anger in our hearts. He says more than do not commit adultery. Rather, do not even indulge in lustful thoughts. He says more than do not lie. Rather, do not even swear.

Undoubtedly, Jesus is asking us to chart a challenging course. But he would not expect us to follow these directives if it were impossible to do so. And it's important to bear in mind that Jesus doesn't set high standards to test or punish us. His love for us is at the root of everything he teaches us. Following these commandments, challenging though they may be, will in fact make us happier people, both now and in eternity! As with so many good things in life, committed effort on our part is necessary—whether it be maintaining good health, accomplishing a certain skill, or earning a sought-after award. So too with a soul that is truly free. We need to exercise a life of virtue by taking the advice of Jesus Christ, the best life coach we could ever hope to have.

ANointing of the Sick at Mass

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is intended for those who are ill. The rite consists of the “laying on of hands” and the anointing of the hands and forehead of the sick person. The illness need not be life threatening to receive the Sacrament. And in fact, it is common practice now for people to be anointed if they are suffering with a chronic disease or addiction and wish to receive the special grace of this sacrament. This Sacrament is not to be confused with the old notion of the “last rites,” which were reserved only for persons in imminent danger of death.

Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

We Are In Need of Ministers of Care!

Celebrating the Eucharist is at the very heart of our faith. However, because of illness or injury, many of our fellow Catholics in the St. Hubert area cannot join in the celebration. To ensure that these community members stay connected to us, we invite individuals to consider becoming a minister of care. These ministry volunteers are a wonderful “invisible army” that works quietly, diligently, and lovingly to bring our Lord to those who could not otherwise receive communion. As Ministers of Care, we bring communion to Catholics in area nursing homes and retirement homes, individual homes, and the hospitals.

If you can join us in this ministry, we guarantee you will find it extremely rewarding. Training for Ministers of Care consists of two Saturdays, March 11 and March 18 from 9:00 AM—3:00 PM. Training will be held at St. Francis De Sales Parish in Lake Zurich.

If you are interested or if you would like to explore whether this ministry is for you, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We want to get everyone interested in this ministry interviewed and registered for this spring program by February 28, 2017.

~Cardinal Blase Cupich (01/09/17)

Under the BRIDGE Act, young people who came to the United States as children would maintain their eligibility to work and live in the U.S. without the fear of deportation and family separation so long as they meet certain requirements.

The Jewish religious authorities of Jesus’ day were often literalists in their interpretation of the Law of God. Jesus, however, gave a deeper meaning to the Law. He placed his focus on the goal of the Law: Love.

In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus explains that we fail to fulfill the Law when our so-called obedience isn’t motivated by love.

Jesus completely fulfilled the true meaning of the Law. In doing so, he took upon himself our disobedience and died for us in the most generous gift of love.

As his followers, we also are to be generous with love. Obedying all the commandments — truly obeying them — requires loving God with our whole heart, all the time, and loving others as ourselves.

Jesus explains how to transform literal interpretations of God’s laws into the Law of Love. In each example, he shows that we are to choose the most loving approach to every problem, no matter how difficult.

His first topic is anger. Sinful anger is judgmental and we are judged by this sin. Jesus provides the remedy: Go and do whatever is necessary to be reconciled. This, he points out, is even more important than worshiping God. How genuine can our worship be if anger has replaced love in our hearts, since God is love?

Another example is lust, which is a counterfeit of love because it treats others as objects. And divorce from a valid marriage is a failure to love as Christ loves, who taught that love makes sacrifices and endures hardships. Remarriage, he says, furthers the sin because it’s unloving to the spouse of the original union.

Jesus extends this teaching to every area of life. Breaking an oath is unloving. Lying and never intending to keep the commitment is unloving. In fact, the entire Sermon on the Mount, of which this Gospel reading is a part, explains how to love.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Were you ever treated unlovingly because of another person’s legalism? How did that experience hide the true nature of Jesus?

2. What habits do you have that are unloving toward yourself? How do they affect others?

3. Recall a time when someone treated you unfairly but you responded with an act of love. How difficult was it to give that love? What were the results?

4. Name common ways that Christians fail to obey God. What did Jesus do to make up for those failures? For example, how do you suppose Jesus treats unborn babies who’ve been aborted or miscarried?

Recently, in a theology class, I was asked this question: “Why is it that whenever we talk about love we soon end up talking about rules and commandments? Invariably we end up talking about what we can’t do! And it’s the same thing with faith: We begin talking about faith and then end up talking about dogma, creeds, and heresies. Why can’t we just talk about love and faith without immediately bringing in a bunch of ‘dos’ and ‘don’ts’?”

