EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

We often say in the Church that stewardship is about the three Ts, time, talent, and treasure, but really, stewardship is about the big "E," which is everything. We are made up of more than just our time, talent, and treasure, and the gifts that come from God are overwhelming. All that we have, from the obvious to the not so obvious, is a gift from God. We are called to cultivate them all and offer them back to God with increase.

But that also means holding nothing back. That requires a stepping out in faith. Our trust then cannot be in the gifts God gives, since we have hopefully given them all over to God. Only in God can we place our trust. Our homes, our 401(k)s, our family, and our bodies all belong to God. With nothing left, we have nothing and no one else to put our trust in but God.

If you find yourself unable to place all of your trust in God, perhaps you are still holding something back. Is your comfort found in something other than God? It is pretty common for Christians to "hide something away" while saying they are all in. But of course, nothing is hidden from God. Pray about it and ask God to grant the strength to surrender all to him. We are asked to trust in God, but really, true trust is a fruit that comes about when we have had the courage to surrender it all. Trust is just a word if we continue to serve two masters. The great thing is that not only will God not turn away from us, God will also help us turn toward him. You may be asked to surrender it all, but you are never alone.

It is a lesson that we all need—to let alone the things that do not concern us. He has other ways for others to follow him; all do not go by the same path.

Penitential Disciplines of Lent

“The Christian faithful, during Lent, are clearly conscious of the need to turn the mind towards those realities which really count, which require Gospel commitment and integrity of life which, through self denial of those things which are superfluous, are translated into good works and solidarity with the poor and needy” (Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy, #125).

In addition to choosing their own penitential practices, Catholics are also asked to observe the practices of fast and abstinence during the 40 days of Lent. The Lenten Fast and Abstinence Regulations are as follows:

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. (The obligation of fasting ceases with the celebration of one’s 59th birthday.)

3. Fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday means eating only one full, meatless meal. Two other smaller, meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one’s needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices, are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.

4. Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.

8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?" The anti-anxiety message Jesus gives us today is not just ancient pop psychology. The point of this passage isn’t to give us a "strategy" for coping with our fears. Jesus is proposing something much more profound. He is teaching us how to eliminate our fears altogether. To put it simply, he tells us to get our priorities straight. This whole reflection on worrying culminates in the instruction to "seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness." That's where our freedom lies. When we concern ourselves with being in right relationship with God, our other concerns melt away.

Deep down, we know that this life isn't about bodily health or comfort. Those things don't last anyway. But freedom from fretting is more than simply thinking about how it'll all work out--eventually--in heaven. No. Jesus offers us more. He insists that our heavenly Father will provide for us, here and now. We only need to take him at his word. That means sticking to our part of the bargain by putting God first.

What does this look like, this seeking God and not worrying about the rest? It looks like Mother Teresa giving up every material possession, living amongst the poor without any dependable income, and watching truckloads of food appear at her doorstep unannounced. It looks like a check showing up in the mailbox of two struggling parents to cover the medical bills for their sick baby. It looks like the couple that tithes to its parish month after month, and still finds it has plenty to cover its expenses. In a word, it looks like trust. Trust in the divine providence of a Father who loves his children.

The Little Black Book

More than other times of year, during Lent we seek to increase our prayer life and spend quiet time with God. Our help to you is the Little Black Book, one for each household or parishioner as supply lasts. This pocket-sized book is your companion for spending 6 minutes each day walking through the daily Scripture with reflections based on the writings of Bishop Untener, and published by the diocese of Saginaw. One side offers a small bit of teaching—things many of us do not know of our Catholic teachings and legends. Bishop Untener, whose faith and life is reflected in the Little Black Book, is now deceased, but remains an inspiration to us all.

The idea is to find six minutes of quiet time every day. That’s within reach. It has no cover title or illustration so you can use it anywhere without even announcing what you are doing. You are opening yourself up to the Lord.

The Little Black Books are available this weekend, February 25th & 26th as you leave Mass, and will be distributed on Ash Wednesday through the 1st Sunday of Lent.

Encounter our neighbors, Encounter God

One of the disciplines of Lent is almsgiving, a practice of our Christian living at all times of the year. It is more than giving away what clothing we no longer need or giving a bit extra to Community Life. It is a greater awareness of the source of our gifts and blessings—the outward expression of this gratitude is giving to those in need.

Catholic Relief Services assists our brothers and sisters around the globe and locally, offering services to the poorest and most vulnerable. Their faith-in-action receives our support during Lent through the donations of our Rice Bowls. CRS Rice Bowl program invites us to be in solidarity with our communities and individuals who need our generosity to live better, healthier, more dignified lives.

Please take a Rice Bowl from the basket in the narthex to collect any amount you are able to give during Lent. This can be an opportunity to teach our children, and all in our household, about the meaning of almsgiving.
BASIC TRAINING FOR MINISTERS OF CARE

Have you felt you would like to visit the sick or shut-ins in their homes? Or have you felt you would like to take communion to the sick in the hospitals or nursing homes?