Fair enough. A good question. This is not unlike the famous ecclesiological query of a century ago when a French theologian asked: “Jesus came preaching a kingdom, how did we end up with the church?” Where do commandments, creeds, dogmas, and structures come from?

First off, we should admit that, sadly, sometimes they come from the wrong places. Rules, laws, and dogmas too frequently come from administrative offices that are too concerned with their own power. As well, they come from fearful, jealous, and petty places inside of ourselves. Small wonder that they do not always serve love and faith very well. However, in their best expression they come from love and faith themselves, just as an oak tree comes from an acorn and a mature man or woman develops out of a single set of chromosomes. Love and faith, like an acorn or a set of chromosomes, carry a clear, determined DNA.

We see this with faith: Bernard Lonergan once said that faith is the brand of the first principles inside the human soul. Henri Nouwen, using a different language, said the same thing. For him, faith is the primal memory of the kiss of God in the soul, the dark remembrance of true first love, of having once, before conscious memory, been caressed by hands far gentler than our own. These are wonderful, helpful images for faith. Faith is a brand, a kiss. However once we begin to try to touch that kiss in any way – through words, imagination, or even through feeling – we find that not all expressions of what we think this kiss is are true to its DNA and that only certain things can grow out of that acorn. The thing itself – however inchoate, dark, and beyond our imagination – dictates the lines within which it can validly be taken. As soon as we try to give expression to the kiss of God in us we find that some things we say are true to that kiss and others are not and soon enough that makes for creeds, dogmas, and heresies. We see this right in the way our Christian creeds developed. Immediately after the resurrection, the earliest Christians had only a one-line creed: Jesus is Lord! That’s a powerful little acorn! It says it all. However, as they tried to un-package what that meant, while all the time remaining true to its DNA, they eventually ended up with a couple of lengthy creeds and a whole series of dogmas that were needed to challenge a number of false understandings along the way.

Love works the same way. It too is a brand inside of the heart, an acorn with a unique DNA. Love can grow legitimately only in certain directions. What is its DNA? At one level this is clear. Love, in order to be love, must contain gratitude, respect, selflessness, and a willingness to let the other be free. Selfishness, envy, taking-another-for-granted, disrespect, and violation of all kinds can never pass themselves off as love. They are its antithesis. All of this is already written into the acorn. Hence there are some non-negotiable “dos” and “don’ts” within love. These are not arbitrary, humanly-imposed, dictates that limit love, but are rather the inherent lines for health and growth written right into love’s DNA. Thus, love, like faith, necessarily ends up with a number of commandments, creeds, and dogmas.

Sometimes today we are too easily seduced by a naive concept of love and freedom. This naivete would have us believe that faith and love can exist without boundaries, that there is not within them a defined DNA that may not be violated. The belief here is that love and faith can mean whatever we want them to mean. But, as we know, something that means everything means nothing. Love that is potentially anything, that exists without any non-negotiable protective principles, can also then mean incest, rape, and murder. The same is true of faith. Faith without boundaries, without creed and dogma to specify it, can then just as easily mean racism, Nazism, and bigotry.

Why do we inevitably end up talking about creeds, dogmas, commandments, and boundaries? Because love and faith have a set DNA. Every acorn is meant to be a very specific kind of tree. So too with love and faith. Already in their nascent forms, as in any tiny seed, there is present a fairly complete script for health and growth. Good creeds, dogmas, and commandments simply lay out that script so that it can be consciously read.

We Hold God in Our Hearts
Lynn Rymarz has entertained audiences with her portrayals of historical women since 2005. Tonight she will introduce us to Eleanor Roosevelt. Lynn weaves her story from her lonely childhood days to becoming a champion for human rights around the world. Hear Eleanor’s story in her own words taken from her writings, including her long running newspaper column “My Day.” Discover the journey that led to her marriage to FDR, to a mother of six children, to the White House, where she served as the nation’s First Lady for twelve years—including her work during World War II. Hear how she gained the confidence to step out of the traditional role of women, how she faced her fears, celebrated her joys, and grew from her struggles as a daughter, wife, mother, and friend.

Upon graduating from Arizona State University with a B.A. in Elementary Education, Lynn became a fourth grade teacher for six years. She also volunteered with her church drama ministry, where she wrote, directed and acted in performances for children. Her interest in history has spilled over to entertaining audiences with her historical portrayals of women, told in the first person. Her performances have included Mary Lincoln, Martha Washington, Susan B. Anthony, Mary Surratt, Nellie Bly, The Unsinkable Margaret Brown, Mary Cassatt, Zelda Fitzgerald and Julia Child. Join us for a very special evening and meet Eleanor Roosevelt.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700 for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS
To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born. Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES
Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION
Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.