This ministry is designed for persons to be commissioned as Ministers of Care who will visit and/or take the Eucharist to residents of nursing homes, the hospitalized, and the homebound.

If you can join us in this ministry, we guarantee you will find it extremely rewarding. Training for Ministers of Care consists of two Saturdays: March 11 and March 18 from 9:00 AM—3:00 PM. Training will be held at St. Francis De Sales Parish in Lake Zurich.

If you are interested or if you want to explore whether this ministry is for you, please contact Marie Staffa at 847-885-7700, ext. 124 or mstaffa@sainthubert.org. We want to get everyone interested in this ministry interviewed and registered for this spring program by February 28, 2017.

THANKS TO ALL WHO HELPED WITH THE COMMUNAL ANOINTING OF SICK

The communal celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick was held last Sunday at the 9:00 AM Mass. This celebration calls for the collaboration and services of a number of people. A special gratitude to all who participated—whether you received the anointing or prayed for those who were being blessed and prayed over. Thank you, to the Ministers of Care who assisted those receiving the Sacrament by giving directions or offering support. And thanks, also, to the liturgical ministers: the priests, musicians, cantors, and choir—whose ministry adds so much to the beauty and meaning of the celebration.

CHICAGO CATHOLIC

Newspaper of the Archdiocese of Chicago

Lent is the season of silence. It is a time to enter into the desert, as Jesus did for 40 days. In the February 26 issue of Chicago Catholic, please look for the article from Cardinal Blase Cupich about Lent and silence (chicagocatholic.com). In that piece, the Cardinal asks pastors to invite their communities to take extra time for silence after Communion to allow God to speak to us, for “nothing in all of creation is so like God as silence.”

8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

February 26, 2017
O God, we thank you for implanting the gift of faith in human hearts. We thank you for sending Jesus, Your Son, as the fullness of your love. May his life and mission lead us to share in your divine life. Today we ask you to bless in a special way all catechumens, and candidates, who have generously responded to the invitation of Jesus: "Come, follow me."

Help them to persevere in their journey of faith despite any difficulties. Bless those who minister through the RCIA program so that, under the guidance of your Holy Spirit, they may lead others to a life of faith in Jesus Christ. Grant that all parishioners will take an active role in bringing new members into the Church. Call us all to a renewal of our faith, and inspire us all to be your light in the world. Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.

Preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation—Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist

Catholics who are preparing to complete the Sacraments of Initiation—Confirmation and Eucharist

Please pray for these men, women, teens and children who are preparing for the Initiation Sacraments at the Easter Vigil 2017
ASH WEDNESDAY

How often do we wish that we had more time for pleasure, for renewing our energy, for working on those things we never have time to do? Here you have it—Lent! The word Lent means springtime. We all know what happens in spring. The earth has no power over the crocus, tulip, and daffodil. With determination, their buds push forth and renew the beauty within. The sun is warmer, our spirits are lifted, and our hope is renewed. Is there any reason Lent cannot do the same for us in this spring season, with its full makeover?

The disciplines for this are simply Christian disciplines that are a part of daily living: prayer, turning toward God’s presence; fasting, avoiding or removing anything that stands in the way of being who I am in God’s plan, and almsgiving—giving preference to those in need with faithful stewardship of my blessings.

Yet, on Ash Wednesday, we seem to do these things with greater determination and sincerity. It is God’s invitation to “return to me with your whole heart.” The great numbers who come to church on Ash Wednesday says that there is something attractive to us about that invitation. What does this day, this ritual of receiving ashes, this season do for our lives? Perhaps it is simply in our Catholic DNA, it’s what we do on Ash Wednesday—receive ashes and wear them publicly on our foreheads throughout the day until we wash them off in the evening. Yet, even that says something. We are connected by this outward sign. We are marked by this gritty cross as a people.

Ashes are not a symbol of greatness or purity of heart, rather, it admits our weakness as sinners. We have “knots” and Lent can bring a deep and profound change of the heart. We take on penance, not as an endurance contest, or a way of riddling ourselves of addictions or indulgences, but as a tool for becoming free from the dry, hard earth that keeps the buds beneath it. It’s not a sudden conversion. A lot has been going on under the soil. God is at work in us—always. God has placed the bulbs in winter’s soil, the ones that will flourish with new life.

Our Ash Wednesday, March 1: Mass and Liturgy of the Word schedule is:

7:00 & 8:30 AM              Eucharist with distribution of ashes
12:00 & 4:30 PM     Liturgy of the Word with distribution of ashes
7:30 PM                          Eucharist with distribution of ashes

Lenten Symbol: The Knotted Cross

We tend to tie our struggles to the image of bearing our cross. Yet, for Christians, the cross is a symbol of both suffering and triumph over suffering—the glory of the Cross. Death does not win—love triumphs over evil.

This year’s Lenten symbol is a cross tied to a purple rope with one knot. Reflect on the knots in your life and tie one knot each week during the 5 weeks of Lent. What are the “knots” that keep you from being your best possible self? Pray with your cross, even fingering that knot, asking God for true change in those behaviors, attitudes, and roadblocks to freedom from these ways. This kind of conversion is what Lent is all about—the kind that brings real freedom to loving, healthy relationships with others and with God.

Lent, the springtime of the Church’s seasons, is an opportunity to look those knots square in the face and choose to undo those things in ourselves. Through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving we can bring about change in our behavior and way of thinking. This is the conversion we seek, something more than surface change or temporary restraint. This is the conversion that sets us free.

Our Ash Wednesday psalm seems to put the words on our lips.
“thoroughly wash me from my guilt...for I acknowledge my offense. Give me back the joy of your salvation.”

PART ONE OF A THREE PART SERIES
All relationships exist on a spectrum from healthy to abusive, with unhealthy somewhere in the middle.

WHAT DOES A HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP LOOK LIKE?

- Communicating: You talk openly about problems and listen to one another. You respect each other’s opinions.
- Respectful: You value each other as you are.
- Trusting: You believe what your partner has to say. You do not feel the need to “prove” each other’s trustworthiness.
- Honest: You are honest with each other, but can still keep some things private.
- Equal: You make decisions together and hold each other to the same standard.
- Enjoying personal time: You both enjoy spending time apart, alone or with others. You respect each other’s need for time apart.
- Engaging in supportive parenting: You communicate together about the needs of the children, as well as the needs of both parents.

Our January presentation, was so well received that we will be repeating this program. Don’t miss it!

Each child is unique...it’s about learning to love our kids the way they need to be loved.

How We Love Our Kids offers a unique approach that helps you see how the family you grew up in and your childhood experiences can shape the way you love.

- Identify which of the five love styles you have.
- Discover the surprising dynamics that shape your parenting.
- Get rid of your “buttons” so your kids can’t push them.
- Create a close connection with your kids that will last a lifetime.
- Learn the seven gifts every child needs.

Based on years of research in the area of attachment and bonding, How We Love Our Kids shows parents how to overcome the predictable challenges that arise out of the five love styles and helps parents cultivate a secure, deep connection with a child of any age. Same principles apply whether children are young, teen or adult children.

Look What’s Going on in Third Grade!

In Science, third graders study living things and write expository essays after investigating unusual and intriguing animals. Hands on experiments lead to better understanding of greenhouse gas in the atmosphere and its effect on the earth. Observing models placed in sunny locations, recording temperatures, and drawing conclusions about observed changes keeps these young scientists committed to protecting the Earth!

Students learn about heat distribution by placing candles under balloons, one with water versus one without. It was exciting to pose questions, investigate, examine, and draw conclusions.

In Math, we have been working very hard on multiplication and division. We filled in a hundreds chart using several of the strategies we have learned such as arrays, related fact families, commutative property, and factoring. Now on to fractions!

Third graders work hard to learn the Six Traits of Writing. Student writing fills the school hallways with narrative, descriptive and expository writing pieces. Stop by and read their favorite piece, “What Do Snowmen Do at Night?”

This weekend, February 25 & 26 there will be a bake sale in the Narthex of the church before and after all Masses. This is to fundraise for an Eagle Scout project. The project will benefit the school by converting an unused, empty room into a STEM room (science technology engineering and math).

If you would be willing to donate a pot of meatless soup, please call the Religious Education Office at 847-885-7703.

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Call the Parish Office 847-885-7700
for further questions or to make arrangements.

BAPTISMS

To register for Baptism, stop in or call the Parish Office. Parents must attend a Baptismal Preparation Meeting, which is held on the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM. You may attend this parent meeting either before or after the baby is born.

Baptisms take place on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 1:30 PM or at Mass by arrangement. You will confirm the date for Baptism by attending the Baptism Preparation Meeting.

MARRIAGES

Please do not reserve your banquet hall before confirming the date with the church. Set your date by calling the Parish Office as early as possible as you plan your wedding—at least 6 months before the wedding. Weddings take place on Saturdays at 2:00 PM. Weekdays and Sundays must be arranged individually.

RECONCILIATION

Saturday after 4:30 PM Mass, or by appointment.

EUCHARIST FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

If there is anyone who would like to receive Eucharist at home, or if you know a friend, neighbor or family member who is homebound and would like a home visit to receive Eucharist, please call the Parish Ministry Center. One of our dedicated ministers will be glad to fulfill these requests.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK

Please call the Parish Ministry Center Office to make arrangements for a priest to visit.
